

Lindley's Real Estate Tips

A mighty rich piece of ground, east front, would make an elegant building site...

A fine north side home, modern, eight rooms, large lot, lots of fruit and shade...

Another frontage east, very high, with 100-foot lot, plenty of shade, modern, includes a new 10-hp. furnace...

The southeast corner of one of best north side blocks, 100x132 feet, vacant, with all assessments paid in full...

If you are interested in a combination poultry-fruit farm of from 1 1/2 to 3 acres, within a few minutes' walk from depot...

We know of some building to be done this summer, as we have two or three of our own in sight, and more on the horizon.

How would you like a piece of ground with 219 feet of frontage and depth of 136 feet, 1 1/2 blocks from new depot...

This is too good to hang around very long, so come and look it up: 7 rooms, furnace heated, south front house, on one of best streets in town...

Over 4 acres in one of most beautiful lots you ever laid eyes on. High, slightly building site, south front house, on one of best streets in town...

You would be farmers, who wish to get things started, how does this read to you? 10 acres of good timber, one mile from Downers Grove corporation...

Here is the large lot proposition, right in the heart of town, and with a good house, except that it is not modern, neither is the price...

If it's about a house you have something to say, remove the receiver and call ninety-four Jay.

Nice 6-room cottage on south side, just been overhauled, is partly modern, for $2,900.

A close-in, 7-room, modern house to rent May 1; large yard, poultry house, etc.; $22.

Aetna fire insurance? Of course we have it.

Best front lot, 50x141, outside corporation, on Highland avenue, for $125 cash. This should get your thinker started.

If this is not interesting reading for a home hunter just blame me: 7 rooms, east front, on a beautiful lot 65x150 ft. on south side, steam heat, electric lights, extra nice bath, wall decorations not surpassed in any house in the village...

A real good six-room house, modern, except it has stove heat, on North Forest avenue. Fruit is plentiful. Lot, 75x141. Price, $3,900. Part cash.

Another beauty in highest part of south side, has nine rooms, with two more on third floor if needed. Large basement and attic. Extra nice trim, hot water heat, large lot with alley in rear. All special paid in full. An especially desirable home from standpoint of both health and location; $6,000, 1/4 cash.

A good many $4,000 properties do not show up as well as this $3,150 place with two coats of paint: Eight as pleasant rooms as you can imagine, new plumbing and furnace, first and second floor porches, etc. I really do not know how easy terms owner will make, but let's look it over, and make him an offer. This is no handout, there is nothing better built in town.

What have you that is real good, Downers Grove improved, or farm land, to exchange for a stone-front four-flat building on south side, Chicago? Income about $100 per month.

Good 6-room house on North Main, just outside corporation, with paint, set put in new cement walks, and sell to you for $2,300.

I can sell you a six-room house on good foundation, 50-ft. lot, well and cistern, poultry house, for $1,000, and easy payments at that. It is outside of corporation. Owner going away.

Good home with abundance of trees, lot large and covered with fruit trees, $3,300.

Passing this column along to friends by its many readers has, more than once, been the means of interesting strangers in our town. Many who are looking for a suburban home, and are not acquainted, can be influenced our way in this manner, not only benefiting the advertiser, but the homeseeker and the town as well. Every little helps.

NEVER FIGHT WITH BURGLAR

Upset a Chair and Frighten Him Away - That is the Advice of a City Policeman.

"Don't ever hunt a burglar. Make a noise and frighten him away. Upset a chair or slam a door.

"Almost all burglars carry revolvers of the finest kind. A 'pete man' or safe blower, the most dangerous kind of criminal, usually carries an automatic revolver, as it gives the quickest action.

"Every householder should have a weapon in the house, but he should never use it unless to save his life.

"It is the inexperienced man whose use of the revolver makes it dangerous.

"A professional or expert burglar will never shoot unless to avoid capture. A safe blower will shoot at a policeman or any intruder, as for them capture means a long term in prison."

Special Officer Edward Brophy, an expert, made these statements, says the Pittsburgh Post. It is only on the very rarest occasions that he can be induced to talk about himself, but it is a fact that he is a crack shot with a pistol. He has made a study of weapons, and has a collection of them at his home ranging from little "baby hammerless" revolvers to huge Winchester rifles, a shot from which will move a heavy safe. He has always been interested in guns, and has taken special pains to learn about the guns burglars and other criminals carry.

Out of Place. "Why all these contortions?" "Oh, I wish I had an idea for a poem." "What do you want to put an idea into a poem for?" - Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Growler. Redd - Saw you out with your wife's dog yesterday. Greene - How did you know it was my wife's dog? Redd - By the growling. Greene - But the dog didn't growl. Redd - No; but you did. - Youkers Statesman.

AMUSEMENTS.

"The Gamblers," one of the great successes among contemporaneous dramatic offerings and which had a run of 200 nights at the Maxine Elliott theater in New York, will be the attraction at McVicker's theater, Chicago, for two weeks beginning Sunday, March 31, and lasting through the Easter week. "The Gamblers" is under the management of the Authors' Producing Company, of which John Cort is president. In this absorbing play the story rises out of the operations of Wilbur Emerson, who with several of his associates in the banking business, use the money of the depositors in an endeavor to fight several larger banks which are trying to crush his own. The complications which grow out of this foundation are many and thrilling and include a poignant love story between Emerson and the unhappy wife of Darwin, Emerson's bitterest enemy. The company which will be brought to McVicker's theater is a very strong one.

The third annual season of grand opera in English at McVicker's theater, Chicago, will begin Sunday night, April 14, with a magnificent production of Verdi's festival opera "Aida." This season of grand opera in English will be given by the Aborn English Grand Opera Company, an organization which has made a splendid reputation throughout the country with fine performances of opera in the vernacular. Following the week of "Aida" will come in succession "Lohengrin," "Tosca," "Lucia," "Mignon," "La Boheme," "Tales of Hoffmann," "Il Trovatore," "Thais" and "Madam Butterfly." During the season special extra matinees of Humperdinck's fairy opera "Hansel and Gretel" will be given. Despite the magnitude of the organization and the enormous cost of producing opera, the regular scale of prices current at McVicker's theater will prevail during the season, ranging from 25c to $1.00, with popular priced matinees on Wednesday at which the prices run from 25c to 75c. Subscription books for the entire season are now open, allowing patrons to select to hear all the operas to select locations and have the same seats for each of the ten operas. The regular sale of tickets for single performances will begin Monday, April 8.

MAJESTIC.

In accordance with the fixed policy of the Majestic theater, Chicago, to include on its program the strongest one-act plays and operettas to be had, a new playlet will be presented for the week of April 1, which is believed to be a dramatic sensation. It is called "The Still Voice," was written by George Cameron and employs an extraordinary cast, including five of the celebrated Drew and Barrymore family, a circumstance which, in itself, should excite universal interest, as this is undoubtedly the leading dramatic family of America. Mr. Sidney Drew will assume the principal character, which is one admirably adapted to his refined and telling art. Mrs. Sidney Drew plays the opposite character in a manner which is said to be most effective, while Miss Doris Rankin, Lionel Barrymore, and S. Rankin Drew will all have interesting characters to play. Maud Lillian Berri, the famous musical comedy star. Sam Chip and Mary Marble, whose Holland comedy in Blue Delft has been considered the most attractive characteristic bit of comedy on the vaudeville stage. Frank Ferguson in "Billy Boy," a very lively comedy sketch. Regal's Canine Novelty will be another feature of the bill, which also includes Patsy Doyle, the sterling monologist. Alexander & Scott from Virginia, the black-faced singing and dancing artists.

COLUMBIA.

John G. Jermon's new Columbia Burlesquers, an entirely new show, will come to the Columbia week of March 31. "A Parisian Temptation," a new two-act musical farce, will be presented. Vim and snap are aimed at, new musical numbers have been furnished and some popular song hits are promised. The cast is a star one and includes Leo Stevens, the man with the funny sneeze; Frank O'Brien, the gentlemen of leisure, formerly with the "Ham Tree" Company. The vital spark, Nellie Florede, Gerlie De Milt, the French chansonette; Helen Jessie Moore, the California contralto, and the four Banta Brothers, high-class musical entertainers, late feature with "Brown of Harvard" Company. Plenty of pretty girls in elaborate costumes will be seen and sixteen musical numbers and ensembles.
