Proper Disposal of Flags.
"Old and wornout flags should be destroyed as a whole, privately, preferably by burning. Do not cast them aside or use them in any way that might be thought disrespectful to the flag," says the adjutant general of the United States army.

IN AND AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

A commercial association has recently been organized from the commercial classes of the High School. Students who are carrying two or more units of commercial work are eligible as active members, and those carrying only one unit are eligible for associate membership. At present there are 21 active members, and 20 who may become associate members. The first meeting was held Tuesday afternoon, and the following officers elected:

President: Alice Shumway.
Vice-President: Edward Waples.
Secretary: Lorraine Tope.

Fresh: "I don't feel very well to-day."
Soph: "Where do you feel the worst?"
Fresh: "In school."

The Senior class has at last awakened. Watch further announcements.

Some of the Freshmen seem jubilant over some victory. They must have made 'way with Turkey.

Familiar sayings: "Oh, how can I get to school fifteen minutes earlier?"

Fresh: "I just wrote a letter to my brother."
Soph: "What did you say?"
Fresh: "I don't know, haven't read it yet."

Admonition to first year Latin students: Drink deeper than the first conjugation, or taste not of the Latin class.

Chorus of Freshmen: "Snow, snow everywhere, on the ground and in the air."

If you want to know about someone's most embarrassing moment, ask Frank Hall to tell you one.

A Junior, fearing society, "Oh, that's got a name on it."

Have you noticed the new style of hairdressing?

Before you ride with Henry Haley, be sure that a Standard Oil wagon is in tow, or else that Henry has bought a few drops of gasoline sometime since last Fourth of July.

If these items didn't have to pass the eye of the censor they might be easier to write. Fie! Fie!

They call us "The Idle Rich" because we cannot spell, but our money spent for Thrift Stamps can give the Germans a very uncomfortable time.

A Commercial Club has been organized in the H. S., and from the looks of things, the members are going to have a very interesting and instructive time.

When a feller needs a friend: Translating Caesar.

Everyone who attended the party Wednesday night enjoyed themselves. Thank you, Sophomores.

A dollar a dollar, some Lisle scholar, What made you come so late?
If you'd come by express you'd have got here on time;
So you must have come by freight.

Kenneth Abbs, formerly a D. G. H. S. boy now a member of the Cadets in the Crane Technical H. S., was a visitor here this week.

LeRoy Phelps, one of our football stars, who has recently gone to Racine, was here for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Wanted: By some of the big boys: A place, a comfortable place, for feet in the study hall.

Answer to question in last week's issue: Is your little pet peeve not being called upon in certain classes? We reply, "Most emphatically, 'No'. It never happened to us."

Mesdames Bensley, Bunge, P'ler, Graves, Hughes, Snow, Waples, Man-deville and Wilder were our guests last Wednesday.

We hope that the absences Monday were not due to an over supply to turkey.

Beg your pardon. In this column last week we published a "familiar saying" of Harley Rogers, and he informs us that it was slightly in error. Ahem! Instead of reading, "My big brother, what's he?" it should have been, "My big brother, where's he?" A much better spirit for a Fresh to show his grad brother. We are happy to make the change.

A girl was heard to remark: "Well, that goes in one ear and out the other. Corks are still within the reach of the moderately well to do.

We were asked to write Freshmen A on our English papers. Why can't we write A Freshman?" Because there are too many of you, and if you did that, I should never know which one owned the paper. Does that make it clear?

Ruth Oliver spent a little time at the high school Monday morning.

Rules for Fresh:
Try to appear as though you were a Senior.

Do not try to bluff thru a lesson twice in succession.

Do not asked to be excused from reciting more than five times in the same week.

In boasting about your cleverness in grammar school, don't mention it.

Don't let an exam scare you. Get it before it gets you.

Remember—A light head and a light heart aren't partners.

We hear that some of the affluent ones in a certain section are out of funds.

Grammar school teacher saved a Fresh from a walk home from Lemont. It is rumored that she said, "Who touches a hair of you black head, dies like a dog; Ride on!"

John Babbage gave a most interesting talk on "England" before the members of the fourth hour history class. We hope that he may come again.

S. O. S. which, being interpreted means, "Same Old Story", can't think of anything to write.

TAKING THE TEST

Dawn, then nine o'clock
And just one bite for me!
And may I hurry past disgrace
When that Latin test I see!

Noon, and then my lunch,
And after that the school,
May I learn my Latin well,
And remember every rule.

For the I try and try,
Latin gives me no rest;
I hope I may not fail
When I have to take that test!

Fresh to Senior: "How do you spell cemetery?"
Senior: "I don't know."
Fresh: "You are some Senior, you are."
Senior: "Well, how should I know? I'm not a dead one."

A HERO'S GIFT

Will the person who took the wrist watch from the bench at the High School Gym kindly let me know where it is. I know you didn't intend to do this, it was a mistake I'm sure. I know what those impulses of ours are, they lead one at times to do things that we would give years of our life to recall, if possible. Now be a Hero over your conscience of Right and Wrong. I will promise no one will know of this affair but you and I and the ever watchful eye who is over us all. Don't let this go too long, because I know unless you clear your conscience you will not have a happy day as long as wrist watches are made and Heros are born, and the New Year of Resolutions is drawing nearer each day.

Remember my promise which I will surely keep, the watch was a gift to a little friend of mine who prized it above everything else, as the giver can never replace it having gone to the Great Beyond for your sake and mine.

Address me "B. E." Downers Grove Post Office.

YOUR TIME IS NOW!

In our first advertisement of the BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY, last week, appearing in this newspaper, we drew your attention to a wonderful opportunity presented to you in the offer of BOSTON-KENTUCKY Treasury shares at ten cents per share.

WE CALLED YOUR ATTENTION to the large acreage of the BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY comprising 1350 acres in Rowan County, adjoining the Ragland Pool, and 960 acres in Clay County, Kentucky, all carefully selected territory—and what is of prime importance to you—ALL BOUGHT AND PAID FOR and carrying

NO LEASES NO RENTALS AND NO ROYALTIES

The BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY will pay no tribute to any one for the privilege of spending its shareholders money for the development of oil lands not belonging to it. The BOSTON-KENTUCKY OIL COMPANY will use its shareholders funds to develop lands in which each shareholder has an interest in proportion to his stock-holdings and produced will be utilized for dividends and for the expansion of the drilling and development program.

100 PER CENT OF ALL OIL

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM KENTUCKY

During September, 1918, a total of 232 new wells was completed of which 202 wells are commercially productive, indicating a successful completion of 87 per cent. This is a remarkable accomplishment and compares favorably with the most prolific districts in the world. On October 25 last, 581 new wells were in process of drilling. For the week ending October 12, the Cumberland Pipe Line delivered to refineries 88,236 barrels of crude petroleum, or an average daily run of 12,602 barrels, each barrel of which was worth $2.60. Indications point to the production of Kentucky for the year 1918 exceeding FIVE MILLION BARRELS, a marked increase over the year 1917, and the value of the 1918 production will exceed

THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS

We gave notice in our last week's advertisement that the price of BOSTON-KENTUCKY Treasury shares would advance to fifteen cents. THE PRICE HAS ADVANCED exactly in accordance with our announcement and we now offer the second allotment of BOSTON-KENTUCKY Treasury Shares at FIFTEEN CENTS PER SHARE. To those who did not grasp the opportunity offered last week at Ten Cents we say which in all probability will appear in our next week's advertisement. Send your orders in at once. You may wire your reservations at our expense, but act quickly. Remember that our acreage is unusually large and that our capitalization is unusually small.

DO NOT WAIT FOR THE NEXT ADVANCE

Tithing for
W. S. S.
Clean-Up

In some religious bodies tithing is a popular form of insuring organization upkeep. Why not tithe to put Illinois over the top in the War Savings drive?

Let every man put 10 per cent of his income for December into War Savings securities and the $40,000,000 worth of stamps that must be sold in the last month of the year to attain the state's quota of $125,000,000 will be disposed of.

Illinois has not failed at any call the Government has made, and must not now. Our war work is not done until peace is permanently established and our victorious Army brought back home.
