Saturday, December 28th.
WALLACE REID, in
"The Man From Funeral Range"
A Paramount Picture

TRYING TO CONVICT AN INNOCENT MAN!
It looks mighty bad for Wallace Reid in this picture — fugitive of the law, and innocent at that — but it's no use for an innocent man to argue with the electric chair. The only safe way is flight and vindication later. What would you do under such circumstances?

THURSDAY, JANUARY 2, 1919
LILA LEE, in "Such a Little Pirate"

A regular old-style pirate yarn, but with a very modern damsel right in the nub of it. There's a villain called Bad-Eye who tries to steal the map showing where the treasure is — but seeing that the map is tattooed on a human shoulder! — well, that's the plot, come and see it unravelled. And don't forget the youngsters.
