

ARGUMENTS FOR AND AGAINST SUNDAY BASEBALL

(Continued from page 2)

sentiment of Christian people, and a due regard for the Divine Will, demand that Sunday labor in the Army and Navy be reduced to the measure of strict necessity.

Finally, Jesus said, "It is lawful to do good on the Sabbath." If you think you will be doing good to this village of homes by voting for Sunday baseball, do so.

Thomas John Owens.

Forest Park, Ill., Aug. 3, 1919.

Editor of The Reporter:

I wish to correct a statement of the Rev. Fleming made in last week's Reporter. He states that on account of Sunday Baseball and Sunday Racing the name of "Harlem" became so odious that the business men and people in a desperate effort to escape their bad reputation had to change the name to Forest Park.

The fact of the matter is that the name would still be Harlem if the U. S. Government had not refused to establish a postoffice there unless they changed the name on account of already having established a post office by that name in this state.

That, and that only, is the cause of the change of name to Forest Park.

Yours truly, Fred Holz.

The Merit of a Book.

The crowning merit of a book must always be its practical usefulness. If it makes you more cheerful, or more amiable, or more pitiful, or more appreciative of what is beautiful, or more resolute to follow what is good and noble, then the highest purpose of a book is gained.

Truth Everlasting.

The truth was never born, and it will never die. It is as old as the universe, and while the universe endures the fact that love is life and hate is death will endure along with it.

Musings of Martha.

These wonderful business women who hear so much about may be all right, but I'd like to see one of 'em tackle the job of gettin' up in the mornin' an' gettin' breakfast for ten before daylight.

Great Power of Hope.

Free labor has the inspiration of hope; pure slavery has no hope. The power of hope upon human exertion and happiness is wonderful.

Does This Hit You?

"Some men," said Uncle Eben, "goes fishin' not so much for de sake of de fish as for de chance to loaf without bein' noticed."

Companionship.

Nature loves nothing solitary, and always reaches out to something, as a support, which ever in the sincerest friend is most delightful.—Cicero.

Optimistic Thought.

Talkative persons are like barrels; the less there is in them the more noise they make.

Daily Thought.

Wisdom provides things necessary, not superfluous.—Solon.

To Wait Patiently.

To wait patiently men must work cheerfully.—Samuel Smiles.

MICKIE SAYS

SUITABLE HOUSE FOR FARM POULTRY FLOCK

Ventilation Is Essential to Health of Fowls.

Shutter Should Be So Constructed That There Will Be No Draft in Cold Weather—Glass Front Is Quite Helpful.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The back and sides of the poultry house should be absolutely tight in order to prevent drafts which may cause colds in the flock. This leaves only the front of the house of muslin construction or entirely open.

An Open-Front Poultry House Keeps Hens Healthy.

be constructed so that there will be no draft in cold weather. The front of the house should be so high that the windows or openings will allow the sun to shine well back into the interior during the winter.

A large amount of glass in the front of the house makes it warm during the day but cold at night, as glass radiates heat very rapidly.

Some glass, however, is helpful in providing light when the curtains are closed. Some ventilation should be given in a poultry house even in the coldest night.

A large amount of glass in the front of the house makes it warm during the day but cold at night, as glass radiates heat very rapidly.

Some glass, however, is helpful in providing light when the curtains are closed. Some ventilation should be given in a poultry house even in the coldest night.

MONEY MADE WITH CHICKENS

Poultry Clubs Organized by Department of Agriculture Are Popular in North and South.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Old Madam Hen is proving a veritable fairy godmother to many girls in supplying them with money for comforts and luxuries. Poultry clubs organized by the department of agriculture and the state colleges are popular with the girls in both the North and the South.

OLD MEMBERS REJOIN CLUBS

Boys in Florida Buying Good Stock and Willing to Borrow Money to Pay for It.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Good work accomplished by the boys' clubs of De Soto county, Fla., last year encouraged practically all of the old members and many other boys to join the clubs this year.

PRODUCT OF SMALL FLOCKS

Annual Average Is Commonly Estimated at Ten Dozen Eggs Per Hen If Given Care.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The ordinary average annual production of small flocks of hens given good care is commonly estimated at ten dozen eggs per hen.

BIG CORN CONTEST IS NOW ORGANIZED

Sixty-Five Counties in Indiana Have Been Enrolled.

Demonstration to Show Each Community How Proper Methods of Planting, Cultivation, Etc., Increase Yield of Crop.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Sixty-five Indiana counties have organized for the five-acre crop-growing contest, the biggest event of the kind held by any state, and indications are for the largest enrollment ever obtained.

The contest this year is arranged also as a demonstration to show each community how proper methods of planting, cultivation, fertilizing and other factors increase the yield.

Well-Cultivated Corn Field, Free of Weeds—Food, Not Waste, Produced on This Land.

corn-growers' association and agree to keep a record of the cost of production of the crop on one of his fields from which the five-acre plot is later selected.

The association will give a bronze medal to each person producing 75 to 85 bushels of corn to the acre, silver medals to those producing 85 to 100 bushels, and gold medals to those growing 100 bushels or more.

Each county also offers a minimum prize of $25 or its equivalent in prizes to be divided in the county, 70 per cent being given on the basis of yield and 30 per cent on the basis of cost of production.

ADHERE TO FEED STANDARDS

Necessary That Feeder Exercise Good Judgment and Intelligent Observation.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Good judgment and intelligent observation on the part of the feeder are necessary in the application of feeding standards, as the calculation of economical rations is not merely a matter of applied mathematics.

BEST SELECTION OF PULLETS

Buyers Should Choose Fowls of Same Breed and Variety as Shown by Size and Color.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

As far as possible the buyer should select pullets of the same breed and variety as shown by the size, color of plumage, and form of comb.

FEED YOUNG PIGS PROPERLY

Trough Should Be Constructed So That Each Little Pig Gets His Full Share.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Young pigs should be given their feed in such a manner that each individual pig gets its share.

Cheery Kitchen. Women who perform their household work unaided should see to it that the kitchen is made as cheery and convenient as possible.

Cranks and Bankings.

The national banking law was passed in the United States February 25, 1863. The first bank organized to do business was the First National Bank of Philadelphia.

A Reminder.

Let us all each day, in every and all of our actions and endeavors, practice truth and altruism, the eternal enemies of hypocrisy and selfishness.

How to Get Cook.

The lady of the house lacked a cook, and said she would have a look at the advertisements. Her husband noticed that she was searching through the notices of deaths.

The Other Man.

An old Irish coachman had just finished a wet and cold drive. "Now, Pat," said the young lady he had driven, "drink this glass of toddy, and you'll feel like another man."

Compressed Atmosphere.

If the atmosphere of the earth were compressed to the density of water, it would occupy a space of 1,208,000 cubic miles.

Lie Takes Many Shapes.

It is not only the tongue that can speak falsehoods. A turn of the eye or a shake of the head may be as much of a lie as any ever spoken.

Key a Prolific Writer.

Francis Scott Key, the author of "The Star-Spangled Banner," wrote quite a number of poems, which were collected and published in book form in 1857.

Call for Reformation. When pinching the dollar leaves a deep mark on the heart of its owner, doesn't it seem as if he would let up? But few of us have anything to brag of in that line.

"Hail Columbia."

The music of "Hail Columbia" was originally written as a march—"The President's March"—and is said to have been first played in Washington's presence in the old John Street theater, New York, at the time of his inauguration.

Aptitude for Details.

"You know Johnson—great fellow for detail." "He is that! He's the sort of chap who would go and get married and be able afterward to tell you whether it was Mendelssohn, Lohengrin, or Tannhauser they played during the ceremony!"

Beneath the Husk.

The toughest nut any man ever tried to crack is a selfish heart. It takes a giant hammer, swung by superhuman power to do that.

Few Have College Education.

Just two-thirds of the presidents of the United States have been college men. Though more numerous than ever before, college graduates even now constitute less than 1 per cent of the population.

Wrecking a Genius.

Many a man with a great idea has to be out of a job and desperate before he will push it. A comfortable salary has wrecked much genius.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Washing Enamel. All dirty marks on white enamel should be rubbed with a piece of flannel moistened with methylated spirit. Then wash the enamel with warm soapy water, dry and rub with a flannel sprinkled with whiting.

Rights of Others Sacred.

Our own rights we may often be at liberty to waive. The rights of others are another matter. As far as they are in our keeping, we are bound to protect. We may not be generous with other people's property.

Jade Imitations.

Chinese jade is so successfully imitated by manufacturers in Europe that the artificial frequently is mistaken by experts for the genuine.

The Kiss a Religious Observance.

Judas betrayed the Messiah with a kiss. "Greet ye one another with a holy kiss," wrote Paul to the Corinthians, and even to this day some of the Protestants still retain the kiss as part of the service of the Lord's Supper.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "SUNNYSIDE" DICKE THEATRE SATURDAY AUGUST 9th

Bell System advertisement with logo and text: Sometimes a telephone user will guess at a number rather than take the trouble to hunt for the telephone directory...

Going To Build? advertisement with illustrations of buildings and a large text box.

NOW'S THE TIME! advertisement for Potter Mfg. & Lumber Co. listing various building materials and services.

Potter Mfg. & Lumber Co. advertisement with contact information: TELEPHONE ONE FIVE, Prompt Service, Best Quality, Right Prices.