

subscriptions now! Save space on this page every week by ordering in Groceries. Ad. The Straube entertained friends at La Porte, Ind., over New Year's.

Mr. G. Wells and family will soon move into their new home.

Mrs. Norman Gould Oliver is visiting with relatives in Chicago.

Mrs. Virginia Findlay is recovering from her recent serious illness.

Mrs. George McClure and sons spent Tuesday at La Grange, Ill.

Wm. Waples has had a sharp attack of tonsillitis this week.

Mrs. Marie Jane Clair of Galena, Ill., is visiting in town.

Mrs. Davenport of Aurora, Ill., visited at G. B. Heatt's holiday week.

Mrs. and Mrs. Leonard J. Paige are spending a few days in Elgin with Mrs. Samuel L. Ambrose, the latter's mother.

Relatives of Mrs. Mary Timke gathered at her home New Year's eve in honor of her birthday.

Mrs. Walter Barber entertained school friends at her home on West Curtis street Wednesday afternoon.

A regular January thaw. Do you remember a winter in the last twenty years when we didn't have one?

Some one's mad by sending a few locals to the office each week the coming year.

Clifford Davenport has been one of the extra force at the Selz shoe store in Chicago during the holidays.

E. C. Kirkham, visited over New Year's day with relatives and friends in his home town, Woodstock, Ill.

O. E. O'Brien, of Janesville, Wis., spent last Friday visiting here with his brother, W. H. O'Brien.

Mrs. Turnbull and daughter, Ellen, spent New Year with I. J. Turnbull and family at Stewart Ridge.

Mr. Lewis Aullesen spent Sunday with his aunt, Miss Lott. He is a student at Champaign, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vix and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Venard visited with relatives at Hinsdale New Year's day.

Edward Williams, who lives with his aunt, Mrs. C. E. Francis, is visiting with another aunt in Austin.

Rudolph Mochel joined the young men's Bible class at the Evangelical church last Sunday.

Pay up your subscriptions now. The rate will be raised to $1.75 the first month of February.

Mrs. E. Daniels of the Evanston Davenport, spent the holidays with L. B. Wells and family.

Miss Jeanette Wells is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. J. S. Stiles of Millard avenue, Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley MacLean of Chicago spent New Year's with their parents on Highland avenue.

Mrs. A. Bartells and Mrs. G. A. Worrell spent Wednesday in Aurora with Mrs. Bartells' sister.

The Rex Hawkins family entertained a friend from New York City on New Year's Day.

Miss Inez Gustin of Chicago attended the New Year's party at Library Hall.

Myron Prince of Iowa City, Iowa, was a guest at the Prince home this week.

Miss Myrtle Drew of Forest avenue has returned to Champaign, Ill., where she is attending the State University.

Mrs. J. B. Miller is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Soule of Berwyn, Ill.

The Iota Theta Pi Sorority held their holiday party at the home of the President, Miss Edna Simonson.

Mrs. Ella Roby was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Riel, for the week end.

Robert Bordwell entertained friends from Chicago during the holiday season.

Leona Stanley spent her vacation from Illinois State University at his home in the village.

The Rev. Franklin G. Huling is home from his studies at Louisville, Ky.

Mrs. S. J. Perkins left Sunday for a few weeks' visit with relatives in Lansing and Flint, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffert and children spent New Year's afternoon family. Little daughter, Mrs. Grote, came, be good; and New Year's guests at home of Rev. and Mrs. Grote.

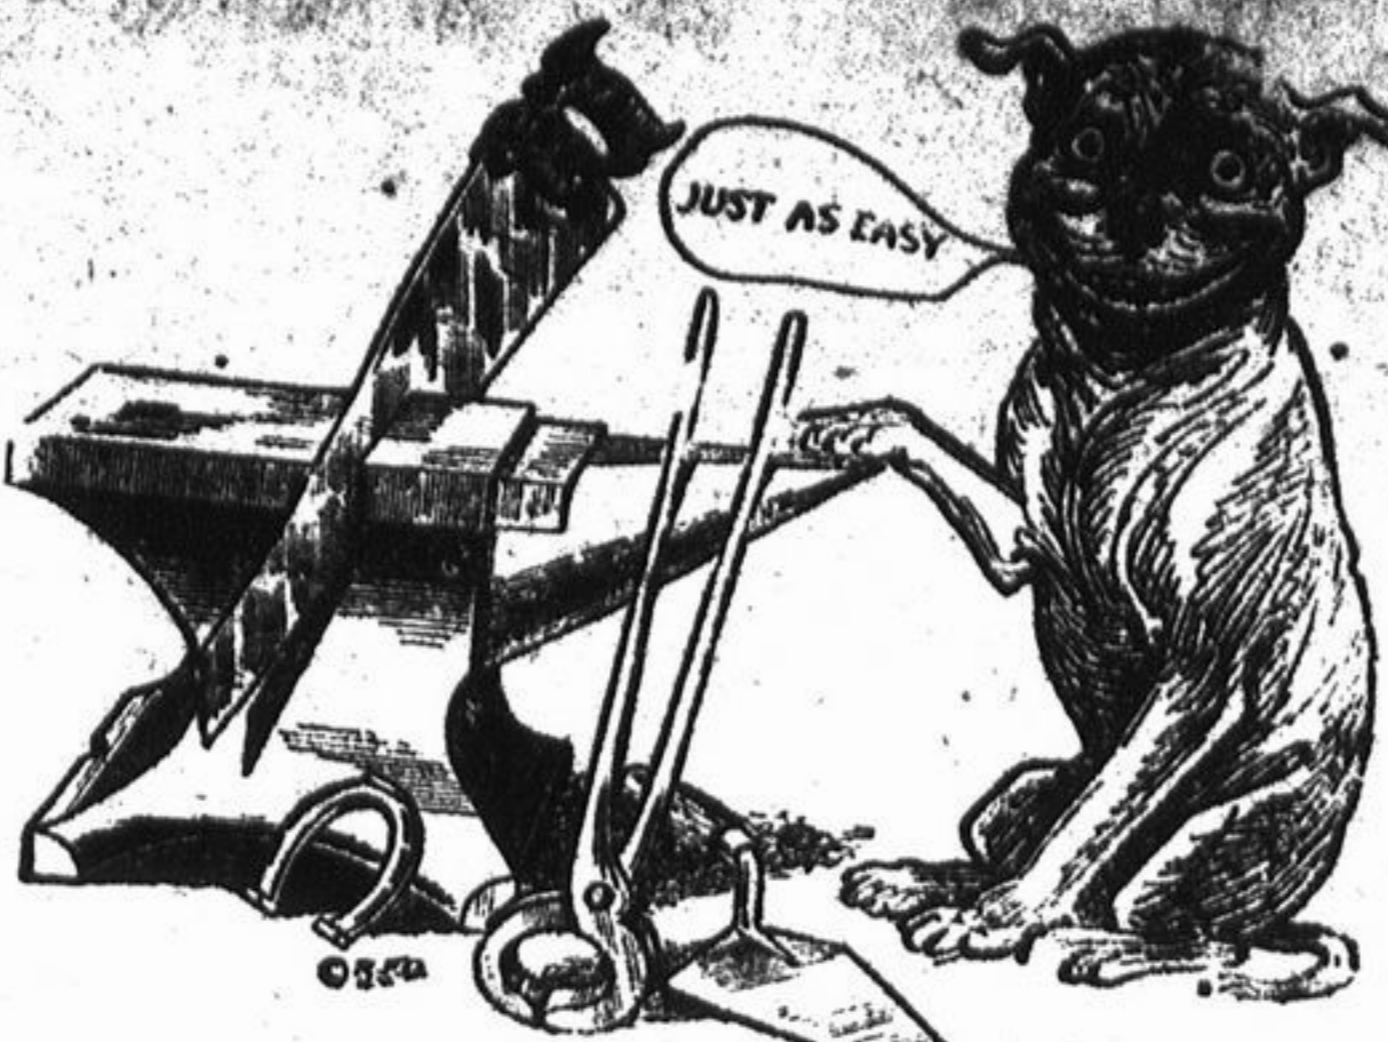

Mrs. Leonard J. Paige gave a Sunday in honor of Mrs. Paige's birthday at Chicago.

Mrs. and Mrs. Wm. Straube will leave Tuesday for New Orleans, where they will spend most of the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bolsby of East Aurora returned Tuesday with his family at Toronto, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowley, efficient manager of the Marshall Field & Co., has returned to his desk after an attack of illness.

Buy your tools from us; you will get good tools

DO NOT TAKE "ANY OLD THING" WHEN YOU BUY TOOLS. BUY OURS. WITH OUR TOOLS YOU CAN DO MORE WORK AND BETTER WORK, WITH LESS LABOR. AND THEY LAST LONGER.

WE WON'T PINCH YOU ON THE PRICE, BUT GIVE YOU THE BEST MAKES AT A LOW PRICE.

DON'T YOU NEED SOME GOOD TOOLS RIGHT NOW? COME IN.

J. D. GILLESPIE & CO.

Telephone 30 Day or Night 61 South Main Street Telephone 30 Day or Night will burn in your base burner all day gives more heat and about one half as much ash as anthracite hard coal; no slate in it. It is light and clean to handle and good third more in bulk. Try a ton of heat producing coke and at the same time two, to three dollars a ton on your fuel.

VULCAN

POTTER MFG & LUMBER

MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS BUILDING SUPPLIES, LUMBER, COAL, MILLS

"REDYBILT"

Portable Garages, Poultry Houses, Cottages, Poultry Equipment

"Old Ben" Franklin County Coal Chicago "AA" Portland Cement Gas Company "VULCAN" Coke

Yard entrance on East Curtis street.

PHONE 15

OUR POLICY Prompt Service, Best Quality, Right Prices

Mrs. Frank Konsack of Oakwood avenue entertained Mr. and Mrs. F. Miller and son, of Chicago, over the year-end.

Mrs. R. E. Coleman of Ventura, Calif., mother of Gladys Rogers, is suffering from a fractured wrist and injured back, the result of a fall.

A strict pay-in-advance policy will be adopted by this paper on and after February 15th, coincident with a raise in the subscription price.

The Misses Gladys Sherpe, Edith Hunt and Edith Stiles and Mr. John B. Wells last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Fuller and son Vernon spent Sunday and Monday with F. W. Hack and family at Maywood.

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Chicago, and Dan Lucas, of Joliet, visited over New Year's day with Chas. Thurm and family on Prince avenue.

Miss Vere Frank spent the year-end visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Stark, and cousins, at Naperville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese and daughter, Arline, visited with Mr. Reese's mother, Mrs. S. P. Frank, at Aurora on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Allan of Railroad street have returned from Omaha, where they visited holiday week.

Miss Gladys Timke and Frank M. Duncan visited New Year's day with Frank's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Madden, at Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Worrel, daughter, Marna, visited over holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. Barron at Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hammond, of Blue Island, spent New Year's day with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hammond.

Mrs. Turnbull entertained a sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Moyle, and niece, Miss Moyle, of Superior, Wis., last week.

Ross Wells, of Pontiac, Mich., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. E. Davenport, of Curtis street, and other relatives here.

Christmas has come and gone, but let's try and keep the Christmas spirit, that beautiful one of giving, throughout the coming year.

The Men's "Tuckabatchee" and Young Men's "Agoa" classes of the Baptist church are competing for attendance. The young men so far are in the lead and threaten to stay there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nethery, at De Beque, Colo., Tuesday, Dec. 26, a daughter, Alice Elaine. Mrs. Nethery is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacLean of Highland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slick left Saturday for North Dakota to attend the marriage of Harry's brother, Dan Slick, who has been teaching school there for the past two terms.

Mrs. E. G. Barrett returned last week from a visit at Plainville, Ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Strong, of that city, returned with her and will make an extended visit in the Grove.

Warren Littleford is back from a visit with his brother, Lee, near Bataavia, Ill. While there he did some hunting and reports bagging fourteen rabbits in three hours.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, of Independence, Mo., spent the year end with the W. H. O'Brien and B. F. Gaebler families. They left the fore part of the week for Indiana.

The ladies' aid of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. Allan Barnhart, January 11th, at 1:30 p. m. All ladies of the Congregational are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zinn, of Chicago, spent last Sunday visiting with the Gerwig families. The Misses Ella and Elsie Finchel, of Naperville, were dinner guests also.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heinke, of Chicago, Miss Helen Zell, of the Grove, and Walter Kelso, of Hinsdale, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Staats last Sunday.

The Misses Jennie Kahl and Esther Lapp of the West Side Hospital, Chicago, were visitors at the home of Friday.

Lohmann & Michel recently completed the hanging of the shades in the new Hinsdale high school, the construction for which they won over numerous competitors.

A service in song will be rendered by the choir at the First Evangelical church next Sunday evening. The choir under the leadership of J. L. Lehman has been doing good work of late.

The interior walls of the Allison home on Warren avenue have just been refinished with a flat white which can be washed just like paint. Mrs. Allison is very proud of the results.

Mrs. E. Renninger and daughter, Verle, Miss Ida Gushard, of Naperville, visited New Year's day with the Renninger and Hoffert families on East Curtiss street.

A ten-and-one-half pound boy arrived December 12, 1916, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wells, at Baker, Montana. Mrs. Wells is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Chesman, of Elm street.

The lid was on in the Grove New Year's eve, all right. About twenty young fellows went over to the fire station to ring the alarm bell, but it was well guarded. Don't ask me, ask one of them.

Mrs. Hamill, of Monmouth, Ill., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Barrett. Mrs. Hamill's daughter, Miss Gretchen, returned Wednesday, as she had to arrange matters for the opening of schools Monday. She is a teacher in the Monmouth schools.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Michel and Rev. Apollo Club Grote attended the Apollo Club concert at the Auditorium last Friday night. The beautiful oratorio, Handel's "Messiah," was sung as only this wonderful musical organization can sing it.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Winter, a daughter Sunday evening, December 31st. The little stranger arrived at the Mary Thompson hospital, and mother and daughter are doing well. Whisper it low—ye editor is now a grandfather.

The Highland Acres Community Center will hold an old-fashioned spell-ing bee and banquet at the log house Saturday night. This is the third affair given by this new social organization and each one has been an unequalled success.

The series of parties that are being given at the Library Hall this winter are a source of enjoyable entertainment for our young people. They are well chaperoned and the balance that is left from the actual expenses is turned over to the Library Board.

Word has just been received of the death of Mrs. Alfred Nixon at Hartford, Conn. Mrs. Nixon was a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Rogers. She was born in Downers Grove and will be remembered by many of the older residents.

A billiard and pool tournament will be staged at Phil Mochel's billiard room in the near future. Those desiring to enter will please meet there Monday night of next week. The plans are being arranged by E. Raymond and W. R. Wilson.

Harry Bryce and family expect to be residents of the Grove again in the near future. We understand Mr. Bryce will be connected with the Potter Manufacturing & Lumber company on an executive position about the 15th of the month.

Miss Brown entertained her young men friends at an all night party New Year's eve. Promptly on the arrival of 12 o'clock three cheers and a tiger were given for the little stranger. This was almost the loudest noise heard.

The high cost of everything that goes into a newspaper is responsible for a raise in our subscription rate. On and after February 15th the Reporter will be $1.75 a year. You can pay your subscription hot more than two years in advance at the old rate if you so desire.

Fred W. Amb, of Algonz, near Mason City, visited during the holiday week with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plumb, at Lisle. He has been working on a large dairy farm near Algonz for the last two years. Says he likes the country and will farm for himself in the near future.

Dolbert Austin will bring to the attention of the village board at its regular meeting Monday night the proposition of keeping the "lake" clean at intervals to keep the ice in trim. This is almost a necessity and those favoring the project are urged to attend the meeting and voice their desires.

The party given at the Library Hall on New Year's night was one of the best of the season. The holiday decorations add to the appearance of the hall very much, and the committee have such arrangements for our young people that are always chaperoned and the unselfish service of a number of our townspeople is greatly appreciated.

At the opening of the meeting Miss Eke Zell, a young girl from Chicago, danced. They were "Morr," "Shepherd" and "To a Wild Rose," too dancing.

The home and education department will have charge of the next general club program, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10. Miss Bennett, of the Art Treasures, will talk on "Grandmother's var will give a group of old-time songs, tales will dance. There will also be an exhibit of antiques, which ought to prove very interesting. It is hoped that everyone will come out to this meeting; invite your friends and let them know that all are welcome.

All Agreed.

"The you speak to further about me, dear, and no agreed with me, beauty, replied her, saying: "You are not a beauty, you are a beauty."

Notes of the WOMANS CLUB

Mrs. O. T. Bright Addressed Woman's Club on "What the Community Owe Child."

At the meeting on Wednesday afternoon of the home and education department of the Downers Grove Woman's Club Mrs. Orville T. Bright, president of the Illinois Congress of Mothers, gave a most interesting talk on "What the Community Owe the Child." Mrs. Bright said that in former times parents had absolute authority over children, an authority which now seems to be lost, but she did not believe in lamenting this loss. On the other hand, parents need to know where their children were all the time. The children...

PROPERLY FITTED GLASSES

are ORNAMENTAL as well as BENEFICIAL. I shape the lenses according to the contour of your face.

C.A. DURKEE, Optometrist

HOUSEMAN DRUG CO.

Main & Curtis Sts. Phone No. 6

Family Dr. says: You can have a Beautiful Complexion.

TO HAVE A CLEAR, ROSY COMPLEXION IT IS NECESSARY TO GIVE THE SKIN THE PROPER "FOOD." OUR PREPARATIONS FOR IT WILL ALSO BE EASY TO RETAIN YOUR HAIR OR MAKE IT MORE ABUNDANT IF YOU USE OUR "HAIR TONICS." OUR "DENTIFRICES" WILL MAKE YOUR TEETH PEARLY AND YOUR BREATH SWEET. LET US ALSO FURNISH YOU A "MANICURE SET" TO MAKE AND KEEP YOUR FINGER NAILS PRETTY. WHEN YOU GET TOILET ARTICLES AND PREPARATIONS FROM US YOU CAN "RELY" ON WHAT YOU BUY.

Bluebird Photoplays, Inc. Presents "The Unattainable" A Drama of Honest Love Triumphant Over Intigue With DOROTHY DAVENPORT and EMORY JOHNSON Leading A Select Company of Bluebird Camera-Artists A Legend of the Sierras Vintaged in Stirring Scenes Embodying the Magic Beauty of Rugged Nature Also Episode 7 of the Serial "LIBERTY" CURTISS THEATRE Thursday, January 11

Mr. and Mrs. George Martin, of Chicago, and Dan Lucas, of Joliet, visited over New Year's day with Chas. Thurm and family on Prince avenue.

Miss Vere Frank spent the year-end visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Edward Stark, and cousins, at Naperville.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reese and daughter, Arline, visited with Mr. Reese's mother, Mrs. S. P. Frank, at Aurora on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Allan of Railroad street have returned from Omaha, where they visited holiday week.

Miss Gladys Timke and Frank M. Duncan visited New Year's day with Frank's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Madden, at Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. George Worrel, daughter, Marna, visited over holidays with Mr. and Mrs. A. Barron at Elm street.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hammond, of Blue Island, spent New Year's day with his father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Hammond.

Mrs. Turnbull entertained a sister-in-law, Mrs. J. C. Moyle, and niece, Miss Moyle, of Superior, Wis., last week.

Ross Wells, of Pontiac, Mich., spent the week-end with his mother, Mrs. E. Davenport, of Curtis street, and other relatives here.

Christmas has come and gone, but let's try and keep the Christmas spirit, that beautiful one of giving, throughout the coming year.

The Men's "Tuckabatchee" and Young Men's "Agoa" classes of the Baptist church are competing for attendance. The young men so far are in the lead and threaten to stay there.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nethery, at De Beque, Colo., Tuesday, Dec. 26, a daughter, Alice Elaine. Mrs. Nethery is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacLean of Highland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Slick left Saturday for North Dakota to attend the marriage of Harry's brother, Dan Slick, who has been teaching school there for the past two terms.

Mrs. E. G. Barrett returned last week from a visit at Plainville, Ill. Her daughter, Mrs. Strong, of that city, returned with her and will make an extended visit in the Grove.

Warren Littleford is back from a visit with his brother, Lee, near Bataavia, Ill. While there he did some hunting and reports bagging fourteen rabbits in three hours.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Shaw, of Independence, Mo., spent the year end with the W. H. O'Brien and B. F. Gaebler families. They left the fore part of the week for Indiana.

The ladies' aid of the Congregational church will meet at the home of Mrs. Allan Barnhart, January 11th, at 1:30 p. m. All ladies of the Congregational are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zinn, of Chicago, spent last Sunday visiting with the Gerwig families. The Misses Ella and Elsie Finchel, of Naperville, were dinner guests also.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Heinke, of Chicago, Miss Helen Zell, of the Grove, and Walter Kelso, of Hinsdale, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Staats last Sunday.

The Misses Jennie Kahl and Esther Lapp of the West Side Hospital, Chicago, were visitors at the home of Friday.

Lohmann & Michel recently completed the hanging of the shades in the new Hinsdale high school, the construction for which they won over numerous competitors.

A service in song will be rendered by the choir at the First Evangelical church next Sunday evening. The choir under the leadership of J. L. Lehman has been doing good work of late.

The interior walls of the Allison home on Warren avenue have just been refinished with a flat white which can be washed just like paint. Mrs. Allison is very proud of the results.

Mrs. E. Renninger and daughter, Verle, Miss Ida Gushard, of Naperville, visited New Year's day with the Renninger and Hoffert families on East Curtiss street.

A ten-and-one-half pound boy arrived December 12, 1916, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Wells, at Baker, Montana. Mrs. Wells is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Chesman, of Elm street.

The lid was on in the Grove New Year's eve, all right. About twenty young fellows went over to the fire station to ring the alarm bell, but it was well guarded. Don't ask me, ask one of them.

Mrs. Hamill, of Monmouth, Ill., is visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. G. Barrett. Mrs. Hamill's daughter, Miss Gretchen, returned Wednesday, as she had to arrange matters for the opening of schools Monday. She is a teacher in the Monmouth schools.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Michel and Rev. Apollo Club Grote attended the Apollo Club concert at the Auditorium last Friday night. The beautiful oratorio, Handel's "Messiah," was sung as only this wonderful musical organization can sing it.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Winter, a daughter Sunday evening, December 31st. The little stranger arrived at the Mary Thompson hospital, and mother and daughter are doing well. Whisper it low—ye editor is now a grandfather.

The Highland Acres Community Center will hold an old-fashioned spelling bee and banquet at the log house Saturday night. This is the third affair given by this new social organization and each one has been an unequalled success.

The series of parties that are being given at the Library Hall this winter are a source of enjoyable entertainment for our young people. They are well chaperoned and the balance that is left from the actual expenses is turned over to the Library Board.

Word has just been received of the death of Mrs. Alfred Nixon at Hartford, Conn. Mrs. Nixon was a cousin of Mrs. J. W. Rogers. She was born in Downers Grove and will be remembered by many of the older residents.

A billiard and pool tournament will be staged at Phil Mochel's billiard room in the near future. Those desiring to enter will please meet there Monday night of next week. The plans are being arranged by E. Raymond and W. R. Wilson.

Harry Bryce and family expect to be residents of the Grove again in the near future. We understand Mr. Bryce will be connected with the Potter Manufacturing & Lumber company on an executive position about the 15th of the month.

Miss Brown entertained her young men friends at an all night party New Year's eve. Promptly on the arrival of 12 o'clock three cheers and a tiger were given for the little stranger. This was almost the loudest noise heard.

The high cost of everything that goes into a newspaper is responsible for a raise in our subscription rate. On and after February 15th the Reporter will be $1.75 a year. You can pay your subscription hot more than two years in advance at the old rate if you so desire.

Fred W. Amb, of Algonz, near Mason City, visited during the holiday week with his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plumb, at Lisle. He has been working on a large dairy farm near Algonz for the last two years. Says he likes the country and will farm for himself in the near future.

Dolbert Austin will bring to the attention of the village board at its regular meeting Monday night the proposition of keeping the "lake" clean at intervals to keep the ice in trim. This is almost a necessity and those favoring the project are urged to attend the meeting and voice their desires.

The party given at the Library Hall on New Year's night was one of the best of the season. The holiday decorations add to the appearance of the hall very much, and the committee have such arrangements for our young people that are always chaperoned and the unselfish service of a number of our townspeople is greatly appreciated.

At the opening of the meeting Miss Eke Zell, a young girl from Chicago, danced. They were "Morr," "Shepherd" and "To a Wild Rose," too dancing.

The home and education department will have charge of the next general club program, Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 10. Miss Bennett, of the Art Treasures, will talk on "Grandmother's var will give a group of old-time songs, tales will dance. There will also be an exhibit of antiques, which ought to prove very interesting. It is hoped that everyone will come out to this meeting; invite your friends and let them know that all are welcome.

All Agreed.

"The you speak to further about me, dear, and no agreed with me, beauty, replied her, saying: "You are not a beauty, you are a beauty."

Notes of the WOMANS CLUB

Mrs. O. T. Bright Addressed Woman's Club on "What the Community Owe Child."

At the meeting on Wednesday afternoon of the home and education department of the Downers Grove Woman's Club Mrs. Orville T. Bright, president of the Illinois Congress of Mothers, gave a most interesting talk on "What the Community Owe the Child." Mrs. Bright said that in former times parents had absolute authority over children, an authority which now seems to be lost, but she did not believe in lamenting this loss. On the other hand, parents need to know where their children were all the time. The children...

PROPERLY FITTED GLASSES

are ORNAMENTAL as well as BENEFICIAL. I shape the lenses according to the contour of your face.

C.A. DURKEE, Optometrist

HOUSEMAN DRUG CO.

Main & Curtis Sts. Phone No. 6

Family Dr. says: You can have a Beautiful Complexion.

TO HAVE A CLEAR, ROSY COMPLEXION IT IS NECESSARY TO GIVE THE SKIN THE PROPER "FOOD." OUR PREPARATIONS FOR IT WILL ALSO BE EASY TO RETAIN YOUR HAIR OR MAKE IT MORE ABUNDANT IF YOU USE OUR "HAIR TONICS." OUR "DENTIFRICES" WILL MAKE YOUR TEETH PEARLY AND YOUR BREATH SWEET. LET US ALSO FURNISH YOU A "MANICURE SET" TO MAKE AND KEEP YOUR FINGER NAILS PRETTY. WHEN YOU GET TOILET ARTICLES AND PREPARATIONS FROM US YOU CAN "RELY" ON WHAT YOU BUY.

Bluebird Photoplays, Inc. Presents "The Unattainable" A Drama of Honest Love Triumphant Over Intigue With DOROTHY DAVENPORT and EMORY JOHNSON Leading A Select Company of Bluebird Camera-Artists A Legend of the Sierras Vintaged in Stirring Scenes Embodying the Magic Beauty of Rugged Nature Also Episode 7 of the Serial "LIBERTY" CURTISS THEATRE Thursday, January 11

Special Next

Vanilla Wafers
5c packages of crackers and cookies
10c packages of crackers and cookies
15c packages of crackers and cookies
25c bottles of Club House catsup
All 15c Can Goods,
All 12c Can Goods,
Not-a-Seed Raisins
5c packages Swift's Washing Powder.

F. GERWIG & SON

NORTH SIDE GROCERY AND...
TELEPHONE...
28 NORTH PULASKI AVENUE, CHICAGO

Saturday, Jan. 6th
CHARLES CHAPLIN, in "The Circus" with Walter Lawrence, in "Paramount, Burton Holmes Travel Pictures."

Tuesday, Jan. 9th
Ann Pennington, as "Sue Sue" See review in your Monthly Program. Paramount-Bryar Cartoons—"Baby Steps and..."

Thursday, Jan. 11th
Pauline Frederick, in "The World's End" See review in your Monthly Program. Paramount Pictographs—"The Magazine on the..."

THE DICKE THEATRE

L. KLEIN'S
SANITARY...
Full Line of Canned...
Graham's and...
Junge's Bread...
Vegetables in...

JOSEPH V...
Real Est...
DOWNS GROVE...

G. B. TOPE...
Physician &...
Office and Residence, 13...
Telephone 26...
CURTIS STREET...
CHICAGO, ILL.