until he is in the Army, their work surely helps the boys.
I well recall how I used to consider the people of the South slow and lazy; but since being down here I can really understand how difficult it is to do anything and feel comfortable. The heat takes all the "pep" out of a fellow and the slightest exertion brings forth perspiration in superabundance.
Yet much have we Northerners to learn from our fellow southerners. They are a very congenial sociable people, even tho they are obliged to farm on a much less extensive scale in the mountain territories, cornfields seeming mere irregular patches, they manage to eke out an existence. Stock have apparently full range, it is not uncommon for the motorman to stop the street car and chase a pig, cow, calf, horse off the track, a rather unmy sight for us.
Must close now hoping you are both well, am sending my best wishes to you and to all my friends at the hotel and elsewhere.
Yours patriotically,
L. E. H. Kupke, M. R. C.

MADE FIGHT FOR FREEDOM
British Army Deserter Showed Daring and Originality in Making His Escape From Prisons.
Three daring escapes made by a British army deserter with ten convictions against him—all for crimes of violence—were described at Oldstreet a few days ago, relates London Chronicle. The man, George Mullins was sentenced to six months' imprisonment in January, 1917, and was sent to Wandsworth. There he was trained for the army and taken to France in handcuffs. In a few weeks he contrived to get leave and, returning to England, deserted. He was arrested last April, but, although handcuffed, he escaped from his escort. After a brief spell of liberty Mullins was again captured, and with five others was put in the guardroom at Wandsworth prison. While the others danced and sang at the top of their voices Mullins cut a hole in the wall and all the six escaped. In the following May the man was again arrested, and taken this time to Bethnal Green police station, where he was placed in a newly built cell. Again he managed to escape by loosening a number of bricks, climbing through a ventilator and dropping down a water pipe into the street. The other night Mullins was arrested by Detective Sharp in Stepmey. A big and violent crowd gathered and his colleagues with stones, weights, coal, bottles and "any thing they could get their hands on" the police, however, got away. Mullins is now sentenced to two months' hard labor as a deserter and for damaging Bethnal Green police station.

PRIVATE JOHNSON WANTS THE REPORTER

Logan, Texas, August 15, 1918.
Mr. C. H. Staats, Ed Reporter.
Dear Sir:

I am a few lines to let you know I am OK as usual as we are certainly stationed in a hot climate. It is hot here every day and the sky is generally clear so the sun beats directly down on you all day. Rains are very rare here although they are heavy when they do come.

Want to thank you for sending the Reporter to me but will say that I did not receive any for last week or the week before. If you sent me a copy it must have become lost in the mail. If you still have copies left I would be glad if you would send them to me as I want to see what's going on at home. Also wish you would not forget me with a copy every week as I expect to stay in this camp for some time yet. They are to form two new regiments of infantry here for the 80th. Division, National Army. This camp has only about 6,000 men here so far and its capacity is about 50,000, so there will be lots of new men coming in shortly. As I am in the 57th. Inf. Reg. Band of Hdqrs. Co., I don't have it so hard as the other sections who drill with the rifles all day and also do a long hike every week. We have 38 men so far and are trying hard to get 50 which we are allowed by the Govt.
See where the home guard is doing a lot of drilling etc. laely. Also see that Walter has enlisted and has gone into training. Guess most of the young men of Downers are in the service now.

They have a good entertainment here every Friday night and also good boxing bouts for the boys. The Y. M. C. A. also puts on a good entertainment and movies. As my time is limited will close.
Yours truly,
Pvt. A. F. Johnson.

As a Gentleman!

Little brother accompanied his mamma on a visit to some friends in Chicago, and included in the entertainment of the visitor was a luncheon at one of the fashionable cafes. Little brother was taken along because there was no place to "check" him.
"Now, brother," said mamma, "you see this beautiful place and all these lovely ladies—you are the only man present, and I want you to be very polite and act just like your father would if he was here."
"Wait," said brother, "I guess I'll take a cigarette."
