THAT REALLY MEANS HOT WATER

Is your Hot Water faucet a fraud and a delusion?
Or does it really mean what it says -- Hot Water when you turn the valve?

AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

Equip your home with an Automatic Gas Water Heater and your Hot Water faucets will never disappoint you. You will never find the water cold when you want it hot for bath, shampoo or shave.

IN AND AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

Just because the faculty team won the game with the Sophs, that is no sign that there will not be a next time. Within a week or so there will be another game between these two teams.

Mr. Weimar donated five dollars to the music fund of the orchestra. The gift was greatly appreciated.

How can they expect foreigners to understand our language? Here is a sample of it: "Hebe—a woman."

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN!

Don't forget the basket ball games on Friday night, the 14th of March. The first team will play Blue Island, then there will be a game with the Alumni.

We missed the weekly orchestra recital on Friday morning.

A FUTURIST POEM

Nobody deducted;
Nobody killed;
Nothing mysterious;

Nothing hilarious;
Got to write something;
That is most serious;
It can't be done; it can't be done.

Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Boone and Mrs. Morgan were high school visitors on Thursday morning.

The spelling report for the week is as follows: Book-keeping class, 99.81; History class, 99.79; Sewing class, 99.59; Study hall, 99.3; Botany class, 99.25; Freshman Latin, 99.04; Freshman English, 99.00.

A SOPHOMORE BRAINSTORM

The night was dark and gloomy.
The sun was shining bright.
The snow was falling heavily.
And it rained all day that night.
The day was dark and dreary.
The moon was shining bright.
A barefoot boy with shoes on
Stood sitting down to fight.
Everybody now knows what his last six weeks' work is worth. Report cards appeared on Tuesday.

The basket ball banquet is to be given on the twenty-fifth of March. Margaret Campbell was a visitor at the game last Friday night. They're coming, they're coming. Star players, all, by Jove; The score was twenty-three to twenty-two.

In favor of Downers Grove. Yes, 'twas ever so little. But we beat the Wheaton game. And we're going to beat Blue Island. To finish up our fame. We all went home a-smiling. For happy all were we; When we beat the Wheaton team. It filled us all with glee.

The C on Ted Curtis' sweater may stand for Chicago, which it does; Coach, which he is; Curtis, which is his name.

Sewing teacher to pupil who is busy with scissors: "What are you doing?" Pupil: "Trimming my neck."

Extract from an original theme, written by a Junior: "The foot prints of a dog were found on the floor, but he could not make head or tail of them." We wonder, are heads and tails usually made of footprints?

Don't forget to save the twenty-eighth for the Senior class play which is to be given at the Curtis Theatre. Warren Littleford was a visitor on Friday.

If you want to know what becomes of one who falls to follow the straight and narrow path, read a story, a la Edgar Allen Poe written by a member of the Junior class. We feel certain that the author of it will some day become famous for something besides being the owner of the little red car.

Pupil: "I don't think that I deserve a zero for this."
Teacher: "Neither do I, but it is the least that I can give you."

The following received the highest grades for English during the past six weeks: Seniors, Margaret Hitchcock, Thelma Roe, Grace Wheeler, and Gladys Whitney. Juniors, Alwyn Fleming. Freshmen, Ellsworth Bogart, Donald Drew, Evan Gollan. Oral Expression, Frances Bensley, Catherine Butler.

A student raised both his hands. "Why raise both?" the teacher asked. "Because," was the reply, "I have two questions to ask."

When a feller needs a friend, this parents needing one at the same time) when the aforementioned feller is the only person bringing a tablet to class, and the teacher announces a written lesson.

You ask why the night falls and never breaks? Because the dusk closes softly around it.

You say, "Why is it that day breaks and never falls?" We know that day must surely fall, for does it not break in the fall? Therefore, it must be falling when it breaks.

TWO OLD RESIDENTS BURIED LAST SUNDAY

Mrs. Naramore and Peter Leibundguth in Last Resting Place at West Side Cemetery

Two old residents of Downers Grove Mrs. L. P. Naramore and Mr. Peter Leibundguth, were laid in their last resting place at the West Side cemetery last Sunday.

PETER LEIBUNDGUTH

Peter Leibundguth, for seventy-five years a resident of Downers Grove township, died at his home on East Maple avenue, last Thursday morning and was buried at the West Side cemetery Sunday afternoon.

He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Grove Lodge, No. 824, A. F. & A. M. The G. A. R. service was held at his home, and then the body was taken to the Grove street church where Rev. Wm. Grotefeld preached the funeral sermon. The solemn Masonic rites for the departed were enacted at the grave by his brethren of Grove Lodge.

Born on October 7, 1842 in Alsace-Lorraine, he came with his parents to America in 1844, settling in Lacey.

In 1865 he was married to Miss Caroline Atzel and thirteen children, six boys and seven girls were born to them. Of the children, but one and the mother have preceded him that other shore.

Mrs. Leibundguth died July 9, 1911 and Mrs. Fred Buschmann, the daughter, a few years ago. The other children are: William and Lavina, of Chicago; Henry, of Hinsdale; Louis, Florence, George, John, Cora, Amanda, Mrs. Louis Klein, Mrs. Jacob Klein, and Mrs. Ben Weatherbee, of Downers Grove.

He enlisted in Co. E. of the 55th Illinois Infantry in February, 1864 and was mustered out in August of 1865.

At the funeral Sunday were many of his relatives and many old friends come to pay their last respects to a man who had lived an upright life. He was universally respected as an honest citizen, a kind and loving father and husband.

MRS. L. P. NARAMORE

Mrs. L. P. Naramore passed away at her home on Carpenter street, Thursday evening, March 6th; death being caused by a paralytic stroke which she received one week previous.

Mrs. Naramore, as Miss Mary H. Pinches, was born in England in 1839 and came to America with her parents when a young girl, spending her early life in New Jersey. She came west and was educated at Wheaton College and was afterward a teacher.

She was married in 1869 to Lester P. Naramore, who then resided on a farm near Lisle and in 1876 they removed to their present home in Downers Grove.

She and her husband were connected with the Congregational church from the time of its organization in 1866, and she has been an active and useful member all the years since.

Her life was devoted to promoting and fostering all the activities of the church especially the Sunday School, Christian Endeavor Society and the Ladies Aid.

She was an officer in the latter society for the last thirty years.

Mrs. Naramore was one of the founders of the Downers Grove Ladies' Library Association, which was organized in 1891, and the growth and development of the Library movement with us is largely due to her untiring and enthusiastic work in its behalf.

Her life and her energies were devoted to the good of the village and her influence in the lives of the young people whom she knew, will remain as a benediction as long as her memory lasts.

Mrs. Naramore lived to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the organization of the Congregational church and also the Golden anniversary of her wedded life which took place February 3rd.

Funeral services were held from the Congregational church last Sunday morning, Rev. Armstrong, of La-Grange, an old friend of the family officiating. Burial was made at the West Side cemetery.

Had Excuse for Eating Candy. Edith's aunt had come for dinner and brought the little girl a box of candy, but warning her not to eat any of it until after the meal, as it would spoil her appetite. Edith turned to her mother and asked what the menu for the meal was, and was informed that lamb stew had been provided. "Oh, then I guess I'll eat tandy and spoil my appetite. I don't care for lamb stew."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation of the thoughtfulness and loving sympathy shown us by the comrades of the G. A. R., the brethren of the Masons and the neighbors and friends in the last sickness and death of our father, Peter Leibundguth.

FARMERS—Help Us to Help You

Before long you are going to be very busy. To make your crop, you are going to need the service of every machine you have. There is a little lull right now. This time can be put to mighty good use.

How are your farm machines? Wouldn't it be a wise precaution to look them over carefully to assure yourself that there are no parts needing replacement now or later on?

By making a list of present or possible future requirements and giving it to us before or during Repair and Inspection Week, March 3-8, we shall be able to furnish you what you want when you want it.

If there is any item on your list we do not happen to carry in stock, we can procure it and hold it in readiness for you. It takes the delay, and consequent loss of time out of farm emergencies. The question of a day or two during the busy season on the farm is a serious one. Make up that list now and let us have it.
