Proper Disposal of Flags.
"Old and wornout flags should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning. Do not cast them aside or use them in any way that might be thought disrespectful to the flag," says the adjutant general of the United States army.

IN AND AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

We would like to know how many times a week Henry Haley says, "My car is only hitting on four"

About twenty-six boys turned out the first night for basket ball. The Reverend Mr. Schwab has taken charge of the team.

Last Friday the Freshies had their first party. Owing to the epidemic it had been postponed, but nobody minded, especially, for by waiting, they had a chance to initiate the new gym piano. Miss McIlhenny, Jane Rice and Carrie Constantine took turns at the piano, and Richmond Shurte played the drum. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Waples, Mrs. Wilhelm, Mrs. Harvey, Mrs. Deegan, Miss King, Miss Trot, Miss Swanson, Miss Robertson, Mrs. Whiffen and the Freshman class advisor Miss Hughes.

For what are the early morning meetings of the fourteen Sophomores? We want to know, and they won't tell.

Arthur Jenness was a high school visitor one day last week.

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN! Some of Juniors and Sophs may be seen any day now wearing dresses which will look half way familiar to you. Reason: The class is studying conservation in materials.

Mr. Feasley's absence last Friday may mean the beginning of a noted career for some of the members of the high school namely Harold Zindt and Roland Modjaka.

We are afraid the limps are contagious, as well as the "flu." Another member of the faculty is now going about with a slow and apparently studied gait.

"What makes the Sophs love Caesar so?"

The high school students cry: "Because the Sophs have brains you know,"

The teacher did reply.

Heard the other morning in assembly: "Probably the Freshmen don't understand, so I'll explain."

We have been led to believe that the initiators succeeded in giving the Freshmen some one-way rides. We hope that the Freshmen enjoyed themselves, but our minds are harrassed with doubts.

Some can spell, and some can buy thrift stamps. Which section can pay their war fund dues first?

Some of the students from other classes paid a hurried visit to the Freshman party the other night. Hurred, because the Freshies made it so.

Freshie, at library: "I want the 'Life of Caesar.'"

Librarian: "Sorry, but Brutus has already taken it."

Freshie: "Well, when he returns it will you save it for me?"

Why do the Freshies jump when some one comes up behind them in the hall?

A wee little Sophie, (may his size increase).

Awoke one night from a night mare of peace.

And saw within the moonlight of his room.

Making it rich, and like a school room in bloom.

A Freshie, writing in a book of red; Exceeding peace made the Soph fall on his head.

And to the Freshie in the room he said, "What writest thou?" The Freshie raised his head

And said, "The names of those who in school

Do their work so that they are accounted a fool."

"And is mine one?" said Sophie. "Nay, not so."

Replied the Freshie--Sophie spoke more low

But cheerily still and said, "Oh one new in school,

Write me as one who never broke a rule."

The Freshie wrote and vanished. The next night he came again

And showed the names of those the records cursed,

And Lo! The Sophie's name was the very first!

Two girls were talking about the Germans. "What do you think of them," asked one. "I think that they are just as wicked as can be." "And what do you think of the Kaiser?" "Oh, he's worse than wicked." Isn't that strong language for a nice girl to be using?

Delight Verdenia entertained a few of the high school girls at dinner the other evening.

Wanted: A good brain to think up items for the Reporter. Call or phone Hazel Nut.

The Chemistry class is now studying the subject of equilibrium. Some of the students are prone to doubt the facts in the book, so do not be astonished if you see some of them walking perilously near the edge of the roof of some of our sky scrapers, namely Judge Tuckers or Dexters.

Favorite occupation Friday noons, reading this column.

Section B leads the Thrift Stamp Campaign with 294 stamps.

English teacher: "When did Helen Hunt Jackson write 'Ramona?'"

Student: "In the summer time." The real joke about this, however, is the fact that the person who handed it in, wrote, "When did George Eliot write 'Ramona?'" The perpetrator is a Junior, too.

Save your money and buy Thrift Stamps. Help your section keep ahead.

It is hoped that the people reading this column will appreciate the rare literary geniuses at work upon it.

Several members of the H. S. were seen on Friday last migrating west in a prairie schooner. This should prove interesting to the history classes, as such things are unusual in the twentieth century.

When you have been making poor recitations, and some day a paper comes back with a 98 or an 8 on it, oh, boy! 'Ain't it a grand and glorious feelin'!"

Non-essential student number 3: He who is failing in three subjects.

A student reading in the English class said, "He met Carlyne", (meaning Carlyle) "whose influence he had already felt." Poor thing.

It takes an artist to chew gum correctly. For information, consult a certain Junior.

Oh, how I hate to go to school in the morning.

Oh, how I like to stay at home. But the hardest thing of the day is to hear Mr. Feasley say,

"You got to go to class, You got to go to class, You got to go to class this morning."

Some day we're going to murder Caesar's Latin,

Someday they're going to find it dead; We'll amputate the geometry, And stamp upon this algebra,

And spend the rest of our life at home (Tune of "Oh how I hate to get up in the morning.")

Chemistry is becoming exceedingly interesting. The pupils are anxious to begin to play with water. Haven't they ventured yet, or are they full of childish traits?

A wise old owl lived in an oak. The more he saw the less he spoke. The less he spoke, the more he heard, Freshmen should imitate that wise old bird.

Is this your little pet peeve? Never being called on in certain classes?

"Vengeance is mine," saith the Juniors. Which, being interpreted, means, "We are getting even for the time when we were Freshies."

Freshman, sighing: "Oh, if it had only snowed harder, we might have made a snow man."

When a feller needs a friend: When he has worked hard all month, and then is called into the math room early some morning.

The Freshman class is attempting to turn out lawyers, we think, judging by the interest in the debates.

HOME FROM THE ARMY

Probably the first Downers Grove soldier to be discharged from the army after the signing of the armistice arrived home Wednesday evening. He is Walter J Staats, who in the past has had a hand in guiding the destinies of The Reporter.

The returned soldier boy was at the time of his discharge, a candidate at the Infantry Central Officers Training School at Camp Grant and it was this fact that brought him home as the men at the school were the first given the option of remaining in the army or returning to civil life immediately.

He enlisted the 14th of June in the training section of the Motor Transport Corps and was sent to the Rahe Auto School at N. Kansas City, Mo. for training. There he was one of fourteen picked from 2200 men as officer material and sent to Camp Grant for training where he has been since the 30th of October.

YOUR TIME HAS ARRIVED

With the end of the war in sight, if you have not already made your fortune in munitions stocks, shipping shares or in some one of the industries that have been enjoying profitable war business, you still have left

THE GREATEST OPPORTUNITY OF ALL

Owing to the opening of vast new oil fields, oil operators from all over the country are rushing to Kentucky, and the State is seething with excitement. Kentucky oil wells produced, in 1917, for their shareholders more than

TEN MILLION DOLLARS

and the present year will see still larger returns. Some experienced men anticipated these conditions and the

BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY

several months ago secured a vast acreage of well selected territory, which gives every indication of being highly productive. The Boston-Kentucky Oil Company is organized under the laws of Delaware, Capital stock $250,000, all common, full-paid and non-assessable. The properties comprise 1350 acres in Rowan County and 960 acres in Clay County, Kentucky. These holdings have been purchased outright and are owned by the Company. No leases, no rentals, no royalties. We are close to production, pipe lines and refineries. Kentucky crude oil is in great demand and is of the highest grade. We are not seeking your subscriptions for the purpose of buying lands. Our lands have been bought and paid for. We want your subscriptions to drill wells and thereby make money for all of the shareholders. We want to begin drilling at once and the Boston-Kentucky Oil Company makes its first limited offering of its treasury shares at Ten Cents Per Share. We give notice now that the next offering of these shares will be at Fifteen Cents, and your orders will have to be received promptly in order to take advantage of the present offer of Ten Cents. You can participate in the success of the Boston-Kentucky Oil Company if you act promptly. Boston Kentucky is a conservative company, managed by oil men who know how to produce oil. Our acreage is unusually large and our capitalization is unusually small. Buy your shares now before drilling begins. The price goes up as the drill goes down. Send your subscriptions, which will be entered in the order received, to

America's Pledge of Food Gave Heart to the Allies in Their Darkest Hour

Whatever is necessary America will send. That was America's pledge to the interallied food council. And because the American food army had hitherto made good the; took heart and went forward.

Farm enterprise and much soft corn increased pork supplies, food conservation increased exports--total shipments doubled.

LOYALTY IN LITTLE THINGS LAST PROOF OF PATRIOTISM

Americans without murmuring cut their sugar allowance from four pounds a month to three and then as long as need be to two pounds for loyalty's sake.

Food Will Win the World.

America earned the gratitude of allied nations during war by sharing food. America under peace may win the world's good will by saving to share.

DEMOCRACY VS. AUTOCRACY.

"There is no royal road to food conservation. We can only accomplish this by the voluntary action of our whole people, each element in proportion to its needs. It is a matter of equality of burden."

The truth of this statement, made by the United States Food Administrator soon after we entered the war, has been borne out by the history of our exports. Autocratic food control in the lands of our enemies has broken down, while democratic food sharing has maintained the health and strength of this country and of the Allies.
