There will be a Sunday School session next Sunday morning at 10 o'clock but no church services either morning or evening.

The community was saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. A. Rander, Wednesday, June 25th. It will be remembered that Rev. Rander preached here a few years ago. The deceased leaves to mourn her early death besides her husband, two little girls, Ruth and Alice, her father and three brothers. Interment was made in the Pontiac cemetery last Saturday afternoon.

The Congregational Philathea Class will hold a lawn party Friday evening, July 11th, at the home of Misses Elizabeth and Harriet Strong, 192 E. Maple Avenue. The ladies will entertain their husbands and gentlemen friends.

A dozen or more girls from the Auditing Department of the Surface Lines, Chicago, were entertained at the Morton home last week. They spent the morning eating cherries, swinging and taking pictures. After a picnic dinner on the lawn they drove to Clarendon Hills to pick daisies.

We heard about a man who has stored 26,000 bottles of various liquors in his basement. Don't crowd, we have forgotten his name and address. And then again, if we did know, we would probably keep the information to ourselves as it is going to be a long dry spell if we don't get something to drink, as the Governor of North Carolina said to the Governor of South Carolina, or words to that same effect.

Sgt. Paul D. Paine, son of H. S. Paine, has just returned from twenty months service in the A. E. F., 639th Aero Squadron. He will make his home for the present with his father, becoming manager of the Chicago Magic Co., a very thriving Mail Order house, shipping goods to every country on the globe, where mail or express will reach. "THE BUSHER"

At the Dicke Theatre Saturday, July 5th. Ben Harding is a hired man in the country with an exceptionally fine control of his throwing arm. He sustains the baseball reputation of Brownville, but to him the most important thing in life is the admiration of Mazie, the village belle.

When Ben leaves he tells Mazie that as soon as he wins a small fortune he will come back for her. But the city and an adventuress, Goldie by name, snatches the chest of the young country boy so much that Steve Brady believes it time to knock out his conceit. On a holiday, most of Brownville comes to the city to see Ben and the rest of the Blue Sox win. In the pitcher's box, Ben loses his nerve and after he "passes" a few men, Brady pulls him out and tells him he is through. Of course, Goldie throws him down.

Brownville is in for the championship game of the bush league and at the beginning of the ninth inning, the team is on the verge of ignominious defeat. The Deacon urges Harding to go in and pitch, but Ben holds to his oath of Abstinence. Then the Deacon tells him he has to go in as Mazie's brother has taken all the money with which they intended to pay off the mortgage on her home, and bet it on Brownville.

So Harding enters once more the pitcher's box and saves for Brownville the game and for Mazie the home. Then he is told that his discharge from the professional team was merely a matter of discipline because he was too cheery and that he was wanted back again. So Ben agrees to go back again, but never again does he forget the faithfulness and devotion of Mazie.

A Hearty Laugh. He who has a hearty laugh in a company, a laugh which leaves a sweet remembrance afterward, has conferred no small boon.—Lyman Abbott.
