GUN CLUB DANCE WAS BIG SUCCESS.

Largest Crowd Ever Seen in Dicke's Hall Enjoy Themselves.

The first annual dance of the Downers Grove Rod and Gun Club held in Dicke's Hall last Friday night was one of the greatest successes ever seen in Downers Grove. It was said by those attending that the largest crowd they had ever seen at a Downers Grove dance was in attendance.

Nearly every town in the county and a few outside of the county was represented, Naperville and Hinsdale people especially attending and enjoying themselves.

The music was furnished by Carlson's Orchestra of Chicago and was very good. They were liberal with their dances and tried their best to please the members of the club and the dancers. That they succeeded can be easily determined by the fact that the club have hired them for their May party, which is to be given in Dicke's Hall on Friday, May 21.

McGREGOR-SELLERS.

After forty-nine years of unrelieved and unalloyed bachelorhood John M. Sellers, club man, business man and widely known golf expert, has decided to get married, said the Chicago Daily News last Tuesday.

Pressed to reveal the name of the church, Mr. Sellers declared that would make his wedding too formal, but the name of the bride was forthcoming. She is Mrs. Mary D. McGregor of Downers Grove, which is Mr. Sellers' home. Her age is revealed in the marriage license report as 32.

Mr. Sellers' marriage will be regarded in the light of a surprise by his many friends, particularly perhaps by his "bosom rival," Knutson Ames. For years Mr. Ames and Mr. Sellers have been rivals on every golf course in the city.

The bridegroom has been looked on for years as confirmed in his bachelorhood. His name has become synonymous with clubdom, golf sticks and solitary content. The men with whom he played swore by him as the most chronic bachelor that ever swung a club. Nor did Mr. Sellers remove this opinion even after he knew he was about to "disqualify."

The wedding ceremony was performed at Wednesday in the church, Chicago.
