Good Description.

Little Emily's mother had shopping. Upon returning brought home to Emily a pair pink socks fashionable for smart chil dren in summer. That evening some ladies called upon her mother. Emily left the room, and a short while after the three-year-old returned with her socks on. "Look!" she exclaimed to the visitors, "mother bought me a pair of low-neck stockings."

Trying to Be Resigned. "So you've lost your nice pussy cat," sympathized grandma, hearing sad news. "Too bad! I know how you loved him. You miss him dreadfully, I suppose?" "Oh, yes, I miss him name," six-year-old John replied, with an air of chastened sorrow, "but then, grandma, since I've heard so much about this germ business I try to think it's just as well."

His One Hope. "Indeed," declared Mrs. Henpeck, " guess I have just as good a chance of going to heaven as you." "Not if get there first," replied her husband.

WHAT IMPROVED ROADS MEAN

Spells Prosperity and Happiness to Every Community Which Has Forethought to See Blessings.

(By R. E. GLDS.) Good roads are conducive to better schools, live rural churches, pleasant rides, good markets, social advancement, a closer bond of sympathy and co-operation between the farmer and his city cousin who works at the forge, the lathe or the spindle. It spells prosperity and happiness to every community which has the means and business foresight to see the manifold blessings which a scientific system of good roads secures for its people. Mud roads spell an enormous mud tax beside which our tariff is like a pygmy to an elephant.

Again, good roads annihilate dis tances and rob farming of the dread and drudgery of rural seclusion, this fact being notably apparent where a farmer is the wise and happy owner of a high-quality, dependable and economical motor car. Mud roads bring social life on the farm to low ebb, empty the rural churches, make many little red school houses but a mem ory and populate the country with floating tenants who care very little for the growth and perpetuation of the institutions which are the bulwark of our national greatness.

Then good roads save time, save horses and wagons, automobiles and gasoline. They enable the farmer to market, at minimum cost, in rain or shine, his perishable produce such as fruits, vegetables, milk, butter, eggs and meat. Mud roads compel the farmer to leave such produce either go to waste or deterioration, or what is near to either, deter him from producing any of these profit-bearing commodities because he has no dependable and convenient avenue for marketing

In cases of acute illness good roads enable the physician to bring speedy relief to the sick annually and save the lives of hundreds of our men, women and children, a fact which more than trebly compensates any amount of money which we may spend as a nation, state, county, city or town. Good roads spell humanity, relief, mercy, life, growth and prosperity, whereas mud roads too often spell poverty. weakness, decay, sickness, suffering and death.

As road improvement is of nationwide interest it should be supported by our national, state and county governments. This is notably true with interstate highways, for it is manifestly unjust to tax all the improvement to the abutting land, to the county or even to the state. Why should not our national government promote interstate commerce through good country roads as well as through river and harbor improvementa? Good and patriotic men seem to be at variance as to what is the best system of building roads. Some advocate three or more cross-continent trunk highways to be built and maintained equally by the federal government and by the various states through which the trunk highways go. Others favor the improvement of these roads first be properly ditched, graded, rolled and dragged. Culverts should be built where the water is inclined to flow across the road during heavy rains. Grades should be raised in low places, hills materially dug down and good mala jungle is the "water vine," a bridges built over creeks and streams

LESSON FOR JULY 13

MOSES PREPARES FOR HIS WORK

LESSON TEXT-Ex. 2:11-25. GOLDEN TEXT-"Blessed are the meck; for they shall inherit the earth.'

Meekness does not imply any lack | Voice of Approval." of aggressiveness; it does not imply a mildness of temper. Moses, we judge from a study of this chapter, was not of another." as yet "meek above all men."

In last week's lesson we considered the birth, salvation, nursing and training of Moses as child. After Jochebed had nursed Moses (v. 9) he was returned to Pharaoh's daughter and "became her son," thereby obtaining all the rights, privileges and training of the Egyptian court.

I. His Qualifications. (1) He had a godly parentage and an early godly training. Do we appreciate the tremendous advantage of the child who is well born and well trained? True, environment is not all-sufficient, but it is a great asset. The psalmist emphasizes this when he exclaims "thou hast given me the heritage of them that fear thy name." Ps. 61:5.

(2) Moses had a knowledge of the conditions. Born and nursed in a slave's home he knew of the oppression of Israel. Reared in Pharaoh's court, he knew how the Egyptians feared these same Israelites (Ch. 1:9, 10). Moses gaw (v. 11) the burdens borne by those of his own race.

Heart of Sympathy. (3) Moses had a heart of sympathy (v. 11). Seeing an Egyptian task master evilly entreating a kinsman Moses' heart rebelled and at once he flew to his support and defence. Our Lord was "moved with compassion." A like righteous indignation impelled the Master to drive the money changers from the temple and to denounce the hypocritical Pharisces. Moses had not, however, learned selfrestraint, and that he should express in the most effective manner, that," but he did not look upward.

(5) Moses was educated. We have already seen how he was taught by his own mother and that he received the training of the Egyptians, Acts 7:22. not evil one to another." Heing brave and mighty in deeds was not enough; he was "mighty in words and deeds." Thus he was prepared to stand before Pharaoh (not the father) of his deliverer, but another Pharaob, v. 24), meet him on an equal footing, and intelligently combat his religion with that of Jehovah.

(6) Moses had assurance. True, he had not as yet received God's call (see Ch. 3) for particular work and his reliance upon force, his tit-for-tat policy was not God's method of working deliverance. But Moses was obedient and as he obeyed, God honored each step of his faith.

Moses' Mistake.

May Be Something in Dreams. Belief in the prophetic power of dreams has run ring around a rosy. Men formerly thought dreams foretold future events, dreams gave good advice for the regulation of one's future conduct, dreams told where to find lost articles. Then as we grew more sophisticated we regarded dream omens as mere superstition. Lately some of the closest investigators of dreams have begun to switch to the former opinion.
