

DOWNERS GROVE REPORT

In the Interest of Industrial Expansion and Social Advancement of Downers Grove and Vicinity

VOL. XXVI—NO 17

DOWNERS GROVE, DU PAGE COUNTY, ILLINOIS, DECEMBER 17, 1909

NEW SPECIAL BONUS OFFER GOOD FOR ONE WEEK

For Every Thousand Votes in Merchants' Coupons the Reporter Will Give an Additional Thousand.

Piano Now on Display at Haller & Co.'s Department Store—Ballot Box Will Close at 1 P. M. Thursday, December 23rd—Judges Graham, Hoffer and Naramore Will Count the Votes.

Seven days remain for contestants in the great piano contest to make themselves sure of standing pat, for the $400.00 Home Sewing Machine to be given to the contestant that makes the greatest increase in votes from November 24th until the second count, Thursday, December 23d.

The new Home Sewing Machine which will be awarded at this time is small compared to the $400.00 Oakland Piano which will be given to the contestant that gets the largest number of votes during the entire contest. But remember when you are working for the special prizes you are getting nearer the top and ready for the final count, which will follow very closely after this count. The money and prizes are distributed, however, regularly at each count, as an indicator of the good faith of the Reporter in offering the prizes, and as a suggestion to the young ladies of the prize to come.

The $400.00 Oakland Piano has arrived and is on exhibition at S. F. Haller's store. Go in and see it—try it—play on it—see if it is not well worth working hard for.

Just to create a little additional excitement we have prepared the following bonus offer on merchants' coupons in addition to the bonus offer we are giving on subscriptions. This offer will positively never be repeated on merchants' coupons, nor will we ever give a bonus during the balance of the contest of any amount on merchants' coupons, so now is your chance to reap the harvest while the sun shines.

For every one thousand votes in merchants' coupons the Reporter will give an additional thousand votes. These votes and bonuses do not necessarily have to be cast at this count, so now is your chance to pay up your bills at the different stores and trade with the merchants when buying your holiday gifts. These votes you can hold until the last count if you wish, but of course all subscription coupons must be voted at the next count.

And we wonder who will be the lucky girl.

A new piano is an excellent start in home furnishing. Will she have many proposals, do you suppose?

Would she want to sell it for less than she paid for it?

Will there will be money in that?

And all this for merely a few hours' extra time each day, as is now being done by various young women throughout the country.

For each collection of renewal or back subscriptions to the Reporter their totals take a jump of 400, and for new subscriptions they are shored along at the rate of 500 votes per name.

The following is the bonus offer on subscriptions, which will hold good until the next count, Thursday, December 23d:

For every five year's new subscription, 5,000 extra, making a total of 7,500 votes.

For every five year's renewal or back subscription, 4,000 extra, making a total of 6,000 votes.

Remember that the next count is Thursday, Dec. 23, 1909.

HOME DEPARTMENT.
The Home Department of the Congregational Sunday school has inaugurated a series of social and literary afternoons which promise to be delightful occasions during the winter. These social times are under the direction of the department classes, each class in turn providing a program, hostess and refreshments. The literary work has for a general topic "The American Poet," but there will also be papers and discussions on phases of child life which are of moment to mothers.

The first meeting has already been held at the home of Miss Maude Bateman. Bishop Fallows of Chicago gave an address on "Right Living," which was of unusual interest. Bishop Fallows associates the doctrine of ministering to souls and bodies simultaneously in an intelligent and scientific way. He preaches that health and happiness go together. His address was scholarly and persuasive, and he touched upon such topics as metaphysics, Christian Science and the Emmanuel Movement in decisive and instructive terms.

About a hundred ladies were present, including guests from other churches, and all appreciated listening to so distinguished a speaker. During the afternoon music was furnished by a ladies' quartette and by Mr. Stephen Sacksteder, who rendered a pleasing violin solo. On Tuesday afternoon, December 28th, this series of entertainments will be continued by a Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Minnie Prince, Oakwood avenue. To this party each member may bring one guest, and genuine merrymaking is anticipated. A benevolence committee has been recently chosen with Miss Fannie Stewart as chairman. To her home on Prince avenue donations of clothing and food may be sent during Christmas week. Such articles will be distributed among the worthy poor of the village.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY.
The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational Church will meet in the church basement on Tuesday afternoon, December 28th, at 2 o'clock. This will be entirely a business session, with annual election of officers and reports from departments. Satisfaction is felt in regard to the recent bazaar. The committee wishes to thank all members who donated so liberally. Heartly thanks are also given to friends outside the organization who contributed generously toward the sale.

NO QUESTION OF FINANCE.
You reach others, others reach you—and the telephone proves indispensable. It handles your work promptly and effectively. No more too long to hear the slight expense. Chicago Telephone Company.

WISE AND OTHERWISE

Announcement is made that the public debate which was expected to have occurred Saturday night in the real estate office on Main street on the subject: "Resolved, That the old-fashioned winter has deserted the village because the big slough is drained," has been indefinitely postponed. The contestants while not formally named were understood to be Lon Palmer and Joe Richards on the affirmative and Lester Naramore and Dr. Leech on the negative; Judge Graham, Captain Rogers and Jonas Foster to decide the merits of the argument. Too bad that a little thing like zero weather and some few inches of snow would disarrange such a pleasing program.

QUESTION BOX.
Dotty—No, little one, the village board is not a plank, but is an aggregation of benevolent gentlemen who, having no troubles of their own have kindly consented to bear the burdens of the town without compensation other than the consciousness of rectitude, whatever that is. So, my child, do not hesitate to kick them if the sun does not shine to suit you, or the moon is full or your neighbor keeps a howling dog, or the chickens will get into your garden next summer.

Groucho—Yes, Christmas comes but once a year, but you display a morose disposition when you exclaim, "For which let us be thankful." Old Settler—January 17, 1869, four feet nine and one-half inches of snow fell and stayed at the corner of Main street and Maple avenue. We hate to correct you, but your statement that the big snow was in February of 1873 is in error.

COURTESY.
There are many sayings bright which our risibles excite, also funny things occur our eyes to greet; but it really is a sin just to see the people grin, when the other fellow's hat falls in the street. How each frantic grab he makes as a zig zag course it takes, twirling merrily beneath the horses' feet, till the passerby with glee as his sorry plight they see, when the other fellow's hat falls in the street. Some are very dignified and pursue with manly stride, trying vainly to covert ridicule to cheat, but they make it funnier still, and the people always will laugh aloud when someone's hat falls in the street. It is sad to realize that the courtesy we prize is no thicker than a flimsy paper sheet and this never strikes us more than when our folk with laughter roar when our own beloved derby hits the street. S. Y. D.

School Notes
Our schools will close Friday, December 17th, for the holiday vacation. Work will be resumed again Monday, January 3, 1910.
All our teachers who reside out of town will spend the holiday vacation at their respective homes.
Miss Ina B. Osborne, teacher in the fifth grade at the South Side school, will not return next year. Miss Gertrude Williams of Kendall County has been engaged to take up the work in this grade.
County Superintendent R. T. Morgan was a caller at the office Thursday.

Every boy in this nation must be taught to work and desire to work, and in the degree in which the home neglects this part of his education the school must, whether it would or not, take it up and carry it to completion. And so in the future the problem of the teacher will not be a mere problem of instruction; it will be the infinitely larger problem of making men and women capable of doing their share of the world's work in the best possible way.—Fassett A. Cotton.
A small purse containing 20 cents awaits the owner at the superintendent's office.

There are a few parents in our town who are negligent about sending their children to school. It might be well to remind those that we have a compulsory education law in this state which requires all children between the ages of 7 and 16 years to attend school regularly. The penalty for violation of this law is severe. We must insist on a regular attendance of all pupils at school unless detained by sickness.
Miss Bessie C. Chambers of Amboy, Ill., spent last Friday visiting our school.
Superintendent Butler will leave the 28th for Springfield, Ill., to attend the State Teachers' Association, of which he is a member.

The average man can't see anything wrong with his conduct as long as he is in a position to look through the bars of a jail from the outside.
Many a fine career has been cut short by a long tongue.

HOUSEHOLD GOODS SALE.

Sale of all household goods of Mrs. Hugh M. White, including piano, rugs and china cabinet; these are new; piano, one and a half year's use; rugs, two months' use, and china cabinet has not been taken from station to house yet; good bargains in other articles. All must go at once. All will be sold at 100 Highland avenue at 2 p. m., Saturday, Dec. 18.

NOTICE.
Prof. Rowden's annual masquerade at his Academy of Dancing, Dicke's Hall, Monday evening, Dec. 20. There will be twenty grand prizes given. No cheap ones. This will be one of the most select affairs of the season. Mr. Rowden will spare no expense or effort in making it a success. Positively no ladies admitted in gent's attire or gents in ladies' attire, for they will be ejected from the hall immediately.

BASKET BALL.

DOWNERS GROVE GUBS WIN.
Some excellent team work and brilliant playing by Drew and C. Staiger put another game to the credit of the Gubs team last Saturday night. There was a change in the line-up of the team owing to A. McLean cutting his fingers so badly that he could not play his usual position. B. Drew was shifted to forward in his place and A. Gollan took Drew's guard position. Their opponents, the Christ Church Eagles, were a slightly heavier team, and have had more experience at the game than our boys, but this did not seem to do them much good, for the score was 32 to 18 when the final whistle blew.
H. Drew starred with six field baskets to his credit, and C. Staiger a close second with five. B. Staiger was not able to get going at his usual rate and got only two field baskets and four out of sixteen chances at free baskets.
Kirchgasser made his usual one field basket.
The game was well played throughout and exciting, as the Eagles threatened to get into the lead a couple of times, but clever team work and baskets thrown at particularly opportune moments showed that the Gubs had the real goods.

The Methodists were defeated by Berwyn 25 to 18.
The first half of this game was exciting and hard fought. There was not much scoring done by either team and at the intermission it seemed as if there was still a fighting chance for the home team. But the Berwyn team got their team work started at a great rate in the second half and gained a lead that was impossible to overcome.
For the Methodists Wurmer tossed four field goals and four free ones. Lemott, two field goals and Blader one. For Berwyn, La Plante caged seven, Ostrander five and Bates one, while Bierma tossed two free throws successfully.
Next Saturday evening the last games of the old year will be pulled off. The Gubs will go against the Association House Midgets and the Methodists against another team from the same settlement.

These games are improving in quality every week. The management is endeavoring to start the games promptly to prevent anything bordering on disorder or unpleasant to the most critical audience and to give the public a clean and sportsmanlike exhibition. They are deserving of the support of every person who believes in encouraging our boys and young men in maintaining healthful and interesting physical exercise for themselves. Your attendance will greatly cheer and assist the young men.

Arrangements are being made for appropriate devotional services during the Week of Prayer at the Methodist Church. The interest will center around some short talks by the various members concerning the different departments of the church.
A pleasant informal reception was held by the teachers, officers and scholars of the M. E. Sunday School in honor of their former superintendent, Geo. W. Peters, Thursday evening, Dec. 9, in the parlors of the church.
Mr. Bateman, the present superintendent, had the evening in charge and at the proper moment in a most little speech presented Mr. Peters, in behalf of the school, with a most fully engraved gold watch and with it went the good wishes of those with whom he had worked so faithfully the past two years. Mr. Peters accepted the gift and responded in his usual happy manner.
The songs by the school, E. K. the leading added zest to the evening. Refreshments were served the guests by the Philanthropes, who also presented their former superintendent with a beautiful book containing autographs of the entire class membership.

Rev. Robert Allingham, who has been pastor of the Congregational Church for the last three years and has made an enviable record in that time, has handed in his resignation. Mr. Allingham goes to Polo, Ill., where he takes the pastorate of the Independent Presbyterian Church. Polo is a prosperous up-to-date town of about 2,000 people, situated in a farming community, and on that account the pastor's sphere will be greatly enlarged. His congregation and many friends here view his departure with regret, and all wish in wishing him success in his new field of labor.

Growing promises to our youth in grace.

The church has changed the closing of the fiscal year from January 1 to April 1, but the election was held at this time, owing to the fact that Mr. W. R. Swartwood, who for the past year has served very faithfully as President, is soon to leave Downers Grove and take up his residence in Elgin.

On account of the unusually stormy weather for the past two Sunday evenings the church congregations united for service together. On the evening of the 5th the meeting was held at the Methodist Church and last Sunday at the Baptist Church.

Arrangements are being made for appropriate devotional services during the Week of Prayer at the Methodist Church. The interest will center around some short talks by the various members concerning the different departments of the church.

attendance and much business attended to.
The committee nominating officers for the coming year brought in their report, which was accepted. The ballot is now posted in the class room. The class voted to purchase and present to the M. E. Church twenty beautifully bound hymn books.
The recital which was given Nov. 1 was reported having netted $18.45, which money is held for needy local charities. There were numerous other items of business considered.
The social hour passed very pleasantly, delightful refreshments were served by Mrs. Heart and Miss Lott. Next meeting and election of officers will be held at the M. E. Church, Dec. 30; Miss Barmore and Mrs. Washburn, hostesses.
