

M. E. LADIES
AID ENJOYED A LUNCHEON

Mrs. J. T. Pickerill gave a luncheon Wednesday of last week at her residence, 4114 Sheridan Road, Chicago, for her mother, Mrs. H. W. Martin, a former resident of Downers Grove. Sixteen members of the Methodist Ladies Aid Society of this place of which Mrs. Martin is a member, were the guests. They were: Mesdames Herring, Littleford, Downes, Roland Clifford, Rassweiler, Heartt, Batterham, Fleming, Cox, Macreker, Cramer, Roe, Stover, Lamb and Milnes. The ladies left Downers on the 9:58 train for Chicago, thence by motor bus along the Lake Shore to Mrs. Pickerill's residence.

Shortly after their arrival they were invited to the dining room. Here two large tables were prettily decorated with individual crystal flower baskets of sweet peas, favors of fans and place cards bearing conundrums which each guest read and answered.

A delicious repast was then served, to which the ladies did full justice, their usually good appetites whetted by their trip and the Lake breeze.

After the luncheon the guests were asked to group themselves on the lawn, and with the usual admonition to "look pleasant" a few snapshots were taken, with what results, time will tell.

During the afternoon music was interspersed with visiting. Vocal solos were rendered by Mrs. Fleming, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Pickerill, piano numbers by Mrs. Stowell. Late in the afternoon the guests prepared for their departure, before leaving Mrs. Fleming, appointed spokesman by the ladies, voiced in a few appropriate words, their appreciation to the hostess and her assistants, for the delightful day afforded them.

Mrs. Pickerill was assisted by her sister, Mrs. H. S. Norton of Gary, Ind. Mrs. Blanche Stowell and Mrs. Winnie Jones of Chicago.

"THE MONEY CORRAL"

At the Dicke Theatre July 4th.

A big rodeo is being held at Fraley Point, Montana—a gathering of the clans, the wild riders, crack-shots, ropers, broncho busters, Indians, punchers and others—revival of the good old days. Lem Beeson, a puncher of real mettle, is anxious to get there, but his boss refuses. Lem goes anyway, to take part in a shooting contest, held in connection with the other events.

Carl Bruler is confidential manager of the Collins Trust Co. He informs Mr. Collins on his return with Lem, that powerful rival interests are back of the vault attacks. Certain papers they are after, if obtained by them, will wreck the Collins Trust Company.

Lem takes the job of guarding the vaults and is warned away in a mysterious note. Bruler, informed of the threat, arranges a frame-up so that Lem will be led to a notorious cafe on a false clue. The puncher licks the gang and returns.

A party is in progress at the Collins' home and Janet, to make Lem the butt of the evening, drags him to the dance floor. His embarrassment is pitiful, so much so, that Rose aids him to escape. Furious at being balked, Janet upbraids Rose savagely, and she decides to leave. She meets Lem and tells him. He tells her he is also sick of this life and is going back to the mesas of the West. They are almost confessing their mutual love, when Janet appears, and tells Lem her father wishes to see him. Lem says he is going to quit, but agrees to come to the offices in the morning.

The papers of great value are intrusted to Bruler, who locks them in the vault. The latter laughs at Lem for quitting. The puncher says nothing. There is a new watchman that night.

The attack is staged. The watchman is overpowered, but when the crooks get busy, they find someone who can shoot the center out of a dime in mid-air, waiting for them. When the police come and open the vault, they find Lem with Bruler a prisoner, and two crooks, one wounded and the other dead.

Collins offers Lem anything he wishes; he asks for Rose, and gets her. Janet apologizes, and the couple receive the finest ranch in Montana as a gift from the railroad president.

CALL FOR EX-SERVICE MEN'S MEETING JULY 7

There will be a meeting of all men who were in the service of the United States, on Monday evening, July 7, at 7:30 o'clock at the G. A. R. Hall for the purpose of taking steps to organize a post of the American Legion.

Walter J. Staats
L. M. Puffer
Robert MacDougall
Temporary Committee.

"WITH THE COLORS" From Du Page County

You probably know personally at least 150 boys from Downers Grove and Du Page County who donned the uniform of the army, the navy or the marine corps, for service with Uncle Sam during the World War.

Wouldn't it be simply great to have a picture of each one of them and their record of service? "It certainly would," you say.

Well, this is now possible as C. H. Staats is going to issue in the near future a book containing just that information. A picture of every boy from Du Page County and his record of service.

He is now taking orders for the book which will be ready soon. The price is very reasonable, $7.50 per volume, considering the large expense of gathering data, making the cuts, and printing and distributing.

Every resident of the County will want a copy of this book showing who was who during the trying days of 1917-18 and everyone will have a chance to purchase one.

At the bottom of this adv. will be found a coupon, cut this out, fill it in, and attach check for $2.50, the first payment. The balance, $5.00 will not be required until the book is delivered.

There will only be one edition of this book printed and this edition will be limited in number so first to order will be sure of securing a copy.

"WITH THE COLORS FROM DU PAGE COUNTY" will be bound in leather and will contain besides the pictures of the boys departments, title pages in color by one of the foremost artists of America. It will have full page pictures of Wilson, Foch and Pershing and will contain a detail map (showing the smallest of villages) of France and the battlefronts. This map shows all railroads, strategic roads, canals, and is one of the best published.

Mr. Staats has at his office, 37 North Main Street, Downers Grove, a dummy showing how the completed book will look and sample pages from other Honor Rolls showing plates and records of service. You are invited to come to the office and look these over before leaving your order.

Remember the edition of this book is limited so ORDER EARLY. It will be one of the best souvenirs of the war and will be treasured for generations.

ORDER COUPON

Downers Grove, Ill., .....1919

C. H. STAATS,
DOWNERS GROVE, ILL.

Received of .....

$2.50..... as part payment of 1....copy.... of "WITH THE COLORS FROM DU PAGE COUNTY," balance $5.00..... to be paid on delivery of book.

C. H. STAATS, PUBLISHER.

If you wish two or more copies of this wonderful book change the above figures to correspond with your order.