While the war may be over, there is plenty to do and we must still do our part. During the coming year there will be new lines of work to keep Vesta Chapter at its zenith.

Chairman of the various committees were presented in the west so that the Chapter would know upon whom additional responsibilities had been placed. The Committees solicit aid from all members. If you know of any sickness notify Mrs. Plumbe, South Side, Mrs. Chessman, North Side. If relief is needed notify Mrs. Shumaker.

Mrs. Rassweiler has charge of the music which is a most essential part of the Chapter work.
