EMERSON PRODUCTION
"OH YOU WOMEN!"
 A Paramount Picture
 With ERNEST TRUESD and LOUISE HUFF

The GREATEST MOMENT IN HISTORY!

NOW! The end of an old world; the beginning of a new! And woman queen of the earth! What will she do with her power? What of her place in the family? In politics? Will she keep the doughboy's job, or the doughboy's heart—or both?

In "Oh, You Women!" John Emerson and Anita Loos tackle this great problem and mould it into a film story that glows with humor and throbs with power and human sympathy. It's a tale of a soldier who, when he came home, found men in the kitchen and the women in—trousers! You'll laugh—and think—when you see "Oh You Women!"

It's a comedy from beginning to end; to miss it is more disappointing than to miss Fairbanks, Chaplin or Stone.
