

FIREMEN'S PICNIC
WINNERS OF RACES

The firemen's picnic which started so auspiciously on the afternoon of the Fourth was spoiled by an untimely rain storm about 7:45 in the evening. The crowds of people in attendance were drenched, there being no way to get out of the rain which continued for about an hour. This was a big disappointment to everybody and more especially to the firemen who saw all their profit washed away by the rain which was pretty discouraging after all the work and expense they had gone to in preparing the grounds for this event. They have decided to run a picnic and dance on Saturday, July 12th.

The fire department is indebted to the kindness of Dr. Goodwin of St. Joseph's Church, who donated the use of the platform; also to A. P. Mehren for assistance in putting up the wires for electric light and to the Village Board for allowing them the use of wire.

The winners of the races were: Seven-year-old boys: First, Harvey Mackinsworth, catcher's mitt. Frank Shaler, second.

Indoor ball, 2nd race: Margaret Vix, first, 3 yards hair ribbon, donated by Miss Anna Meyers. Margaret Kettenring, second, post card album.

Third race, 10-year-old boys: Geo. Denny, first; pocket knife by B. E. Kehler. Sidney Larson, second.

Baseball.
Fourth race: Agnes Shaler, first, hat by Miss Clara Selig. Edith Denny second, drawing book.

Fifth race, 12-year-old girls: Evelyn Cassel, first, box of candy by C. Bertolin. Emma Shuster, second, chain of beads.

Sixth race, 14-year-old boys: Earl Klein, first, catcher's mitt. Raymond Kettenring, second, baseball bat.

Seventh race, girls: Myrtle Neilson, first, a fan by Lehmann & Michel. Alice Zell, second, jabot.

Eight race, young men: H. H. Clark, first, $2.00 in cash by F. Werner. A. C. Black, second, $1.00 in trade by V. Tholin.

Ninth race, young ladies: Arline Cassel, first, bottle of perfume by J. G. Butler. Edith Kettenring, second, bottle of perfume by J. R. Morris.

Tenth race, married men: Hulbert Jones, first, set of screw drivers by Dicke Tool Co. Louis Schoenicke, second, razor by J. D. Gillespie & Co.

Eleventh race, married ladies: Mrs. Harry Selig, first, percolator by Metz & Mochel. Mrs. Gillen, second, bag of flour by F. Gerwig.

Three legged race: Emory Klein and Ed. Mochel, box of cigars by E. Wochel.

OUTING OF THE Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist Church

Friday, June 27th, was a day long to be remembered by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church, Downers Grove. Gathered at the railroad station at 10:30 a. m., clad in refreshingly cool attire to counteract the intense heat of old sol, the sight was a most pleasant one.

While all were talking and laughing Mr. Brook's mammoth automobile came snorting and honking along and backed up to the curb to take the party aboard. The lunch was stowed away under the seats, the children disposed of in out-of-the-way corners and the ladies were persuaded to climb the step-ladder with many assurances that it was perfectly safe.

After being duly photographed by Mr. W. H. Baker, the auto sped north to the plank road, then west and out to the delightful farm of Grandma Puffer, where Grandma herself together with many members of her family welcomed the party most heartily.

It was a charming day—hot—red hot—but who cares for the heat when highly clad, seated under the shade of trees and wooed by the gentle zephyrs. The lunch was all that could be desired; spread in the shade, a table and chairs for some half dozen elderly ladies, the others reclining on the grass each side of the long white cloth spread with all the good things that heart could wish. Perfect stillness reigned for a few moments while Grandma Puffer returned thanks, then all partook heartily of the bountiful feast. After lunch the party formed in groups and chatted pleasantly or were entertained with music in the house. Then all gathered on the lawn to listen to several selections by Mrs. Genevieve Puffer Reed.

The party numbered some 50 ladies and 14 children, besides the pastor and another lone man who was well looked after and had the time of his life. About 5 p. m. Mr. Brooks appeared with the mammoth auto and the party were whirled back in time to prepare dinner for their respective families.

While all were talking and laughing Mr. Brook's mammoth automobile came snorting and honking along and backed up to the curb to take the party aboard. The lunch was stowed away under the seats, the children disposed of in out-of-the-way corners and the ladies were persuaded to climb the step-ladder with many assurances that it was perfectly safe.

After being duly photographed by Mr. W. H. Baker, the auto sped north to the plank road, then west and out to the delightful farm of Grandma Puffer, where Grandma herself together with many members of her family welcomed the party most heartily.

It was a charming day—hot—red hot—but who cares for the heat when highly clad, seated under the shade of trees and wooed by the gentle zephyrs. The lunch was all that could be desired; spread in the shade, a table and chairs for some half dozen elderly ladies, the others reclining on the grass each side of the long white cloth spread with all the good things that heart could wish. Perfect stillness reigned for a few moments while Grandma Puffer returned thanks, then all partook heartily of the bountiful feast. After lunch the party formed in groups and chatted pleasantly or were entertained with music in the house. Then all gathered on the lawn to listen to several selections by Mrs. Genevieve Puffer Reed.

The party numbered some 50 ladies and 14 children, besides the pastor and another lone man who was well looked after and had the time of his life. About 5 p. m. Mr. Brooks appeared with the mammoth auto and the party were whirled back in time to prepare dinner for their respective families.

While all were talking and laughing Mr. Brook's mammoth automobile came snorting and honking along and backed up to the curb to take the party aboard. The lunch was stowed away under the seats, the children disposed of in out-of-the-way corners and the ladies were persuaded to climb the step-ladder with many assurances that it was perfectly safe.

After being duly photographed by Mr. W. H. Baker, the auto sped north to the plank road, then west and out to the delightful farm of Grandma Puffer, where Grandma herself together with many members of her family welcomed the party most heartily.

It was a charming day—hot—red hot—but who cares for the heat when highly clad, seated under the shade of trees and wooed by the gentle zephyrs. The lunch was all that could be desired; spread in the shade, a table and chairs for some half dozen elderly ladies, the others reclining on the grass each side of the long white cloth spread with all the good things that heart could wish. Perfect stillness reigned for a few moments while Grandma Puffer returned thanks, then all partook heartily of the bountiful feast. After lunch the party formed in groups and chatted pleasantly or were entertained with music in the house. Then all gathered on the lawn to listen to several selections by Mrs. Genevieve Puffer Reed.

The party numbered some 50 ladies and 14 children, besides the pastor and another lone man who was well looked after and had the time of his life. About 5 p. m. Mr. Brooks appeared with the mammoth auto and the party were whirled back in time to prepare dinner for their respective families.

While all were talking and laughing Mr. Brook's mammoth automobile came snorting and honking along and backed up to the curb to take the party aboard. The lunch was stowed away under the seats, the children disposed of in out-of-the-way corners and the ladies were persuaded to climb the step-ladder with many assurances that it was perfectly safe.

After being duly photographed by Mr. W. H. Baker, the auto sped north to the plank road, then west and out to the delightful farm of Grandma Puffer, where Grandma herself together with many members of her family welcomed the party most heartily.

It was a charming day—hot—red hot—but who cares for the heat when highly clad, seated under the shade of trees and wooed by the gentle zephyrs. The lunch was all that could be desired; spread in the shade, a table and chairs for some half dozen elderly ladies, the others reclining on the grass each side of the long white cloth spread with all the good things that heart could wish. Perfect stillness reigned for a few moments while Grandma Puffer returned thanks, then all partook heartily of the bountiful feast. After lunch the party formed in groups and chatted pleasantly or were entertained with music in the house. Then all gathered on the lawn to listen to several selections by Mrs. Genevieve Puffer Reed.

WEST SUBURBAN CHURCH LEAGUE.

Standing of the Teams.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Brookfield M. E.	6	0	1.000
Congress Park M. E.	4	2	.667
Downers Grove Cong.	2	3	.400
Downers Grove Baptist	2	3	.400
D'wn's Gr'Ve Methodist	2	5	.286
Hinsdale Presbyterians	1	4	.250

Fourth of July forenoon the Methodist boys preyed on the Hinsdale Presbyterian at West Hinsdale with the result of 11 to 5 in their favor in a seven inning game. Hinsdale was late in coming to the field which caused the game to be shortened to seven innings. All told Downers stole 12 bases and got 6 bases on balls.

Hits off Gardiner in 3 inning, 3; off MacLean in 4 innings, 2. Struck out by Gardiner, 4; MacLean, 5.

Saturday afternoon July 5th, Congress Park M. E. gained the final count of 6 to 5 over the Downers Grove Cong. at Congress Park in a 10 inning game.

While Congress Park was slaying the Cong., Brookfield M. E. also beat Downers Grove Methodist at Downers Grove to a tune of 17 to 14. Through a few errors and wild pitching by Lamott, Brookfield was able to gain a seven run lead in the first inning, but after that inning, and especially when MacLean came in in the fourth, Brookfield realized that the Methodist bunch can play a little ball yet and can play different than in the first game at their home town.

Games scheduled for July 12th as follows:
Hinsdale Presbyterian vs. Congress Park M. E. at Congress Park.
Downers Grove Cong. vs. Brookfield M. E. at Brookfield.
Downers Grove Methodist vs. Downers Grove Baptist at Downers Grove.

Hits off Gardiner in 3 inning, 3; off MacLean in 4 innings, 2. Struck out by Gardiner, 4; MacLean, 5.

Saturday afternoon July 5th, Congress Park M. E. gained the final count of 6 to 5 over the Downers Grove Cong. at Congress Park in a 10 inning game.

While Congress Park was slaying the Cong., Brookfield M. E. also beat Downers Grove Methodist at Downers Grove to a tune of 17 to 14. Through a few errors and wild pitching by Lamott, Brookfield was able to gain a seven run lead in the first inning, but after that inning, and especially when MacLean came in in the fourth, Brookfield realized that the Methodist bunch can play a little ball yet and can play different than in the first game at their home town.

Games scheduled for July 12th as follows:
Hinsdale Presbyterian vs. Congress Park M. E. at Congress Park.
Downers Grove Cong. vs. Brookfield M. E. at Brookfield.
Downers Grove Methodist vs. Downers Grove Baptist at Downers Grove.

First Evangelical Church Picnic

On July 4th the First Evangelical S. S. of Downers Grove held its annual picnic at Lisle. It had been the intention of the congregation to tender its new pastor, Rev. Schmitt, a reception. Owing, however, to the fact that some of the children were to finish their school at Streator part of the family were obliged to remain. It was then decided to use this opportunity of welcoming Bro. Schmitt in our church as well as in our community.

Resolutions were read signed by the Rev. W. C. Miles, Secretary of the Ministers' Union, which were adopted, and also published in the Downers Grove Reporter, and an acknowledgment of same to be sent to the Ministers' Union at Streator, Ill.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED
BY THE STREATOR MIN-
ISTER'S UNION APRIL 17,
1913.

"Whereas, Rev. Leo Schmitt, after having been in charge of the pastorate of the First Evangelical church of Streator for the full term of five years, has been transferred to another field by action of his conference.

"And whereas during the period of his term of office he has shown himself in an unusual degree to be loyal, helpful and effective in his relations to our mutual interests both as a member and president of the Streator Minister's Union.

"Therefore be it resolved that we express our appreciation of his personality and most efficient service and commend him to the people of his new field of labor as deserving every confidence.

"And Be It Further Resolved: That we wish for him a continuance of the same blessings and effectiveness that has made his pastorate here memorable.

"And Be It Still Further Resolved: That these resolutions of our esteem and good wishes be communicated to himself, the public and the people of his new charge."

W. C. MILES,
Secretary of the Union.

"Whereas, Rev. Leo Schmitt, after having been in charge of the pastorate of the First Evangelical church of Streator for the full term of five years, has been transferred to another field by action of his conference.

"And whereas during the period of his term of office he has shown himself in an unusual degree to be loyal, helpful and effective in his relations to our mutual interests both as a member and president of the Streator Minister's Union.

"Therefore be it resolved that we express our appreciation of his personality and most efficient service and commend him to the people of his new field of labor as deserving every confidence.

"And Be It Further Resolved: That we wish for him a continuance of the same blessings and effectiveness that has made his pastorate here memorable.

"And Be It Still Further Resolved: That these resolutions of our esteem and good wishes be communicated to himself, the public and the people of his new charge."

W. C. MILES,
Secretary of the Union.

"Whereas, Rev. Leo Schmitt, after having been in charge of the pastorate of the First Evangelical church of Streator for the full term of five years, has been transferred to another field by action of his conference.

"And whereas during the period of his term of office he has shown himself in an unusual degree to be loyal, helpful and effective in his relations to our mutual interests both as a member and president of the Streator Minister's Union.

"Therefore be it resolved that we express our appreciation of his personality and most efficient service and commend him to the people of his new field of labor as deserving every confidence.

"And Be It Further Resolved: That we wish for him a continuance of the same blessings and effectiveness that has made his pastorate here memorable.

"And Be It Still Further Resolved: That these resolutions of our esteem and good wishes be communicated to himself, the public and the people of his new charge."

W. C. MILES,
Secretary of the Union.

"Whereas, Rev. Leo Schmitt, after having been in charge of the pastorate of the First Evangelical church of Streator for the full term of five years, has been transferred to another field by action of his conference.

MANY DIAMONDS IMPORTED.

Dealers in Gems Buy Heavily to Escape New Tariff.

New York.—The imports of precious stones for the last fiscal year amount to $50,000,000, according to an authoritative estimate.

The appraised value of diamonds and other precious stones which already have passed through the New York custom house totals $43,686,280, and these are record establishing figures for a similar period in any year.

July imports totaled $5,547,116, and no other month since has reached these figures. In August the receipts dropped to $3,317,055 and in the remaining months in 1912 were: September, $3,850,356; October, $3,988,646; November, $3,415,529, and December, the lightest month of the year, $2,621,806.

Fear on the part of the importers that they will have to pay a higher duty on gems under the Underwood tariff bill has caused them to import large quantities of precious stones. In May the receipts totaled $4,006,323, record figures for that month. In April the imports amounted to $3,808,081; March, $4,341,179; February, $4,299,435, and January, $3,899,995.

Fear on the part of the importers that they will have to pay a higher duty on gems under the Underwood tariff bill has caused them to import large quantities of precious stones. In May the receipts totaled $4,006,323, record figures for that month. In April the imports amounted to $3,808,081; March, $4,341,179; February, $4,299,435, and January, $3,899,995.

Fear on the part of the importers that they will have to pay a higher duty on gems under the Underwood tariff bill has caused them to import large quantities of precious stones. In May the receipts totaled $4,006,323, record figures for that month. In April the imports amounted to $3,808,081; March, $4,341,179; February, $4,299,435, and January, $3,899,995.

MONKEY RUINS A WATCH.

Amazed Owner Stands by and Sees Timepiece Destroyed.

Spokane, Wash., June 25.—Dissecting a silver watch in the presence of a rapidly increasing crowd, much to the chagrin and displeasure of the owner, is one of the latest tricks of the monkeys at Natatorium park.

Jack, one of the monkeys which was captured a couple of weeks ago after being at large several days, was in the cage when a man with a silver watch swung the timepiece in front of the monkey for a minute. Suddenly the simian seized the watch and began to take it to pieces before the amazed owner could recover from his surprise.

The man immediately started in search of a park attendant, but before one could be found the monkey had broken the face and taken out all the wheels as well as the mainspring, with which he was playing when the attendant put in an appearance.

The man immediately started in search of a park attendant, but before one could be found the monkey had broken the face and taken out all the wheels as well as the mainspring, with which he was playing when the attendant put in an appearance.

The man immediately started in search of a park attendant, but before one could be found the monkey had broken the face and taken out all the wheels as well as the mainspring, with which he was playing when the attendant put in an appearance.

PENSION PAPERS OF BURR TO BE DISPLAYED

Application Has Been on File
In Bureau Since 1834.

Washington.—Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the Interior, has offered the application of Aaron Burr for a pension to the National museum. He wrote to Charles D. Walcott, secretary of the Smithsonian institution, in charge of the museum, saying that the application should be on public view instead of in the files of the bureau of pensions, where it has been since 1834.

There are four pages to the application, and it is in as good a state of preservation as if it had been written a month ago. Mr. Burr wrote on both sides of the paper, which is legal size, setting forth that he quit the army with the rank of colonel, that he was enlisted in the army in 1775, when eighteen years old, and that at the time of the application he was seventy-eight.

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

The signature is modestly placed in the right hand corner of the application and reads, "A. Burr."

He recites that he was made lieutenant colonel by General Washington, that his health became impaired and that he made several attempts to resign on that account, and his resignation was accepted conditionally and with protest by General Washington. Before the resignation took effect, the application says, Colonel Burr was persuaded to undertake the destruction of a British blockhouse on the Bronx river, which he accomplished, and then was persuaded to delay his resignation until 1781.

Practical Fashions

BOY'S OVERCOAT.

All boys need a spring overcoat, and here is an excellent pattern for making one. It is a single breasted model, and can be made in either of two lengths.

The trousers pattern (1230) is cut in sizes 3 to 7 years without a fly and 8 to 14 years with a fly. Medium size requires 5/8 yard of 54 inch material.

The overcoat pattern (6138) is cut in sizes 4 to 12 years. Medium size requires 1 1/2 yards of 54 inch material.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.

To procure this pattern send 10 cents to "Pattern Department" of this paper. Write name and address plainly, and be sure to give size and number of pattern.