FEBRUARY WEDDINGS

ENGELSCHALL-SMITH.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday morning, February 10, at nuptial high mass in St. Joseph's church, when Miss Emma Engelschall, daughter of Mr. Simon Engelschall of Lisle, became the bride of Dr. Francis James Smith, Rev. Eneas B. Goodwin officiating.

After the solo, "O Promise Me", which was beautifully sung by Robert Dickson, the ribbons were stretched down the aisle and the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played on the organ by Bernard C. Dieter of Naperville.

The ushers were Gilbert Heibig of Lemont, and Leo Wiesbrook of Wheaton. Behind them came Miss Celia Wilhelm of Joliet and Miss Clara Reidy of Lisle as bridesmaids.

Little Miss Dorothy Brogan of Antioch, Ill., niece of the groom, carrying the bride's bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley, preceded the bride who, with her sister, Miss Mamie Engelschall, an honored maid, were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Dr. Thomas Plant of Chicago. The party entered the sanctuary, which was banked with ferns and pink roses.

The choir, directed by Mrs. M. E. Holohan of Lisle, most artistically rendered Mozart's "Kyrie" and Millard's "Sanctus" and "Agnus Dei". Miss Eda Dieter sang for the offertory.

"Ave Maria", composed by Bernard Dieter.

The charming bride was attired in a gown of chantilly lace over white charmeuse, with panel trim and trimmed with ropes of pearls. Lilies of the valley fastened the tulle veil, which was made with cap effect. The maid of honor was gowned in shell pink platted chiffon and lace, with trimmings and cap of silver lace.

The bridesmaids were in shades of pink taffeta and wore castle caps of silver lace. They carried bouquets of pink Killarney roses.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate families at the Engelschall residence.

Dr. and Mrs. Smith left, amid a shower of rice for an extended honeymoon trip through the south and have with them the good wishes and congratulations of their many friends.

SCHINDLER-WENZEL.

A pretty home wedding occurred on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schindler, 79 Carpenter street, when their daughter Laura was united in marriage with Wm. J. Wenzel of Lemont. Rev. J. F. Jenness of the Methodist Church officiated.

After the vows were said the guests, consisting of only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, sat down to a bountiful wedding supper. The young couple, in some unaccountable way, managed to make their escape after supper and are now honeymooning in some unknown place. The reporter joins with their friends in wishing them much success in their new venture.

FIREMEN MASQUERADE

The annual masque ball given by the Downers Grove Fire Department is eagerly looked forward to from year to year and is usually a pronounced success. This year's ball was no different from the others. It was a SUCCESS.

A great many novel, attractive and grotesque costumes bid for the prizes donated by the progressive merchants of Downers Grove. Clowns, negroes, topsys, tramps and others vied with each other in the making of noise and "actin' up."

The prize winners follow: Best group, $5.00, donated by Fire Department, Harem group winners composed of the following: Mr. Dawson of LaGrange, Sultan; dancing girls, Misses Viola and Gladys Clamplitt, Marie Nelson, M. Cornell and Blanche Vallance. Best lady, umbrella, donated by McAllister-Weaver Co., Mrs. Phillip Vix. Second best lady, bottle of perfume, donated by the Houseman Drug Co., Rose Lysy. Best flower girl, box of candy, donated by Morris' Drug Store, Miss P. Roth. Best clown girl, $1.00 in trade, L. Klein, Eva Baker of Hinsdale. Second best clown girl, box of candy, J. W. Nash, Clara Lowe of Hinsdale. Best Topsy, box of stationery, L. Swearingen & Co., Marie Marchand. Best fat lady, carving set, Mertz & Mochel, Mrs. Chevallier. Most comic lady, roasting pan, L. A. Dexter, Miss Elizabeth Pischel. Best farmer's wife, sack of flour, F. Gerwig, Mrs. Kahn. Gentlemen's prizes: Best group, $5.00 in cash, Fire Department, Nigger Band, Ed. Landorf, H. Landorf, G. Landorf, P. Mallen and H. Hartzell, of Naperville. Best gent, pair of rubbers, B. Schelfo, Clarence Heal. Second best gent, set of screw drivers, Dicke Tool Co., Al Snyder. Best Dutchman, $1.00 in trade, Central Market, Marshall Statton. Best clown, $1.50 in trade, Lehmann & Michel, H. Borman. Second best clown, box of cigars, B. E. Kehler, J. Oestmann. Best fat man, box of cigars, C. Hertolin, Lester Gerwig. Best Negro, box of cigars, Phil Mochel, Bun Bullman. Best tramp, hair cut, shave, shampoo, Emil Hohen, K. Karlson. Best farmer, whip, C. Penner, Earl Bombard.

Special mention must be made of the two groups which won the prizes. The Harem group are to be complimented on the novelty of their idea, nothing like it ever having been seen in Downers before. The nigger band were also good, not for the brand of music which they so sweetly (?) rendered (?) but for their general make-up and the way they carried the comedy parts.

FAREWELL PARTY.

About sixty people, neighbors and friends, surprised Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hoffman by giving them a farewell party last Monday evening as they are moving to Glen Ellyn.

The evening was pleasantly spent with music and dancing. Those not desiring to indulge in this pastime gathered together in playing games and jus' foolin'.

Bountiful refreshments were served, after which the guests departed wishing Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman much success in their new home.

GET RIGHT! USE THE NEWSPAPER.

If a member of your family died, would you print the obituary on a billboard?

If your wife entertained, would you send an account of it to Dicke's Hall to be put on the screen?

If you were to enlarge your business, would you advertise in a hotel register?

If you were going to have a wedding in your family, would you get out a handbill?

You would send such items to the newspapers, wouldn't you? Then why don't you put your advertisements in a newspaper? Every man who uses a billboard is adding to nature-faking. The newspapers build up your town.

PHYSICAL CULTURE LEAGUE SCHEDULE

The following schedule has been arranged by the director, Miss Dorothy Tweedie, and the business manager of the Young Women's Physical Culture League, for the time given to the various classes in the gymnasium on each Monday evening.

7:30 to 8—General gymnastics and marching tactics.

8:05 to 8:35—Indoor baseball and other games.

8:40 to 9:10—Folk dancing.

9:15 to 9:45—Beginners' basket ball.

9:45 to 10:15—Advanced basket ball.

Decide which classes you wish to join, and register if possible before next Monday evening, Feb. 22, so that the classes will be all ready for work by Monday evening. Then if you wish to change classes later you will be at liberty to do so. Miss Elizabeth Willis, phone 104R, and Miss Madeline Hughes, phone 48M, have schedules.

Call either of these girls up before Monday night, and register in your classes. Miss Tweedie will be here at 7 o'clock, so it is imperative that all who join the 7:30 class be at the gym promptly, in order to give the drills the full half-hour.

Don't forget the regular monthly business meeting Monday night, March 1; also remember that your dues are payable on that night.

Watch the bulletin board in the post office for announcements of interest to the class, and don't think it is too late for newcomers to join. We are just starting our regular class work next Monday evening.

OBITUARY NOTICE.

Mrs. Mary Eleanor Leach was born Sept. 11, 1838, at Gouverneur, N. Y. Her father, Wm. Locke, was a pastor in the Presbyterian Church. On the 19th of April, 1866, she was married to Dr. Thomas F. Leach at Shelbyville, Ind.

The family have lived in our community for the past 17 years. Since 1906 she has been an invalid, and for the past 2 years confined to her bed. The long illness terminated early Sunday morning, when her God and Father called her to an eternal sabbath free from toil and pain. The interment will take place at Crawfordsville, Ind.

WOMANS CLUB

The program at the meeting of the Woman's Club Wednesday was patriotic in nature, the members of Naper Post and the D. A. R. being honored guests.

Miss Florence Uhlhorn's paper on "Musical Patriotism," giving the origin of our war songs, and illustrated by an orchestra consisting of Messrs. George Nargety, Arno Uhlhorn, Charles Haller and Miss Florence Uhlhorn.

Mrs. Schacht's paper on the "Victories of Peace" dealt with the wonderful things that have been accomplished during our long period of peace, in a scientific, medical and educational way.

Mrs. Heckman read extracts from an oration written by a classmate of Prof. Butler, "Heroism vs. Treason," presenting the question, "Are we just when we think of Benedict Arnold as a traitor, forgetting his splendid heroism in the cause of American liberty and all that he accomplished before his fall?"

Captain Rogers and members of Naper Post gave impromptu speeches, recalling the days when they were comrades in '61-'65.

ILLINOIS TOWN VOTES FOR SUNDAY SHOWS.

When some of the citizens of Rochelle, Ill., concluded that their little town shouldn't have Sunday shows they started a dispute which finally ended in a special election to decide the question. Since the Illinois law gives women the right to vote on any proposition, the women of Rochelle immediately took a hand in the election. When the vote was finally counted it was found that 600 men and 237 women participated in the election and motion pictures won out by a majority of 37 votes.
