

Order Your Coal Now! Are You an Ant or a Grasshopper?

Remember Aesop's story of the Ant and the Grasshopper? How the Grasshopper sang all summer long with no thought of the coming winter, while the Ant worked and stored up a supply of necessities for use during the cold weather? If you do you'll also remember that the Grasshopper froze to death while the Ant lived to enjoy life for many moons thereafter.

SPEAKER FROM TURKEY AT CONG'L CHURCH SUNDAY

Rev. Ernest Pye, Armenian Relief Worker, to Address Congregation at Morning Service.

Temporarily banished from Turkey on account of war conditions in that distraught country, Rev. Ernest Pye, A. B., D. B., for a number of years engaged in educational work at Marsovan, Turkey, will speak at the First Congregational Church next Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock.

Rev. Mr. Pye is a graduate of Oberlin, and during his stay in Turkey was instructor in New Testament and Theology in Antolia College and Marsovan Theological Seminary. He witnessed the first great massacre of Armenians during the present war, and gave himself up freely for the relief and defense of that afflicted people. He will have for his subject, "Tests of the Reality of Christ," and will draw upon his European war experiences for illustration.

The Anatolia group of institutions at Marsovan with which Mr. Pye is connected, had its beginning fifty-four years ago. It embraces a college and theological seminary, a school for girls, the Anatolia Hospital, the King School for the Deaf, and the Manual department consisting of cabinet shops, iron working shops, flour mill, tannery, etc.; a library of ten thousand volumes in the four primary languages, English, Greek, Armenian, Turkish (including Arabic and Persian); a museum of seven thousand specimens; a total of eleven buildings, a student enrollment of eight hundred and fifty with teaching staff of fifty, a ground plan of thirty-seven acres, and valuation aside from endowments of something more than half a million dollars.

Mr. Pye and his family are spending a few months in residence in the Grove, but hope to return to Turkey as soon as conditions will permit.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Pearce had the pleasure of entertaining Lieut. I. Haebich at their home on Sunday. Lieut. Haebich's brother John, of La-Crosse, Wis., joins the colors this week and will be stationed at Camp Grant.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chudleigh and family of East Orange, N. J., visited at the home of their aunt, Mrs. John Stoudt last Sunday. The Chudleigh's are on a motoring trip going from here to Mendota and then back home via Chicago.

Mr. Hiram L. Williamson, Superintendent of Printing at Springfield and secretary of the Illinois Press Association called at the Reporter office on Monday. Mr. Williamson and family are motoring to the Great Lakes training station.

Mr. Al. H. Scott, of 64 Oakwood is in Montana where he has purchased a large ranch near Musselshell and will eventually remove his family to their new home in the far west. Their many friends wish them every success and prosperity.

Romanzo Lacey received a notice to appear at Newport News, Va., Sunday morning for service in the navy. Romanzo was attending Oberlin College when the war broke out and enlisted in the navy shortly after. He was on a furlough to attend school.

The Rev. M. B. Leach, Supt. Northern Illinois Conference of the U. B. church will preach in the East Grove chapel on Monday, July 29th at 8 p. m. Dr. Leach is an interesting speaker, and any of our neighbors who can attend will be well repaid.

Mrs. F. H. Nourse of Beverly Hills, Mass., a former resident of the Grove spent last week here visiting and renewing old friendships. She also paid the Reporter office her respects. We are always glad to have our out of town subscribers look us up.
