Aptitude Counts. Experienced men are not always the ones with executive ability; they often get into a rut.

His Explanation. Vincent was afraid of chickens, and one day as he was going to the neighbor's he hesitated before a path where a few chickens were picking away at the cinders.

"The End of a Perfect Day." Do not let the man who says, "This is the year when I am going to show you how to farm it," think that he will have all clear sailing.

Uncle Eben. "Tape for de best," said Uncle Eben, "but don't be greedy an' try to grab it all for yosef."

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN THE REPORTER

From the issue of August 5, 1897. Pastor Green and Professor Rassweiler rode to Wheaton and back on their "bikes" last Saturday.

J. H. Griffiths and Hugh Morgan attended the picnic of the Welch benevolent society of Chicago at Burlington Park last Friday.

A party consisting of Messrs and Mesdames H. F. Parke, D. K. Craig, Fred Scofield and Eugene Reed of Chicago, and Misses Mabel Graves and Mamie Robinson and Samuel Parke, went to the Jones farm east of Fullersburg for a days picnic.

Frank Sutherland and family of Chicago, have moved into Philip Binder's residence, corner Curtiss and Carpenter sts.

Frank F. Foster and family have moved out from Chicago and are occupying one of the Farrar cottages on Carpenter St.

Du Page County's new courthouse at Wheaton, Ill., was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies last Saturday before thousands of people.

"A VERY GOOD YOUNG MAN"

At Dicke Theatre, Tuesday Aug. 12. LeRoy Sylvester, a young man with the cleanest of habits and morals, is in love with Ruth Douglas.

Ruth is deeply impressed by this argument and when LeRoy calls with an engagement ring, she refuses him, telling him he is too good to be true.

Viva has just settled a breach of promise suit with Mrs. Love, the mother of Adrian Love whom she loves, having accepted some bonds in settlement.

Mrs. Van Zant, a wealthy guest, reports the loss of her jewels and Blood, the house detective, suspects LeRoy as being the thief.

When they arrive, LeRoy is happy in the thought that he can present all his crimes to Ruth.

LeRoy hopelessly turns to Ruth and tells her that as a thief, gambler, drunkard and flirt he is a miserable failure, but asks if she will take him in spite of this handicap.

Learning to Be Miserable. Blessings on the little folks that have not yet learned to be miserable! Smiles and bright faces are their natural meat and drink.

Intelligence. Sense never fails to give them that have it words enough to make them understood.—William Penn.

ADDISON TWP. MAN CONSTITUTION CANDIDATE

William H. O'Beirne is a candidate for delegate to the State Constitutional Convention from this senatorial district.

Mr. O'Beirne looms up as the man who made Salt Creek famous by laying out a big subdivision along that stream in Addison township, when that section of DuPage county was chiefly known as about the most unknown section of the county. The subdivision has prospered; Bensenville is now booming, and Itasca, a beautiful village, is getting on the map, since then. And that section of Du Page county is likely to be heard of more and more in the future.—When more Progressive.

United States Right in Panama. The United States did not acquire by the Isthmian canal convention of November 18, 1903, any title to territory in the republic of Panama, but merely a perpetual right of occupation, use and control of and over a zone of land ten miles in width. For this privilege it paid to the republic of Panama the sum of $10,000,000 and undertook to pay the sum of $250,000 annually so long as such occupancy continued, such payments beginning on February 28, 1913.

Nicaraguan Burial Custom. Among the Indians of eastern Nicaragua when a person dies the body is buried at once and a little house is built over the grave in which the soul can live for the time being. A field of sweet manioc is planted. In about eight months' time the roots are ready for use, so a general invitation to a great San or Sixero dance is sent out. A cotton string is stretched over the tree tops from the spirit house over the grave to the dancing place, where the end of it hangs down into a great bowl of mishla.

Arctic Nights. Viewed solely as a matter of optics, the arctic night is as dark as any night. Explorers in high latitudes say, however, that there are many alleviations of the obscurity. The stars flash brightly, the moon comes along in a regular succession of phases, the moon surface reflects the gloom under conditions of the utmost absence of light, and the aurora borealis at the best kind of illumination, expresses all those that their men pass the winter night without much obscurity if only there are means of amusement.
