other end than to kill. Thou shalt not steal! but the soldier may loot and his country annex the conquered territory. The Sabbath shall be kept holy? but the killing of enemies is not unholy on the holy day. Those who have cancelled the commandments, rescinded the beatitudes and wiped the Golden Rule off the slate try to hide the greatness of their fall by the volubility of their abuse and appear to think it sufficient to brand the man who still tries to be an ethicist and a Christian as a sentimentalist, a coward, a traitor, or a last degraded, farsemest nickname of all—a peace-at-any-price man. Were a martyred people required by the eternal powers as a last great warning against the shedding of blood—to be that signal people might well excite emulation such as struggle for territory and dominion never stirred. As with the individual so with the tribe—it is better to perish than to sin. And this is our answer to those who tell us the nation must fight or die. It is better to die than fight. No doom can be so terrible as the doom of successful wrong, no destiny so divine as crucifixion for the right. If the future should demand a sacrifice, if a crucified people should be necessary to the development of the race, why should a race that worships a crucified man, shrink from the offering?

RESOLUTIONS OF THE DUPAGE COUNTY W. C. T. U. CONVENTION. Resolved, first, that we rejoice at the interest in and impetus given to national constitutional prohibition which is evidenced by the public press and recent elections. Resolved, second, that we deplore that the Bible which is the cornerstone of all our civil liberties and privileges is being denied our children in the public schools while dancing and other things which we believe injurious to morals are being permitted. Resolved, third, that in these times of stress when women are necessarily so busy we should avoid those social times and physical strength which should be expended in the Christian nurture and care of our children. Resolved, fourth, that with grateful acknowledgment to God for the progress already made we will endeavor with renewed courage and diligence to press on until God shall have crowned our efforts with success. Resolved, fifth, that we tender our thanks to the trustees of the church, to the pastors who gave us such words of cheer and encouragement to Dr. Paulson and Dr. Mary Paulson for the addresses given, and to the ladies of the W. C. T. U. of Downers Grove, who so graciously

When women find their status in other states is confining their inalienable rights, let them try the Sunflower State. Here are some of the things women can do legally in Kansas. Can take back her maiden name after husband dies, without legal process or legislative act. Can keep her own name when she is married. Can persuade her husband to take her name and give up his family name, if she does not like it. Can keep her maiden name, and her husband can keep his name. Can retain her maiden name for business transactions and use her husband's name for social affairs. If wife does not like either her name or her husband's they can take a name that suits them better. A woman can wear men's clothing without restrictions, except that she must not pose as a man. She can vote at every election. She can hold any office in the state and run for congress. In other words, a woman in Kansas can do anything, almost, a man can do, and some things he can't.
