

Saturday, November 22nd

GREATEST THRILLER EVER FILMED!

Jesse L. Lasky Presents

HOUDINI in THE GRIM GAME

BY ARTHUR B. REEVE AND JOHN W. GRAY DIRECTED BY IRVIN WILLAT

A Paramount Aircraft Picture

A picture of astounding sensations! Here's one:—Something went wrong when the hero, swinging by a rope, dropped from a speeding airplane to the plane of his foe, 3,000 feet in the air. In the third airplane, racing alongside, was the cameraman, grinding away, making a "close-up" of what was expected to be the thrill of thrills. Something went wrong! the camera caught for the first and probably for the last time a thrill greater than any of which the actors had ever dreamed. As the hero swung from the upper airplane, a gust of wind drove up the lower machine. They crashed. Propellers locked, and the two planes, the two pilots and the man swinging helplessly from the rope whirled over and over—a tangled mass of men and machinery—3,000 feet to the earth. And the motion picture camera, in the third plane, caught it all.

No trick photography. No fake. It's all there in the film; the great airplane accident at Los Angeles as reported by the Associated Press throughout the country. Yet this is only one of the many miraculous feats in this big Houdini master-drama of romance, mystery and daredevil adventure. COME!

MACK SENNETT TWO- REEL COMEDY

"BACK TO THE KITCHEN"

INTERNATIONAL NEWS

Tuesday, November 25th

Earl Williams

IN

"THE WOLF"

Did you ever hear of the Ojibway Indians up in the Nippissing country? See Earle Williams in "The Wolf."

Does civilization have higher morals than the standard of the Indian tribes? See "The Wolf," Vitagraph's superfilm.

Have you heard about the scenery around Lake Tahoe, in California? See Vitagraph's superfilm, "The Wolf."

Did you ever see a real knife fight on the screen? See Earle Williams in "The Wolf."

Do you think a matinee idol can play the part of a French-Canadian trapper? See Earle Williams in "The Wolf."

What would you do if you found a scoundrel arranging to elope with the girl you loved? See Vitagraph's new superfilm, "The Wolf."

How does a trapper guide his canoe through the rapids? See Earle Williams in "The Wolf."

Has a Scotchman more race pride than other men? See "The Wolf," Vitagraph's new superfilm.

Can a man ever hide a great sin against humanity, even in the trackless forests? See Earle Williams in "The Wolf."

ALSO

GALE HENRY TWO REEL COMEDY

Curtiss Theatre

The Home of Paramount Pictures

Thursday, Nov., 27th

Big Special Holiday Show

ALL STAR CAST

in Zane Grey's most Powerful Picture

"DESERT GOLD"

Ever hear of cholla cactus?

No, it's not the name of a new breakfast food or an ice cream sundae.

It's a torture—a method devised by Indians and Mexicans for putting an end to malefactors many years ago and still being practiced in remote corners of the West.

This horrible punishment is meted out to a U. S. army captain for rescuing a beautiful American girl from the clutches of a bandit chief. When a bare inch is all that stands between the gallant soldier and eternity a vision of loveliness, known as "The Shower of Gold," appears, gun in hand, and thwarts his would-be murderers.

ALSO

Four Acts of Vaudeville

Wednesday, November 26th

JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

Robert Warwick

IN MIZZOURA

A Paramount Aircraft Picture

Sweethearts—once. But now he was just a plain country sheriff and the girl, with her "education," had risen quite beyond him. How different he was from the "cultured gentlemen" who had won away her love!

But when her fine lover proved to be a robber and a murderer, and a yelling mob called for his life, then she learned of the stuff that makes a man.

Augustus Thomas' great stage play, made into a picture of tremendous dramatic power and appeal to the heart. Eileen Percy, Robert Cain, Monte Blue and Noah Beery in the big supporting cast. Don't miss it!

BURTON HOLMES TRAVELOGUE AND

SKINNY COMEDY

Curtiss Theatre