THE RED CROSS IS REAL SERVICE

By FRANK MORRISON, Secretary American Federation of Labor.

The work of the Red Cross is not confined to our boys on battlefield or in hospital nor amidst the ruins of Belgium and other portions of devastated Europe. One of its great activities is any necessary aid to the dependents of members of America's military forces.

On the battlefield the Red Cross presents an heroic figure. In America, removed from destruction and death, the Red Cross steps silently to the side of the father and mother whose boy is "over there" and who need counsel and aid.

No service is too small for the Red Cross. If allotments from the government or from their own are delayed, or information on the government's war risk insurance is wanted, the Red Cross is both counsellor and friend. It enters into the home in the true spirit of charity—service.

Behind Red Cross service is an essential charity that is not defaced by cost marks, a democracy that personifies Jefferson's great principle of equality and a religion that is beyond sectarianism.

MAKE SOLDIER FEEL HE IS AS GOOD AS EVER

Men disabled in the service who are returning from the front and who find it hard at first to see their way toward earning a livelihood are a special problem for the Red Cross. Under the Smith-Beards law a fund is appropriated to re-educate every disabled man who will take the opportunity to make a living.

Two little stories came to the Red Cross headquarters from over the seas a short time ago. One was a story of bravery that brought the tears, and one a tale of tears that brought smiles.

RED CROSS WOMEN CITED FOR BRAVERY

American women at Epernay, south of Rheims, have been cited in an order of the day for remaining at their posts in an American Red Cross canteen under bombardment for six days.

WHAT RED CROSS MEANS. Your membership in the great American Red Cross means the mothering of those little children made desolate by the invasion of the Hun.

IN AND AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

"A Happy New Year" is our wish to all the people of Downers, both great and small. D. G. H. S.

Back from a week of joy and cheer, Back to the school room cold and drear, Back from a life of good time and play, Back to a teacher's iron way;

We know now. Santa Claus owns that supply of white sweaters.

Our high school service flag again adorns the assembly walls. It now has one hundred and thirteen stars.

Wanted: Information concerning the mumps. Our advice to the questioner is, don't get too curious. The subject viewed at close range, is anything but a funny one.

It was good to come back to school on Monday morning.

I wonder if Santa remembered all the Freshies! There are so many of them!

New Year's Resolutions for D. G. H. S. (1) No Failures.

(2) No sharp shooting practice indoors. (3) No talking in the halls

Our joy in returning to school was somewhat tempered when the announcement came that semester examinations were only three and one-half weeks away.

If Santa brought you money, invest it in W. S. S.

Again vacation time is o'er, And back we are at school once more, The Freshies now run thru the halls With Latin books and Rubber dolls.

Who'll answer a question for a Junior? How can a fellow have a merry Christmas with a short hand test awaiting him on his return to school?

Certain members of the high school and faculty are at last absolutely agreed on one subject; namely, that the mumps is not the best of holiday companions.

Soph: "Why didn't you take Botany?" Junior: "Oh, I thought that after the war there would be no germination. (German nation, we may explain for those whose brains are still not wide awake.)"

Since our return the familiar saying now is, "I have forgotten."

Frosh: "Did you hear about it?" Junior: "No, what?" Frosh: "Neither did I." Obituary to be published later.

Brush up on these, and your chances will be good for the semester ex. questions.

1. Who is a famous automobile racer? (Mable) OLDFIELD. 2. Who was a colonel in the Civil War? (Catherine) MORGAN.

3. Whose name was very patriotic this summer? (Dorothy) GARDINER. 4. What is a portion of England? (Raymond) WALES.

5. What was the capital of the Confederacy? RICHMOND (Shurt) 6. Who is extremely unpopular just now? (Howard) WILHELM.

7. What are we expecting every day now? (Preston) SNOW.

Since when have cities had tales? We don't know, but Mr. Dickens wrote about one tale belonging to two cities. Freshmen, attention! There is a vast difference between the words "TALE." You are evidently confusing the two. Consult Mr. Webster.

Oh dear! We just got sett'ed down to work, when along came New Year's day. Will interruptions never cease?

The question among the student body no longer is, "What section will go over the top in the W. S. S. campaign?" but, "Which section will go over first?"

Rosella Porter, class of '16, was a visitor at the H. S. on Monday.

Where do you suppose Santa got his supply of socks and neckties? At so silver pencils?

What is the joke about a certain Junior gentleman being so very tactful? Information solicited.

Heard in the halls during the week: "I wish that vacation hadn't started a week early, don't you?"

Freshmen start some good resolutions

Start 1919 just right; Don't only make them but keep them. Though it causes you many a fight.

The Freshies are youngest and smallest, But there's grit in them, yes, one and all; And they'll finish the thing that they've started Be it ever so humble or small.

"And the little children shall lead 'em" Won't you others please fall in line, And make this next year the most prosperous Ever looked on by Old Father Time?

BEG YOUR PARDON

Through an oversight on the part of our correspondent the names of several hosts and hostesses, who assisted, both financially and by opening their homes for entertainment of Jackies from the Great Lakes over Christmas, were omitted from the list last week. They are

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Barnhart Mr. and Mrs. Lee Beidelman Mr. and Mrs. Walter Curtiss Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Huntington Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Lawrence Mr. and Mrs. John Sellers Mrs. T. S. Rogers

And right here is a good place to say that these "Gobs" had a good time while they were here. Several of those kind enough to entertain them have received letters from the boys telling in no uncertain language just what a good time they had.

The fame of Downers Grove as a place to receive entertainment is a by-word at the "Lakes."

THIRD DAY OF 1919 BRINGS TEN BELOW WEATHER

This morning thermometers in the village and in the surrounding country registered all the way from eight to fifteen below, but we think the rather conservative figure of "ten" is fairly close.

It took the new year to bring in the first cold snap of the winter and the change from an average of about thirty above to below zero weather is very marked.

Coal bins, which have been bulging, are feeling the effects of the change and the black diamonds are melting away like snow in April. It is understood that a posse of representative men of the community are out gunning for the fellow that said we were to have a mild winter.

We have heard that a certain gentleman who owns a business just south of the Corner Grocery and who is small, that is as to size, of course, let him be nameless, however, had made a wager early in the fall that we would have no "ten below" weather until along in March. Whether he has been notified of the fact that it was a "leettle mite cold" this morning or not, we do not know.

ARCADIANS MET NEW YEAR'S EVE

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Arcadian Club was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Heintz, New Year's eve.

The early part of the evening was devoted to the business meeting and election of officers. Installation of the new officers will form a part of the program at the Annual Banquet of the Club on January 25th.

After the business had been concluded the balance of the evening was devoted to games. Refreshments were served and when the clock announced the arrival of the mid-night hour, a hearty greeting was extended to the New Year.

The next regular meeting of the Club will be held at the home of Miss Irene Tiffany, Saturday evening, January 11th.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all our friends and neighbors, for the kindness and sympathy shown us in our recent bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lehman and family.

No Unmixed Good. All good things are subject to abuse, and when abused become pernicious. Great powers, commerce and riches—or, in other words, great national prosperity—may, in like manner, be denominated evils; for they lead to insolence and inordinate ambition, a vicious luxury, licentiousness of morals, and all those vices which corrupt a government, enslave the state and precipitate the ruin of a nation.

DOWNERS GROVE WELCOMED 1919 WITH WHISTLES

Reconstruction Year Ushered in With Usual Pomp and Ceremony, and Shots and Shouts

Downers Grove gave a boisterous welcome to little 1919 at the stroke of twelve Tuesday night. 1919, the year that is to mean so much to future generations, was ushered in with train whistles and the fire whistle blowing madly, with church bells ringing, with horns and shouts and shots.

One minute before the hour everything was apparently peaceful and quiet, but one "Happy New Year" hail from a pedestrian on Main Street seemed to be the signal for the town to erupt. Dancers at Dicke's and Library Hall poured into the street and added their calls to the general din.

OWEN GRIFFITHS TELLS OF ALBERT MEYER'S BRAVERY

Porto Corsini, Italy, Nov. 30th, 1918. Dear Anna:

Albert and I talk of you so much I thought I would write you a few lines and tell you a few things about your little brother. The war is over so it will not hurt you.

You have a brother to be proud of and one who is brave too. In the Navy they don't hand out the Victoria Cross etc. to the men but each one does his duty and that's all.

One night when the planes were rather thick and the bombs dropping and shrapnel bursting in the air, your little kid brother left the dugout to make the rounds to see if every thing was O. K. How he ever did it no one knows but he did it and returned to the dugout, took off his helmet and says, "Gee, its hot out there and then laughed. Talk about nerve. And the bombs were dropping all around tool."

We expect to leave here soon but do not know just exactly when. But hope it will be for Christmas and hope to be in the states by the first of the year, and it will be a happy New Year, you can bet on that.

Well, it is getting late so you will have to close. Best wishes to you and season's greetings.

He Knew the Sex. "Take that picture out of your play window immediately!" demanded the irate woman. "I am surprised you would exhibit my photograph to the common gaze!" "Awfully sorry, less of me," said the photographer a few minutes later. "I should have remembered that she liked the best." And the profile was substituted for the offensive front view in the play window, and she was happy after.—Kansas City Star.
