TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN THE REPORTER

(From the issue of April 12, 1895.)

The following names belonging to the South Side fire company were overlooked and not published in last week's papers: G. Hoffert, Wm. Reader, C. F. Davis, Geo. Caskey, W. M. Carpenter, Wm. Leisea, C. E. Graves, W. E. Wells, K. D. Prince, and E. F. Escher.

Mrs. John E. Peterson of Delmont, presented her husband with a 12-pound baby girl on April 5. "Father is full"—that is, full of pride and joy over the event.

Al Atwood has purchased his brother Thomas' interest in the farm south of the village which they jointly owned. There is a rumor that Thomas will invest in landed property in the vicinity of Vandalia.

The reception in honor of Pastor and Mrs. Dowling at the home of W. H. Edwards last Friday evening was entertaining and enjoyable. The spacious house was comfortably filled, over 100 being present, all of whom were made acquainted with the new pastor and his estimable wife. The Edwards family with their accustomed happy faculty made all feel welcome, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed in general visiting and partaking of refreshments.

With the issue of the paper Curtis & Stillwell sever their connection with the same, having sold their interests to Hugh M. White and A. E. Williams of Plankinton, South Dakota. The paper in the future will be published by the firm of White & Williams.

The ladies of the Library Association gave Mrs. J. G. Cross a farewell reception at the pleasant home of Mrs. Wm. Colwell, on Tuesday afternoon. Nearly all the members were able to be present to bid Mrs. Cross goodbye and a safe journey to her new home in California. The ladies will miss her bright face in the president's chair, which she has so ably filled for the last three years.

There is a good prospect that the Episcopal people will commence building on their church lot within a short time.

There is more Cataract in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constant failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Cataract is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Cataract Cure fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.
