 There will be no advance in prices for this extraordinary attraction. What Piper Cameron will tell you will be written in world history. Let every child see and hear this man. It impresses, it startles, it amuses and it arouses patriotism.
 Mrs. Emil Marchand entertained a number of her friends Wednesday afternoon. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed. Those present were: Mesdames C. H. Staats, C. J. Winter, John Zell, C. H. Staats, Phillip Wander, Chas. Elmer Mochel, Phillip Wander, Chas. Wolff, Jos. Staiger, H. Borman and J. D. Sturman of the Grove and O. J. D. Sturman, James Ferguson and Selma McIntosh of Chicago.
 Radio Operator Owen Griffiths arrived home late Christmas night on a high furlough. He has now finished going in this service and passed an examination with flying colors. He does not know where he will be assigned or when he will go on active duty. Owen wishes to thank S. J. Perle and the others who contributed to his Christmas gift he received shortly before coming home.
 Wm. Brady, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Brady, who has been very ill with double pneumonia in an eastern naval hospital, is on the road to recovery. He fell overboard while on a ship in the Hudson river and was in the icy water four or five minutes. Mr. and Mrs. Brady returned the first part of the week from visiting him and on their departure for home the doctor assured them that their son had a splendid chance for recovery.
