

"HARD-BOILED" SMITH'S "HIGHER-UPS"

Brig. Gen. W. W. Hartz, former commander of American troops in the Paris district, and Maj. Gen. F. S. Strong of the 10th division are two army officers who have been directly charged with responsibility for A. E. F. prison conditions which permitted brutal and inhumane treatment of Yank soldiers. Louis F. H. "Hard-boiled" Smith now serving an 18 month sentence is known to every soldier as the "captain who ruled over the camp."

Three Champs!!

Jack, Doug and Charley No matter how prejudiced one might be it must be admitted that three real champs posed for this picture. It was taken when the new heavyweight champion Jack Dempsey went to the movie studio to talk over his part in a new picture. It's Dempsey on top, supported by Douglas Fairbanks and both held aloft by that strong man Charley Chaplin. And by the way—that famous Fairbanks smile now has a rival. Note that "molar expose" on the Dempsey face. Boyish—typical American and likable.

"THE LOVE BURGLAR"
At Dicke Theatre, Thursday, Aug. 21. David Strong, a society idler, is mistaken for Dave Dorgan, alias the Colt Kid, while the former is hunting for his erring brother in one of the tuff saloons of the east side. He saves Joan Gray, apparently a slum siren, from "Coast-to-Coast" Taylor who is making her rob wealthy patrons of the dive, by a fake marriage, and finally falls in love with her. Strong's sister is about to be married and he volunteers to go alone and steal the wedding presents. The real Colt Kid makes his appearance and Taylor, madened by Joan desertation of him notifies the police. The final scenes show Joan fighting the Colt Kid and her rescue by Strong.

MOTHER'S SCHOOL HOURS START FIRST

Mother's school days begin many hours ahead of Mary Jane for it is mother's nimble fingers that shape stitch and construct those dainty neat school frocks and this must necessarily be done in spare moments before the school bell sounds in September. Serge and Scotch plaids are the usual materials for school frocks. These two materials are combined with those dainty round collars—just like sister wears and much all bodied.

WANAMAKER AT 81

Almost everyone knows the story of how John Wanamaker merchant prince of America started his great store from the wheels of a push cart about the streets of Philadelphia. Here is the great merchant—at the age of 81 which birthday he has just celebrated.

IN THE NEWS OF THE DAY—When the army sells food at cost. Millions have soldier pay plea. Nation watches Iowa truck express.

Battling Mr. High Cost of Living has developed some interesting and effective action all over the land. These late news pictures show results. The line of waiting market baskets shows how people of Alton lined up to buy at the sale of Army food which the government has been distributing at cost in cities all over the nation. The big pile of bundles on the steps of the capital at Washington is of the 6,100,000 petitions for six months pay for soldiers, sailors and marines. Homer Sheridan is presenting them to Gen. A. Sanborn, secretary of the war.

The truck load of poultry shows how the nation is attempting to profit by the example of Iowa's motor express lines. Official recommendation has been made in New York that all army motor trucks be turned to the Postoffice department and put to work carrying perishable foods direct from the country to the city consumer, eliminating the producer's grab.
