At the present time there are many subjects that interest the people, they Subject: "The Chirstmas Message are discussed by the masses who think they know the cause, and some of them have a remedy.

In our village we have a splendid Public Library; a beautiful building built out of sweat and unsanitary coniitions of the workers and toilers of Pittsburg and Youngstown nad other iron producing centers. The system that caused it to be built has been perpetrated in its management, and now we have the sad spectacle of it: demanding five thousand dollars to keep this system in power. To one who has spent years in political and sinner to recognize Him as Savior, social research it looks as though the Watch next week's paper for further people are beginning to THINK when such demands are met by the paltry sum of three hundred dollars.
