How to Conquer.

Infinite toil would not enable you to sweep away a habit, but by ascending a little you may often look over it altogether. So it is with our moral improvement; we wrestle fiercely with a vicious habit, which could have no hold upon us if we ascended into a higher moral atmosphere.—Helps.

LEGAL NOTICES

STATEMENT OF THE OWNER-SHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912. Of Downers Grove Reporter published weekly at Downers Grove, Ill., for April 1, 1918.

County of DuPage

Before me, a Notary Public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared C. H. Staats, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the Editor of the Downers Grove Reporter and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, etc., of the aforesaid publication for the date shown in the above caption, required by the Act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations.

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:

Publisher, C. H. Staats, Downers Grove, Ill., Editor, C. H. Staats, Downers Grove, Ill., Managing Editor, W. J. Staats, Downers Grove, Ill.

2. That the owners are: Downers Grove Publishing Co., C. H. Staats, Downers Grove, Ill., W. J. Staats, Downers Grove, Ill., Guy L. Bush, Downers Grove, Ill., G. H. Bunge, Downers Grove, Ill., F. Duncan, Downers Grove, Ill., I. C. Copley, Aurora, Ill., Guy Gibson, Wheaton, Ill., R. T. Morgan, Wheaton, Ill., S. L. Rathje, Wheaton, Ill., Geo. Thoma, Wheaton, Ill., J. W. Leedle, West Chicago, Ill., Wm. Hammerschmidt, Lombard, Ill.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are: First National Bank, Downers Grove, Ill. 4. That the two paragraphs next above giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name of the person or corporation for whom such trustee is acting, is given; also that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stockholders and security holders who do not appear upon the books of the company as trustees, hold stock and securities in a capacity other than that of a bona fide owner; and this affiant has no reason to believe that any person, association, or corporation has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

C. H. Staats, Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24th, day of April, 1918. W. H. Blodgett, Notary Public.

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING JUNK SHOPS.

Paragraph 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to locate, establish, conduct or maintain any junk shop or junk yard in the Village of Downers Grove, either at wholesale or retail on any lot fronting on any street in any block in which two-thirds of the buildings on both sides of the street are used for residence or retail store purposes, or within 200 feet of any such street in any such block without the written consent of a majority of the property owners according to frontage on both sides of the street, provided that in determining whether two-thirds of the buildings on both sides of such street are used exclusively for residence, and, or retail store purposes any building fronting upon another street and located on any corner lot shall not be considered; and, provided further that the word 'block' as used in this section shall not be held to mean a square, but shall be held to embrace only that part of the street in question which lies between the two nearest intersecting streets—one on either side of the lot on which said junk shop or junk yard is to be located, established, conducted or maintained.

Paragraph 2. The Mayor may grant licenses to such persons as shall produce satisfactory evidence of good character to keep what are commonly called junk shops or junk wagons, or both, for the purchase and sale of old rope, old iron, brass, copper, tin or lead, rags, empty bottles, paper, bagging and other junk. Every person receiving a license for a junk shop, as provided in section one, shall pay therefor, to the Village Collector, the sum of $50 annually; every person receiving a license for a junk wagon shall pay to the Village Collector the sum of $25.00 annually; every person receiving a license for a junk wagon for one day, shall pay to the Village Collector, the sum of $2.00 for each and every day.

Paragraph 3. A separate license shall be obtained by every junk dealer for each cart, wagon or vehicle used, and a separate fee will be charged for each such cart, wagon or vehicle.

Paragraph 4. Every person licensed under the provisions of this ordinance, shall, before using any such cart, wagon or other vehicle or causing the same to be used for the collection or disposal of any of the articles mentioned in Section 2, have printed or painted on said wagon, cart or other vehicle, the name and address of the owner thereof on some conspicuous part of said vehicle.

Paragraph 5. No keeper of a junk shop or any persons licensed either by the day or year for collecting and disposing of junk as provided in Section 2, shall purchase any articles, whatsoever, from any minors without the written consent of their parents or guardians, under a penalty of not less than $5.00 or not more than $25.00 for each offense.

Paragraph 6. Any person, firm or corporation violating Paragraph 1 of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $50. or not more than $200.00; any person, firm or corporation violating any other section of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $10.00 nor more than $50.00.

Paragraph 7. All ordinances or parts of ordinances heretofore in force in this Village relating to the subject of licensing junk dealers are hereby repealed.

Paragraph 8. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and due publication.

John F. Kidwell, Mayor of Village of Downers Grove Passed, April 29, 1918 Approved, April 29, 1918 Published, May 3, 1918

LIBRARY NOTES

HOURS

Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, Three to Nine, P. M.

The Khaki Kids are still active in collecting books for the soldiers and sailors. If any one wishing to donate books to this work will notify the Librarian or any one of the Khaki Kids, they will call at your home for them. Almost 400 books donated by the people of Downers Grove are packed ready for shipment.

The many children who frequent the Public Library will be delighted to hear of the recent gift of juvenile books from the Kindergarten Extension Association, the source of many such generous gifts in the past. Miss Morse takes a personal interest in the selection of these books and the parents in Downers Grove can justly feel that only the best in literature is reaching the hands of their children thru the co-operation of the Kindergarten with the Library.

A special section just for the little tots is being arranged, where they will find Fairy Tales, Mother Goose Rhymes, picture books, etc.

All boys and especially the Boy Scouts will be interested to know of the addition to the shelves of the Boy Scout edition of Everybodys Library, containing the following books:

- Hank book for boys. Adams Wells brothers Boat building and boating Handicraft for out door boys. Beard Boy Scout's of Bob's Hill Burton Yankee ships and Yankee sailors

The wireless man. Hutton He prepared Along the Mohawk trail Fitzhugh The last of the plainsmen Grey The ranch of the Oxhide Inman Jim Davis Masfield Redney McGaw McFarlane Pitching in a pinch Mathewson Tom Paulding Matthews School days of Elliott Gray Jr. Maynard

The wrecking master. Paino The jester of St. Timothy's Pier Buccaneers and pirates of our coast Stockton Three years behind the guns Tisdale The land of the Caribou Tomlinson

A Food Conservation section has recently been added to the Library, containing books, suggested list of magazine articles, State and United States publications on the subject. Anyone wishing the pamphlet mentioned in the Wednesday afternoon talks at Library Hall may obtain them by calling at the Library.

"THE SON OF DEMOCRACY"

The announcement that the Paramount Picture Corporation has taken charge of the distribution of the Benjamin Chapin series of pictures first shown as "The Lincoln Cycle" and to be known in the future as "The Son of Democracy" heralds an important event for the screen. The Moving Picture World has already expressed the opinion that, "Not only every man, woman and child in the United States, but every lover of liberty in the civilized world, owe a debt of thanks to their creator. No finer or more impressive lesson in patriotism and right conduct is to be found than in the life history of Abraham Lincoln, and the truth and skill with which this lesson is set forth in the Chapin pictures is beyond all praise. They make clear the influences that moulded the character of our best loved president, and reveal with unmistakable lucidity the kind of Americanism for which he stood. Their use as propaganda at the present time would prove a powerful aid to the cause of that freedom for which the United States has entered the great war."

"The Call to Arms" is particularly timely. The almost overwhelming weight of responsibility put upon the shoulders of the chief executive of the country at war is brought home to the beholder; and the task now confronting President Wilson will be better understood after viewing the trials and heartbreaking obstacles that beset Abraham Lincoln under similar circumstances.

It would seem that the qualities already touched upon would be sufficient to insure the success of the series with any body of spectators. But life is made up of smiles and tears, of merry thoughts as well as grave, and most of the men and women at a screen theatre do not take kindly to instruction unless they are being entertained at the same time. "A Son of Democracy" is always entertaining and will often provoke laughter of the heartiest description. Lincoln's keen appreciation of humor and his talent for story telling are utilized to supply the comedy relief which is relished by all well balanced persons and which Lincoln so frequently used to lighten his own labors.

As to Benjamin Chapin's part in the production of "A Son of Democracy" it may best serve the ends of simple justice to him to again quote from the review written just after seeing the cycle: "To accomplish the result for which he has long labored Benjamin Chapin has brought a love and a zeal that are nothing short of apostolic. The form in which he has cast his cycle admits of no perceptible improvement. High as it ranks as an educational force and an authentic record of one of the chief figures in history it has the almost inestimable advantage of being entertaining in the best sense of the word. As the author of the scenario and general director of the cycle and also as the impersonator of Abraham Lincoln and Tom Lincoln, his father, Benjamin Chapin's need of praise must surely be a generous one. His unique fitness for the part of Abraham Lincoln has long been conceded, and he is quite as successful in his acting of Tom Lincoln. His domination of the entire acting force has insured an unbroken line of correctly directed situations, upon which neither time nor money have been spared."

Briefly stated the screen has never produced a series of pictures in which serious purpose, healthful amusement and patriotism are more happily blended than in "A Son of Democracy."
