Are You an Ant or a Grasshopper?

Remember Aesop's story of the Ant and the Grasshopper? How the Grasshopper sang all summer long with no thought of the coming winter, while the Ant worked and stored up a supply of necessities for use during the cold weather?

If you do you'll also remember that the Grasshopper froze to death while the Ant lived to enjoy life for many moons thereafter.

Charles Ray in 'The Family Skeleton'

Humorous account of the struggles of a young millionaire. This is the kind of photoplay we are proud to offer. We like to show pictures we know you will tell your friends about. Ray pictures are always good, but we promise this is especially good.

Benjamin Chapin in 'The SON of DEMOCRACY'

A Paramount Series
NATIVE STATE

A beautiful Indian girl who saves the life of children lost in the woods, is the center of "Native State." Benjamin Chapin, noted for his impersonations of Abraham Lincoln here is seen as the first Abraham Lincoln, grandfather of the president. The feature is crowded with exciting hand-to-hand conflicts with Indians, suspense and human interest.
