"YES, YOU WOULD"

If you owned a handsome i building designed and built for a) . pose which you had specified to the builder-would you try to use it for that purpose? "YES, YOU WOULD." If you had a wonderful bookcase, with smple shelves, would you try to fill those shelves with useful and interesting books? "YES, YOU WOULD." If your friends from other towns admired that building and you delighted to hear words of praise-would you try to keep that building in repair, its walls clean and its trim painted? "YES, YOU WOULD."

As a matter of fact you own such a building and such a bookcase and have listened repeatedly to the words of praise. True the title to the property in question is not in your individual name but belongs to all the citizens of the village.

Doubtless you are curious to know what this property is and where. which you own and yet do not own, so, in order to relieve the suspense, if you have not already guessed, the building in question is The Downers Grove Free Public Library at Curtiss street and Forest avenue. And further its shelves need replenishing, its walls need painting, it needs repair and all those things are the business of the individual and collective owners, the citizens of Downers Grove. paint and trimmings are the least important of the needs. The big thing is books, and then more books. Boys' books, girls' books, young peoples' books, books for areference books, scientific point. books, books, books. A library trying to get along without books is as reasonable as a human trying to get along with bloodless veins,

A few well chosen questions procounded to any member of the brary board will acquaint you with the needs of the library in greater de-

"Expect Great Things from God, Attempt Great Things for God"

The above was adopted last Sunday as the motto of the First Congregational Church in its endeavor to help bring God's Kingdom to pass in this community. It means a lot if you stop to think about it.

Attendance last Sunday showed an increase over recent averages for the Bible School of 35 per cent and for the Church service of 45 per cent. That's good work. Let's keep it up.

Both Men and Women will find live classes with interesting studies and snappy discussions and the glad hand in evidence at 10:00 A. M. every Sunday.
