FOREST PARK.

Manager Paul Heinze wore "the smile that won't come off" on the opening night. Never before was seen at Forest Park so many enthusiastic and well pleased people. Everyone because of its many new attractions this season, and the many new features in the way of entertainment. "Hiawatha Passion Play" received many complimentary remarks. It is a high-class production, being superbly produced by one hundred Iroquois Indians. The Indian village in connection with the Passion Play production proved to be a very interesting as well as an instructive exhibition both for the young and the old.

The Full Measure restaurant, just what was always needed in the park, where the best of eats can always be found, was the main topic of conver- tised matter: sation. Mr. Joseph Grein, former city sealer, and star old time newsie, gave his personal attention to the management of this popular eating place, and N. Y. the approval of the many patrons who dined at the Full Measure restaurant City. was plainly demonstrated by their many compliments. Hereafter you need not hesitate to bring your family and friends to Forest Park for You should not only insure but insure a delightful outing, and top it off with a sumptuous spread, dance and cabaret entertainment at Mr. Grein's
