Cook County Press Club Praises
Charles H. Gallion.

It is given to but few men to pass to their final reward leaving to the community in which they labored so fine and so wholesome a memory as that which is left by Charles H. Gallion.

Less than a dozen years cover the period of his splendid service to the field in which he labored, but those years have been fruitful of results and worthy of the earnest, conscientious and unselfish effort he gave to the seed sowing and the planting.

He loved the light, as typified in a courageous and a purposeful life.
He was an enemy of shams and deceit; a never-failing friend of truth and justice.

He loved his profession, and he adorned and honored it.
To the working out of the greatest measure of good to the greatest number he brought the best that was in him; self played no part in all that he did nor in a word that came from his pen.

As we, his associates in the Cook County Press Club, knew him through the years of fellowship we knew that in his every act and thought he was guided by the highest sense of duty to his community and his fellowman.

Hence it is that in testimony to the splendid character of our friend, now gone before us, we the members of the Cook County Press Club, in special convention assembled, this 11th day of August, 1913, do hereby dedicate these lines in loving tribute to his memory.

NEW PARCEL POST RATES.

Postmaster General Burleson on July 25 issued an order which vitally affects the parcels post business.
The order increases the size of parcels that may be sent and decreases the rates of postage within the first and second zones. The order is as follows:
On and after Aug. 15, 1913, the limit of weight of parcels of fourth class mail for delivery within the first and second zones shall be increased from eleven pounds to twenty pounds. The rate of postage on parcels exceeding four ounces in weight shall be five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional two pounds or fraction thereof when intended for local delivery, and five cents for the first pound and one cent for each additional pound or fraction thereof when intended for delivery at other offices within the first and second zones.

Table with 4 columns: Weight, First Zone Rate, Second Zone Rate, Local Zone Rate. Rows range from 1 pound to 20 pounds.

Packages mailed on a rural route for delivery in the town from which the route starts or delivery on any other route from the same office or by any carrier from that office are considered local deliveries and charged according to the rates in the first part of the order.

This change will be welcomed by thousands of people all over the country and most especially by the farmers.
It will enable them to have merchandise and goods sent them cheaper by mail than it could be sent by express, and besides have it delivered at their doors.

Since it was started January 1 of this year the parcel post business has grown at an enormous rate. Every eligible man on the mail clerk's waiting list has been given a position and others are needed.

We are just now getting to a place in the parcel post extension where we can have the same service England, Germany, and other European countries have had for years. The business is still in its infancy and other important changes are expected in the future.

BY THE OFFICE SAGE

It's a poor rule that won't work both ways in our favor.

Mighty few fellows can fall in love without fracturing something.

It takes a mighty fast young man to keep up with his running expenses.

Familiarity breeds contempt. Charity, beginning at home, is seldom appreciated.

Any man can take things as they come. But it's quite another matter to give them up as they go.

The cynical bachelor rises to remark that if there were more husbands around, there would be fewer sufferings.

SUNDAY SCHOOL
LESSON

LESSON FOR AUGUST 17

CROSSING THE RED SEA.

LESSON TEXT—Ex. 14:19-31.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Before they call, I will answer."—Isa. 65:24.

No sooner were the Israelites sent on their journey than the Egyptians repented and pursued (vv. 5-9). Then it was that Moses encountered the first of that complaining (v. 10) against which he struggled until God took him from this earth. They "cried" (v. 10) but they did not rest.
It did look like a dangerous situation and there were but three possible methods of procedure. (a) To return to slavery, (b) to die in the wilderness, or (c) to go forward in faithful obedience, trusting God for deliverance.
Their salvation (v. 13) was from God, see Acts 4:12; Heb. 5:8, 9.
God's leading, 13:31, 32, had brought them to this place; now He will manifest His glory, will get unto Himself "glory" (v. 17).

Testing the Israelites.
I. Protection, vv. 19-22. As the angel of God (Christ?) came between Israel and the Egyptians we are reminded of Ps. 34:7, "the angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear Him and delivereth them." The same cloud that brought darkness to the Egyptians brought light to the Israelites. Even so we have the "Light," Luke 2:32; John 8:12, 9:5, and are admonished to walk in the light, Eph. 5:8. While God brought confusion to the Egyptians and was testing the Israelites by causing them to "fear not, stand still and see" (v.
12). He was at the same time giving Moses an opportunity to work out His plan of deliverance (v. 16). As the strong east wind blew it heaped up the waters, dried out the muddy bottom and opened a passage for the deliverance of all the chosen ones.
Then it was time for prayer to cease (v. 14, 15) and for action to begin, the seemingly impossible is now quite possible, Matt. 19:26. Notice, however, that God had used a man (Moses) in His work of deliverance. It was a very simple shepherd's staff that God directed Moses to use. Surely the power was not in the staff nor in the arm back of the staff. The same waters that had seemed to be such a barrier are now used as a wall of protection (v. 22) on the right hand and on the left leaving no opportunity for a flank attack. Their only way of escape was forward and each step they took was one of faith.

II. Pursuit, vv. 23-25. Pharaoh had judged that the Israelites were entangled, "perplexed" (v. 2) in the wilderness and that Moses had inadvertently led them into a natural trap which was to the advantage of the Egyptians. Further, we judge that with the darkness of the cloud before them, the Egyptians were not fully aware of the fact that they were following Israel into the midst of the waters. Blind fury will lead a man into strange surroundings and to perform insane acts. This new way was not prepared for Pharaoh nor is the straight and narrow path which leads to glory for the unrepentant sinner.
Jehovah was near at hand that "morning watch" (v. 24), even as today He blesses those who keep that hour.
One "look" from Jehovah brought confusion and discomfort upon the pursuers.

The Safe Path.
III. Punishment, vv. 26-31. The path that is safe for faith is no place for the disobedient. God looking through that cloud paralyzed the proud forces of Pharaoh in the place of all places most dangerous. God not alone looked but took off their chariot wheels and fear overcame them. Then they realized that Jehovah was fighting and sought to flee. Again God uses a man in the working out of His plan and Moses is instructed to stretch forth his hand over the sea, v. 26.
As the morning breaks the waters return to their level, and again God uses natural forces in a supernatural manner. Like as one would shake off some useless, offensive, appendage so God was rid of the army of Pharaoh (v. 27 marg.). A careful reading of this story, especially verse 28 R. V., clearly indicates the probability that Pharaoh himself did not perish.
Thus it was that Israel saw the handwork of the Lord upon the Egyptians while they themselves remained a saved people, saved by the power of Jehovah. Great fear came upon them (v. 31) and they "Believed the Lord and His servant Moses." How sad that their faith proved so short lived and that they so soon murmured against God and His servant Moses.

Thus we see the nation delivered, consecrated and placed under the direct government and guidance of God.
Egypt did not keep faith with Israel to let them "go and worship" and God wrought a complete deliverance.
God's judgment of the sin of Egypt was carried out to the last degree, but in strict justice. On one hand is God's guidance and over against that the lengths men will go whose hearts are hardened in rebellion. The blasphemous daring of the Egyptians was rebuked as they attempted to march along God's highway of deliverance.
Israel followed Moses, the prophet.

Pleasant for Mamma.

"And what did my little darling do in school today?" a mother asked of her youngest son—a second grader.
"We had nature study, and it was my turn to bring a specimen," said the boy. "That was nice. What did you do?" "I brought a cockroach in a bottle and I told teacher we had lots more and if she wanted I would bring one every day."

From the Cinnamonon Scimitar.
Nothing rejuvenates like marriage.
Look at Jane Towle. Jane was once an old maid. Jake Hopkins took pity on her and married her last year, and three months ago, as everybody knows, Jake fell off his barn and killed himself while juggling with a jug of applejack. And Jane, the plain old maid, is now Jane, the dashing young widow.

Proved Worth of Invention.

"Shortly after Galvani's invention came out he visited America, and with a letter of introduction called upon Dr.
Doane, medical officer to the Bank of New York," writes a correspondent of the London Chronicle. "He found the family in distress at the death of the infant son. Galvani asked to be allowed to try his battery; the child recovered and was christened Galvani Doane. His father was a cousin of Longfellow."
