The S. S. of the First Evangelical church was presented with a unique honor roll last Sunday morning. The pictures of the ten men and women of the church families who have entered the national service are on it. The pictures are snapshots of equal size showing the "stars" in their service uniforms and in camp surroundings whenever possible. The names, rank and addresses are beneath the pictures. Those on the roll are: Malvin Butler, Frank Bruns, LeRoy Bruns, Bertha Diener, Dan Diener, Reuben Diener, Harold Hoffert, Arthur Iehl, Linne Tholin and Albert Vix.
Mr. and Mrs. Lemon were called to Joliet Wednesday by the death of John M. Strasser, a cousin of Mr. Lemon's. Mr. Strasser has for several years been the superintendent and manager of public utilities from Lockport and Streator. One son, Ensign Roland is in Honolulu, Joseph is in training at the Great Lakes, Marie is a Red Cross worker just returned from France, Florence is in reconstruction work in the East and Ethel, now Mrs. Taylor, is in India with her husband, Rev. S. Taylor doing missionary work. The young people are known to a number of Downers Grove folks.
Mean Hint.
Miss Fern—When I taxed her with putting powder on, the girl actually changed countenance.
Miss Part—Don't you wish you could?—Baltimore American.
