

Good Garden Tools and Good Seed are essential for the success of your "VICTORY" GARDEN You'll find both here!

MERTZ & MOCHEL

HARDWARE

36 S. Main Street Telephone No. 29

Every good housewife appreciates the need for variety in the daily menu. To meet that need we carry not only all of the substantial in the grocery line but also all of the newest creations that add so much variety on the table. When in need of a variety in your meal schedule — CALL ON US.

CASH AND CARRY
North Side Grocery & Market
FRED GERWIG & SON PROPRIETORS
 IT PAYS → TRY US → IT PAYS
 PHONE 182

PERSONALS

Mr. Fred Heal who has been laid up with rheumatism is improving.

Mrs. Olive Foote of Norfolk, Va. is in town for a short time.

Mr. Herbert Hansen of Oakwood avenue spent Sunday at home.

Mrs. Emil Marchand is on the sick list.

Mrs. Howard Pfaff is nursing a severe cold.

Raymond (Schlitz) Schultz is also laid up with the flu.

Don't fail to read "A LETTER TO MOTHER" on page six it may be worth a lot to you. adv.

Rev. and Mrs. Wm. E. Grote spent part of Tuesday and Wednesday in the Village.

There are two sewing machines at the Red Cross rooms awaiting an owner.

Mrs. D. D. Escher of Manitoa, Col. is visiting her sister Mrs. Jona Foster on the farm.

Have you planned to exhibit your work at the Art Exhibition for local people?

Read about the Art Exhibition at Library Hall, March 26th, in another part of the paper.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Dickerson will move to the Gosner home on Linscott avenue which they purchased.

Mrs. M. R. Knox will entertain the Highland Avenue Home Circle on Friday afternoon.

Mr. J. M. Miller has two sons and a daughter are suffering from a very severe case of the Mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerwig visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zinn in Chicago Sunday.

100 men wanted to join our pressing club, for information see Hirsch, next to the postoffice or phone 267-W.

If you are a lover of music—be sure to read "A LETTER TO MOTHER" on page six. Read it all. It may be worth money to you. adv.

If your suit needs cleaning or pressing for the dance or for some other social function, bring it to Mazza, The Tailor, or leave word and he will call for it. adv.

Mrs. Walter J. Staats and Betty Jane have returned from the Mary Thompson Hospital in Chicago.

The Reporter staff is short the services of C. J. Winter who is one of the latest Flu victims.

Miss Emma Wander spent Monday in Chicago helping to nurse her aunt Mrs. Charles Willard, who is ill with the Flu.

Miss Marie Downer has given up her kindergarten work in Aurora for the present and will make her home here.

Edward Pischel visited with his sisters here Sunday and became acquainted with his new niece Betty Jane Staats.

We will be open for business Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings until further notice. Style Hat Shop, 25 S. Main street. 3-14-19

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Hahn, of 59 E. Parkway, made a short trip to Quincy Tuesday to attend the golden wedding of Mr. Hahn's father and mother.

Hear the wonderful tone of the Brunswick Phonograph Plays all records correctly without extra attachment. For demonstration, call G. A. Camp, phone 48-R. 3-14-2p

Mrs. Earl McCollum, Mrs. Eda McCollum and Miss Adelia Andrus attended a luncheon Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. George Grant in Rogers Park.

The Woman's Bible Class of the Baptist Sunday School held its yearly business meeting at the home of Mrs. Lee Singleterry and elected officers for the coming year.

Mrs. Alma Edwards has been very sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ray McCollum. Mr. Edwards has arrived, coming from their home in North Dakota.

Wouldn't it add joy to the life of any mother to receive a letter like the one printed on page six. Be sure to read it. adv.

Harry Chambers and G. O. Prickett attended the Illinois Trust and Savings Bank Fellowship Club banquet Tuesday evening, at DeJonghe's Hotel in Chicago.

Mr. O. H. Snyder of Oakwood ave. had the misfortune to slip on some ice on Wednesday morning and sustained a severe fall. His many friends and acquaintances hope for a speedy recovery.

Fred D. Heinke has moved his Plumbing shop to 13 S. Washington street where he is prepared to take care of the wants of his customers. adv.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cole of Streator, Illinois came to Downers Grove to attend the funeral of Mrs. Cole's aunt Mrs. Naramore.

The Congregational Lad's Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. George Hughes, 59 Saratoga ave. on Thursday, March 20th, at 1:30 P. M.

Rev. Ed. Diener is convalescing rapidly, he was able to attend church service in the Evangelical church Sunday morning, he and his wife are staying with their mother.

"Nearly all wise men are married" that is how they got their wisdom. Good dressers got their suits cleaned and pressed at Hirsch's, that's why they are good dressers. —Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hall, who have been living in Western Springs for the past year, have purchased the Maxon property on S. Lyman avenue.

W. L. Bogart is making extensive alterations in the old Hoffert house which he purchased from L. E. Singleterry two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coles, of Ottawa, Ill. and Miss Lucy Barber of Wheaton, attended the funeral of Mrs. L. P. Naramore last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Severus will move to the village April first occupying the Dickerson house on Blodgett avenue which Mr. Severus has purchased.

"The Fighting Roosevelts" is an authorized version of the life of Theodore Roosevelt. To see it is to see a series of facts more startling, more thrilling than fiction ever could be. All his share of the profits goes to the Red Cross. —Adv.

Rev. G. B. Fleming, pastor of Borton Heights church at Grand Rapids, Mich. and brother of Rev. B. H. Fleming was here on Monday and Tuesday he was a delegate to the Inter Church Conference at the Hotel LaSalle in Chicago.

Upholstering and Furniture repairing, Mattresses renovated at reasonable prices, work done by experienced men Hinsdale Upholstering Shop, Phone 635, Will call and deliver 3-14-19.

Miss Gladys Brazelton and Mr. Homer Stockton of Morocco, Indiana were married Wednesday, February 26th, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Uhlhorn on their wedding trip. Mrs. Stockton is a sister of Mrs. Uhlhorn.

Have you ever seen the fantastic wizard, Fred Stone? Even though you have never seen him we know you have heard of and read about him, and that you would like to see him. Thursday evening, March 20, home of Mrs. Rose Waples, 124 Prince at the Dicke Theatre will be your avenue.

THURSDAY, MARCH 20, 1919 —

Jesse L. Lasky Presents

Fred Stone

in

"UNDER THE TOP"

By John Emerson and Anita Loos
 Scenario by Gardner Hunting
 Directed by Donald Crisp

An ARTCRAFT Picture

How would you like to be dangling from a church steeple by the slack of your pants? You wouldn't like it a bit but Fred Stone doesn't mind it at all — he thrives on that sort of thing — and this picture is full of stunts!

Clover Comedy, "Oh! The Woman" Ford Educational Weekly

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

Paramount-Bray Pictograph and Animated Cartoons.

chance to do so. Don't fail to take advantage of that chance. —Adv.

Miss Vera Singleterry, who is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever expects to be out of quarantine by Saturday. Douglas Singleterry spent the four weeks with his aunt, on Sheridan Road.

Lieut. C. F. Bennett and mother, Mrs. Edith M. Bennett, of Chicago, and Mrs. D. I. Johnstone, son and sister from Philadelphia, were weekend guests of M. R. Knox, of Highland avenue.

Rev. R. K. Schwab and Rev. B. H. Fleming spent Monday and Tuesday in Chicago attending the Regional Conference of the Inter Church World Movement at the LaSalle Hotel. The aim of this conference is to unite all of the Protestant churches upon a common moral and social program of civic uplift.

Mrs. F. E. McCollum was one of twelve ladies who entertained at the Buena Memorial Presbyterian church in Chicago, Wednesday. They had ninety-five guests who after partaking of a dainty lunch, spent the hours in a social way and sewing for the hospital.

People will go a long way to see a really good actor but it will not be necessary to go far to see one of the greatest, Saturday, March 15. William Faversham is to play in "The Silver King" at the Dicke Theatre on that date, and he is one of the best. —Adv.

The Tahigwa Camp Fire Girls are planning to have a good time in Chicago, Saturday, March 15. Mrs. B. E. Balczynski, their guardian, will act as chaperon.

The many friends of Mr. A. C. Miskelly sympathize with him in his recent bereavements a week ago Monday he buried his brother William James Miskelly, Jr. and on Sunday he buried his father Mr. William James Miskelly, both burials were at Forest Home.

Do you enjoy laughing? If so you will have an opportunity to do so if you see "Mickey" at the Dicke Theatre March 29. "Mickey" is full of fun and frolic but there are also pathetic incidents which grip with a genuine human appeal. It is a picture that can't be beat. —Adv.

The birthday for the Chicago Camp Fire Girls will be held next Saturday afternoon March 15th, at 2:30 in the 1st. Regiment Armory corner 16th street and Michigan avenue Chicago. All Downers Grove Camp Fire Girls wishing to attend will call Mrs. ONiel

Don't forget the Lenten Tea to be given by the Woman's Guild of St. Andrew's church, Monday, March 17, from two until four o'clock at the home of Mrs. Rose Waples, 124 Prince at the Dicke Theatre will be your avenue.

The Fighting Roosevelts

SPECIAL FEATURE

Friday, March 14th

This job was to make better Americans and if this picture makes you see RED, WHITE and BLUE (and it surely will) more clearly than before, his purpose will have been achieved. This is NOT a War Picture.

CELEBRATED CHRISTY COMEDY
 MATINEE — 3:30 Admission 10 and 15c including war tax.
 EVENING — 7:30 Continuous Admission 15 and 20c including war tax.

WATCH THE ADVERTISEMENTS FOR "MICKEY," THE PICTURE YOU WILL NEVER FORGET, which will be shown at the Dicke Theatre on March 29th.

SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1919 —

WILLIAM FAVERSHAM in "The Silver King" A Paramount-Bray Special

"The Silver King," a picture of love, of life and of death, is one of the most intensely dramatic motion pictures ever screened. It will just naturally make you "sit up and take notice."

Christy Comedy, "Why Husbands Cheat" — Paramount-Holmes Travel Picture
 MATINEE — 3:30 Admission 10 and 15c including war tax.
 EVENING — 7:30 Continuous Admission 15 and 20c including war tax.

TUESDAY, MARCH 18, 1919

THOMAS H. INCE PRESENTS

Enid Bennett

"Oh Cupid, Where is Your Magic Now!"

"Happy Though Married"

A Paramount Picture

Newly Weds — Beware of Advice! A book called, "How to be Happy, Though Married," causes all the trouble. They are tickled to death with married life until Milly finds the book. Then the rumpus starts! And — it is some rumpus!

MUSTY SUFFERER COMEDY, "PURE AND SIMPLE"
 EVENING — 7:30 Continuous Admission 15 and 20c including war tax.

Foremost Stars, Superbly Directed in Clean Motion Pictures

Dicke Theatre!