Single Register Furnace

This furnace is arranged to heat from a single register any ordinary house of 5 or 6 rooms.

The heated air is conducted from the furnace through the large center pipe and discharged from the central portion of the register face.

The cold air which is the motive power that forces the warm air out of the furnace into the rooms is drawn from the rooms and is replaced by the warm air. Therefore temperature is equalized in all the rooms in which the doors are left open.

We highly recommend this furnace for small homes where a low priced heating plant is wanted and have watched the results on many that have been installed this past year and in every case they have been highly satisfactory.

This plant can be installed in about 6 hours and does not cut your house all up or fill your basement with pipes.

Come in and talk this over and we will give you more information about this furnace & what it will do. This is a splendid heating plant for the average farm house and will not burn any more coal than your stoves, and will at the same time heat your bed rooms.

On Wednesday company of Germans came out of Austin and took possession of the house of Arthur Van Valen. They were armed and soon began to unload their haversacks (heavy sacks) of provisions. But as they were all men and children it did not frighten "Vans" it may be because they were Baptists. At 6:30 they were repulsed by the men. They also, seemingly peaceable, but they really did not care for the VanValen garden, corn, etc. in the cob, tomatoes, strawberries, they took good care leave enough so they were asked some again. One of the company, Mrs. Frubaugh, expects to go to Washington soon to reside as her hand is there employed by the government.

Timely Warning

NOW IS THE TIME TO PLACE YOUR COAL ORDER

It's less than eight weeks until you will need HEAT. Some morning early in October you will wake up and find the thermometer down around 32 - (it will feel about 10 below) and you'll be mighty thankful if you have some of our good, free-burning, heat producing coal in your bin to warm up with. Why delay until cold weather comes, when right now every condition is right for ordering at least your first supply of coal.

MIDWEST "HUSKIES"
BREEZE INTO CAMP
Officers of Ambulance Units at Allentown Indolize Chicago Varsity Boys.

The bars have been let down, because the departure of a good many men has made room for new ones, there arrived at the United States ambulance camp at the Allentown Fair Grounds today the contingent of the University of Chicago, 180 men. It is not only the largest single contingent from any college in the United States, but the men as a whole are the biggest and most powerful. They were recruited nearly three months ago and because the camp here was overcrowded had been compelled to wait at Chicago ever since June 6 before getting word from Col. Persons, the commander of this camp, that there was room for them here.

Many of the westerners are six-footers and a large proportion are athletes. Virtually all of them, superb physical specimens, have been under the training of the Chicago varsity coach, Alonzo A. Stagg. The officers of the camp gazed at the newest arrivals with undisguised admiration. Said one of them: "The Prussian Guard may be famous for its training and notorious for its terrorism, but I have traveled through Germany, and the Kaiser would have a hard job finding in all his imperial German empire a batch of men equal to these. What is more, they are nearly all football players, whose natural grit has been added by Stagg's iron qualities.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Arnold Uhlhorn, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Uhlhorn, of South Main street and Edwin Pfaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Pfaff, of Saratoga avenue, are members of this ambulance unit. "Arno" has been with them since early spring and has made, with the unit, several false starts. "Ed" joined but a few days before the start was made from Chicago.

Weapons Are Intricate.
A rifle is a more or less simple-looking mechanism, but to make this rifle 1,223 separate manufacturing operations must be executed. One round of 3-inch shrapnel means 355 operations; to make an automatic pistol, 614; and for the terrible little mitrailleuse or machine gun, 1,990. The lightest 3-inch field gun costs $1,400.

Buried Treasure Recovered.
King John of England is credited with having recovered in the thirteenth century plate, coin and jewels worth $1,000,000 or more that had been buried in one place beneath the Roman wall in Northumberland, and it is assumed that similar finds in other places are still possible.
