5,000,000 Are Listed Who Will Probably Not Be Liable to Draft-Time Extended to Complete Roll Before Selection Begins.

Washington, June 8 .-- One-half the men registering for service under the draft act are claiming exemption trom service , it was learned at the office of the Provost Marshal General Crowder on Wednesday. As only small percentage of the claims will be allowed, it is believed the total num ber available will not be materially reduced.

.Two States Exceed Estimates. In two states the actual registration exceed the census estimates by large figures. In Pennsylvania the response was partcularly heavy and caused great gratification at the war depart ment. The census estimate for the Keystone state was given as 879,37 and the actual registration figures were 950,300. Vermont, too, exceeded the census estimate by more than 1,000. The other states heard from dropped behind the estimated returns but only by small margins in most cases except Rhode Island. With the total registration in excess of 10,000,000, the "probable exemptions" are about 5,000,000,

Full official returns from Delaware showed a registration of 21,864, o which 11,651 either claimed exemption or were classed as "probable exemptions." Under the census estimates Delaware should have registered 20,-825. Only 92 alien enemies registered | 75,263. in Delaware.

Extend Time to Register. So heavy was the registration that in many places it could not be completed Tuesday night. Provost Marshal General Crowder announced that the government would adopt a liberal policy "for the next few days," and that all who had failed to register on Tuesday, but could show good flath, should have another opportunity to place their names on the roll of honor.

This stand was taken also so that the registration could be made complete before the selection for service begins. All who failed to register Tuesday and who allow this second opportunity to pass/by will be dealt with vigorously.

New Jersey First Complete. Complete returns from New Jersey, the first to come in, show registration of 302,866. The estimates by the census bureau was 300,563. Governors of Missouri and Ohio stated that their reports would be delayed because of

Then comes the appointment of the boards of review, to which each man who may be chosen by his local board for army duty may carry his case if he feels himself wronged.

These, broadly speaking, will be created for each federal judicial district and the president may appoint 309,562 them himself.

There is no statement yet available as to the process by which men will he drawn to appear before the exemption boards. Secretary Baker has stated that something in the nature of a jury wheel might be employed. but beyond that no information has been given out.
