NAPLES DAMAGED BY SHOCK

utidings Collapse and Panic Follows -People Rush Into Churches and Pray to Be Saved-American Ambassador in Danger.

Rome, Jan. 15.—Twelve thousand gres were lost and 20,000 persons huri in an earthquake in central Italy or Wednesday.

The earthquake lasted several sec onds and caused a serious panic, people rushing from their homes in ter ror. Many buildings were destroyed by the shock.

It is announced officially that the center of the earthquake was between Campobasso and Sarno and that i was felt strongly at Perugia and slightly as far north as Ferrara.

Naples Also Stricken. In the country places the people sre camping in the open. Naples also was stricken by the earthquake.

The town of Pell is reported to have been half destroyed. At Giuliano two persons were killed.

At the Meteorological fustitute it is said that buildings continued to rock or tremble for about thirty seconds after the shock had ceased and that the duration of the phenomenon altogether was about one minute. It was stated it was not believed the disturbance extended to Bicity. The town of Avessano was virtually destroyed and about one thousand persons were infured there besides the dead.

Churches Are Damaged. So violent was the shock in Rome that the dome of the Church of St. Charles Catinari was cracked. A large piece of the cornice of the Jesuit of St. Ignatius broke and fell with a crash, which added to the fright of the persons in the neighbor-

A colossal statue at the hasilica of St. John Lateran, which occupied a position visible from many parts of ome, fell and was shattered on the tops of the edifice.

Reme is Hard Hit.

As the day were on and details bema to arrive in the capital it was apparent that the disturbance in the province of Rome and the Abrussi had been greater than at first bellaved and that it also had been felt severely in the region around Naples.

At Monterotondo three persons were killed and two wounded; Estarolo the dome of a church fell; at Giuliano part of a cathedral was wrenked; at Veroil two persons were killed and two injured; at Tivoli one was killed; at Pereto five sections collapsed, and at Pogglo Na-Elfo one person was killed and several were injured.

Aquille le Cut Off.

Thus far it has been impossible to communicate with the ancient fortiind city of Aquila, in the Abruzzi, wing to the interruption of the telegraph service. It is reported, how ever, that several villages were destroyed in that vicinity.

At Torre Caletani, about thirtymiles east of Rome, almost the mtire village was destroyed, while at Arnara the municipal building col-

Page Benedict was reciting the Thankagiving after the morning mass when the shock occurred. The pontiff retained his composure and gave or lers immediately that the damage both inside and outside the Vatican he ascertained, and requested a report whether assistance was required.

King Victor Emmanuel also ordered the minister of the interior to furnish him with all details of the earthquake. The king expressed a desire to visit | Naples damaged. the damaged cities.

U. S. Embassy Damaged. At the Palasso del Drago, where Thomas Nelson Page, the American mbasador, lives, several cracks in the building which already had exist-ad opened wider, and plaster fell in several of the rooms. The glass was moken in the embassy office. In addition to the statue of St on the column of Marcus Aureli the facade of the Church of St.

Advocates and Foes of Ballot Kn and Wave Hands as Congressmen Fight Over the Resolution.

Washington, Jan. 14.—The house of representatives on Tuesday night refused to submit the woman suffrage amendment to the states for ratifica-

The vote was 174 ayes to 204 nays. As the amendment requires a twothirds majority, it was declared de feated.

To the applause and cheers of supporters of both sides of the question packed in opposite galleries, the house plunged into a debate as spectacular as that which attended the vote or the prohibition amendment.

Representative Webb, chairman of the judiciary committee, led the av bate in opposition to the amendment. He believed if the question was voted on by women more than 80 per cent would vote against suffrage, Mr. Webb charged that woman suffrage was nore or less a fad.

Representative Taylor of Colorado supported the amendment, saying the opposition spoke from prejudice and misinformation.

> Representative Mondell of Wyoming, coauthor of the resolution, urged its adoption in a speech which traced the history of the movement,

"The tendency of the world is tothe Churches of St. Andria Fratte and ward enlarging the grant of power to those who shall control the destinies of the nations," said Mr. Mann. The right of the states to control the franchise was insisted upon by prayers were offered for deliverance Mr. Underwood.

"This question," he said, "is the gravest one this body has had to consider. I deny that the exercise of the franchise is a universal right. You do not believe it is a right. Many of those who will vote for this amendment here today are from states which would deny this right to other races because you believe it would destroy your civilization. Therefore you recognize that it is a privilege and not a universal right."

Representative Stafford, Republican of Wisconsin, opposed the resolution. Representatives Bryan of Washington and Stephens and Bell of California declared woman suffrage a success.

An hour before the session opened virtually all the seats for women were filled with suffragists and antisuffrag-

"I shall support the rule because I believe a vote should be given on any proposal which has become a national issue," said Henry. Representatives Campbell, Repub-

Pennaylvania. Representative Hobson argued that the resolution did not take any power from the states Support for the rule, but opposition to the submission of the amendment was expressed by Representative Lenroot Republican of Wisconsin. He said he was not convinced there was a sufficient public demand for woman suffrage to indicate that the proposed amendment would be quickly ratified. "I believe in woman suffrage, but believe the matter can be settled easily by the power of the individual states.

Representative Murdock, Progressive of Kansas, supported the resolu-
