A movement, which had its inception in Wheaton yesterday to equalize DuPage County's quota under the draft law, spread like wild-fire to Downers Grove and Hinsdale. As they were loading up some one of them called to ask the name of the town and some "smart-aleck" in the local people at the depot replied in a laughing voice "Downers Grove." We hate to be super-critical but—in our opinion and we are backed up by several of those present, it was the wrong thing to do, why try to hand a slur at the name of the town in which you have your home.

LOCAL TALENT PRESENTED VERY INTERESTING PLAY

Red Cross Committee to Receive all Profits from the Entertainment

Local talent staged a play last Friday and Saturday evenings at the High School Assembly room, for the benefit of the Red Cross, which for genuine interest and forceful presentation would be difficult to duplicate.

The play, though it was more of a pageant than a play, was entitled, "Columbia Entertains," and was written for the occasion by Mrs. W. W. Latchford, pianist and author, who also trained the participants in their several parts.

In the opening scene Columbia and Uncle Sam, with history in attendance, are in conversation, presently characters from American history all bubbling over with patriotism and enthusiasm appear, are properly introduced and perform their several stunts.

Of the sketches the Hawaiian group "Dixie" and the "Red Cross Nurse" with nimble feet and helpful fingers were received with special enthusiasm.

At the performance Saturday night the applause which greeted the 1917 volunteer sounded like the delegates at a Progressive convention welcoming "Teddy."

In the first presentation Friday evening Gwendolyn Griffiths took the part of the Gibson Girl.

The cast of characters was: Columbia.....Mrs. Howard Jones Uncle Sam.....Mr. Ray Miller History.....Billy Latchford Pocahontas.....Dorothy Moor Indian Chief.....Carleton Nadelhoffer General Washington.....Chas. Davis Mistress Washington.....Avis Lempe Dixie.....Gertrude Downer Gen. Robt. E. Grant.....William Rice Old Black Joe.....Walter Sherman Gibson Girl.....Hazel Easton Rough Rider.....Mr. John King Hawaiian Group.....Willis Sherman Evelyn Brown, Katherine Heckman 1917 Volunteer.....Manley Alderson Red Cross Nurse.....Corrine Nadelhoffer

ABOUT FLY TRAPS

This is the time to trap flies and trap them before they get into the house.

Have a large trap and bait it with a variety of foods because there are a variety of flies and they all have different tastes.

Here is a good combination: Sugar and vinegar. Banana peeling and melon rind. Piece of meat, etc.

It is said that a trap set on the ground will catch more flies than if set up on a perch.
