Forts Built With Natural Cement.
The volcanic island of Santorini, in the Aegean sea, produces a natural cement called "pessoloma," which mixed in certain proportions with time and sand is an excellent substitute for the best cement.
"Pessoloma" has been used for many centuries and is still being used throughout the world. In the construction of buildings, harbor works, breakwaters, lighthouses, etc., in the Mediterranean, the Black sea, and the Atlantic. With it the Venetians constructed the great fort of Monemvasia and Nauplia, the then Gibraltar of the eastern Mediterranean, the foundations of which are in the sea, intact and immovable up to now after many centuries. The forts of Crete and those of the Dardanelles are also built with "pessoloma."

IN AND AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

Please have your copy in early next week on account of Thursday being a holiday. Wednesday morning at the very latest.

Have you seen Winston Roth and his little black satchel?

The greatest ambition of one of our Freshies is to be president of the First National Bank.

The Zoology class made a trip Saturday to the Field Museum.

Hand often from the platform: "Don't forget your dime for the piano." "Don't forget your Thrift Stamp Card Monday morning."

Section C leads in spelling this week.

What can one do when the heat from four radiators is not sufficient to keep one warm?

Spelling report for the week:
Section A, 39 spelled, 10 were perfect, lowest grade 64, average 89.00.
Section B, 39 spelled, 4 were perfect, lowest grade 76, average 89.9.
Section C, 38 spelled, 16 were perfect, lowest grade 64, average 92.73.
Section D, 40 spelled, 6 were perfect, lowest grade 68, average 89.9.

Section C is ahead in the Thrift Stamp Campaign, but as they are always behind in the spelling contests, we are led to wonder if mental process and money always walk hand in hand.

We hear that a certain Sophomore is saving his hair in order to have a pillow made from it.

Non essential citizen No. 2. Small pupil who hides behind a larger one in order that the teacher may overlook him in recitation time.

Anyone desiring garments cleaned or pressed is assured of good work if he has it done by a certain member of the Sophomore class. Patronize the lady, for the proceeds go into W. S. S. For name, terms, etc., inquire thru this column.

At last we've got the Kaiser's goat. And mighty glad are we; It didn't take the Yankees long To make the Boches flee.

Let's give three cheers for America And the Cause of democracy; For since our boys have been "over there" It's been "Good-Night, Germany."

Experience has taught one of our worthy Freshmen, that, regardless of the fact that one has only five minutes in which to get to school, he must stand patiently, yes, until the apparently motionless milk train decides to move on.

If it had not rained Sunday, farmers between Lemont and Downers would have witnessed the world's greatest walker trying to get home before dark. We understand that he will attempt it some Sunday in the future.

Remember the W. S. S. Campaign. Section D leads the H. S. at present.

How far is it to Belmont? Ask Harold Zindt.

What do you think of the Juniors? Ask the Fresh, Grades and Seniors.

"When a Feller Needs a Friend": When he has pledged most of his year's allowance to Liberty Bonds, and then is expected to subscribe to War Activities, buy Thrift Stamps, and is haunted by his class treasurer for the piano assessment. Oh, well, cheer up! The causes are all good ones.

Wanted: A small gasoline stove to put under the seat of one of the Fresh.

Result of the second week of the W. S. S. Campaign: Section A, 50 stamps. Section B, 23 stamps. Section C, 73 stamps. Section D, 100 stamps.

The question now before the house is, "Which section will be the first to go broke in this new drive for funds?" With the old Spaniard, we can only throw up our hands and murmur, "Quien sabe?"

Why is the Library so popular with the H. S. lately? There's a reason.

Margaret Campbell, a former student was a week end visitor in the Grove.

Sung by some of the high school boys last Friday night:

"Where, oh where has my little girl gone, Oh where, oh where, can she be? I've searched for her all over the town, But her nowhere can I see."

The amount pledged to the United War Fund by the students of the high school was one hundred and fifty dollars.

Save your pennies and help your section win.

Mrs. Bordwell and Mrs. Huntington were visitors at the high school last week.

Question: What is a lord?
Reply: Some one with a sort of a head.

We want to know if anything but a broom can be used to make a clean sweep. Information solicited.

We would respectfully suggest that the last book in the Hygiene series, "Control of Mind and Body", be installed. Then perhaps the escape of a small lizard would not create such a panic as such an occurrence did in the past.

Keep the boys a-smiling, With your dollars piling, Though the lads are far away They long for home; There's a silver lining Through your pocket shining, Turn your pockets inside out For the War Fund Drive.

If you have any sympathy to spare, give it to the poor class treasurers. Some people's money sticks to the pocket like muckilage to a brush.

The Juniors won first place in the class tournament. The grades won second place.

Familiar sayings: "I'll never tell." Jeanette Wells.

"The car's busted." Henry Haley.

"Oh, my big brother, what's he?" Harley Rogers.

"Should I call a Freshman meeting?" Herbert Kellogg.

"I'm satisfied." May Binder.

"I haven't got my Latin." The Fresh.

"Got your Caesar?" Bill Hammer.

"We'll beat 'em yet!" Sections A, B, and C.

"We're modest about our spelling honors." Section C.

"We're not haughty because we're rich." Section D.

Freshman: "Have you red freckles?"

Senior: "Yes, and it's a good book."

Freshman: "Huh? I say have you red freckles?"

Senior: "YES! I tell you."

Freshman: "That's funny. Mine are brown."

What's in a name? Some of the students in the advanced algebra class are solving equations by "determination" and "graft"; and with good results, too, we hear. Well, why shouldn't the combination work well if skillfully carried out?

Y is it some folks want to C. If it B that you know them? They I U almost constantly. If U should chance 2 O them.

Is this your little pet peeve? To be constantly disturbed by the jingle of a certain faculty member's keys?

Remember to bring your thrift stamp cards to school Monday.

One of the local merchants was heard to exclaim the other day, "Girls are an awful nuisance." We think so, too. (Mercy, whos' the grouch?)

Question in history: "Is there any building in town that reminds you of a palace about the year 1000?" Reply: "Yes, Judge Tucker's office."

A certain person was seen the other day bearing the sign, "Nobody home." We never did believe in signs, but what would you advise in a case like this? Answers solicited.

Leo Rogers is becoming a daily visitor at the high school. We are always glad to see him, however.

Familiar sayings of several Juniors: "I suppose so."

One Freshman insists that the sea is clam. Interpret, please, someone versed in Fresh baby talk.

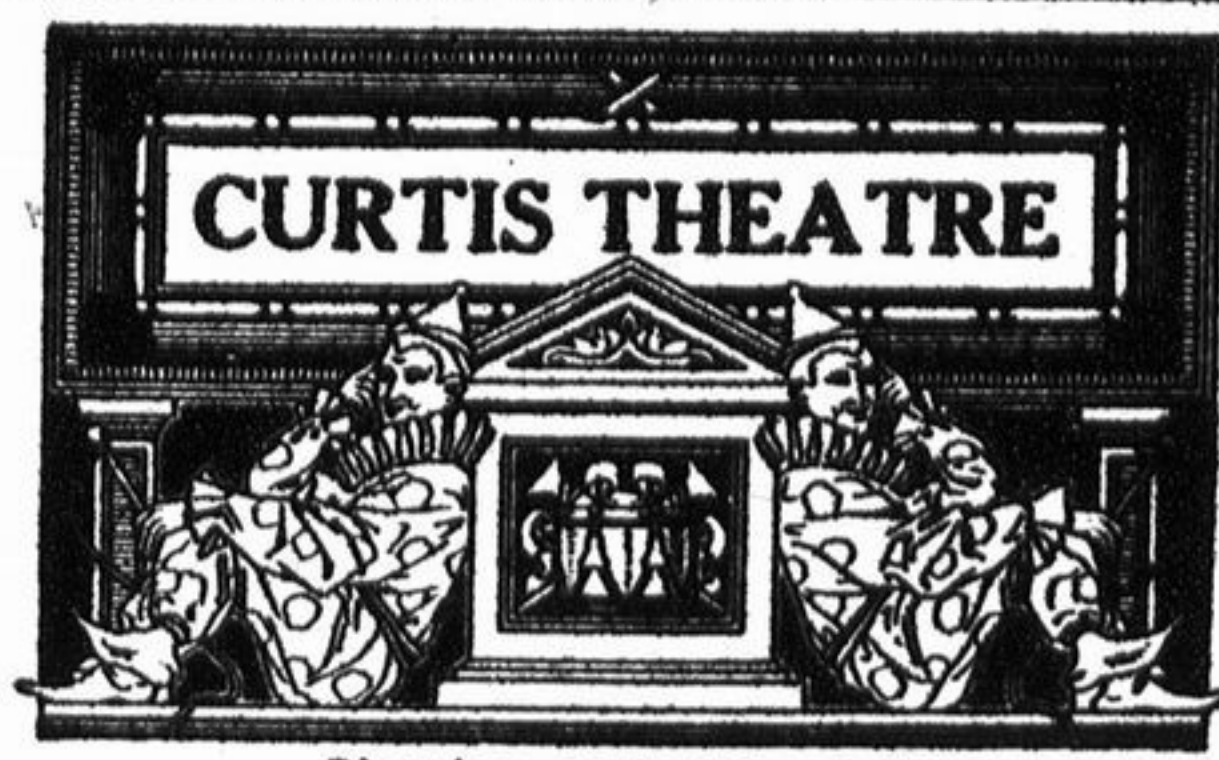

They call the little red car a Maroon, but we have all heard of one of Anderson's Fairy Tales.

Senior always looking for information: "I saw your advertisement for a man to retail canaries."

Proprietor of bird store: "Yes, have you had any experience?"

Senior: "No; I was just curious to know how the canaries lost their tails."

Phonograph Educational Factor.
The phonograph as an educational factor has tremendous value. Through this means the children can become familiar with all that is best in music, either vocal or instrumental; they can learn not only the music but about the composers, and the great men and women who sing and play various instruments.

Eliminating the Waste

To win the war we must cut out the waste. It is not sufficient that we save food, coal and money; we must save the wear and tear on our industrial machinery and industrial organizations.

A useless telephone call not only wastes the time of the persons talking and the operator, but it ties up a line which might be needed for an important message having to do with winning the war.

Cut out useless calls. Use the service freely when it is really necessary.

"And now, since you have come out and asked us, Clem," said the indolent and youthful editor, "we may as well confess that our idea of a strenuous job is taming wild honey."

The Man Who Knows.
No one knows better how some great task entrusted to some one else ought to be done than a man of no practical experience of his own.—Ohio State Journal.
