Where You See The BIGGEST and The BEST!

Friday, November 7th
Constance Talmadge
in
"A Temperamental Wife"

"ME OR STENO?" WIFE ASKS—"STENO," HUBBY SAYS.
When called upon to choose between his devoted but jealous wife and his efficient stenographer, Senator Newton of Nevada quickly selects the latter. It wasn't because he didn't love his wife but because he wanted to teach her a lesson. Miss Talmadge makes a mighty fine "jealous wife." Don't fail to see her.

ALSO
Harold Lloyd Comedy—"Young Mr. Jazz."

"FAITH"

The story of the faith of two women and the courage of one man—"Faith" is one of the few Human Documents of the screen. There is no question but that "Faith" is a superlative picture. While it may not possess the sensational qualities of certain features, it is one of those human narratives that digs under the skin with an exceedingly delightful sensation.
