TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN THE REPORTER

From the issue of December 30th, 1897.
 The Baptist Young People's Union have elected the following officers for 1898: president, W. H. Moor; vice-president, F. B. Towsley; secretary Miss Pearl Kimball; treasurer, F. Elmer Escher.

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church last week Wednesday evening, F. C. Lacey and W. C. Bartle were elected deacons; Mrs. L. P. Naramore and I. P. Blodgett, trustees; Miss A. U. Elliott, clerk; John Graves, auditor; and Miss Paul and Mrs. D. R. Graham, musical committee.

Miss Mattie Crouse, who formerly resided in Downers Grove, was married at Indianapolis, December 22, to Mr. John Morlan of Newcastle, Ind. Miss Crouse is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Worley.

The Board of Supervisors last week turned down the petition presented by Edward Riedy and Henry Grunhaus to open a saloon at Lisle. It was signed by 264 of the 516 voters at the last election.

The Chicago Telephone Company have shipped the poles and material for the construction of the local telephone line and a force of men will soon be at work.

The death of William Riddler occurred Saturday, December 25, at the residence of his niece, Mrs. Luther C. Farrar on Carpenter street.

The death of Maria C. Elliott occurred at the family residence on Washington street at 2:30 o'clock Friday morning, December 24th, from heart failure.

The explosion of a gasoline stove made things lively for E. Wooten's family Saturday morning. No damage was done.

Self-Portrait.
 To take a photograph of oneself it is necessary to have the camera very firmly placed either on a tripod or a table so that it would not move during exposure. A length of thin, strong string should be attached to the shutter trigger. The string should be led down to the floor level, passed under the lower rail of a heavy chair, along the floor, under your boot (between the heel and sole), and held in the hand behind the back. If the string runs freely a slight pull should release the shutter and make the exposure. If it does not, pick the camera up and start again.

CHINESE WOMEN STUDY HEALTH

Three Doctors Return From America to Begin Active Health Campaign Among Women.

ALL AGENCIES COMBINE.
 American Y. W. C. A. Will Support Women's Part of Chinese Health Campaign as Part of World Service Program.

As a result of the Y. W. C. A. International Conference of Women Physicians, held during September and October, Chinese women are to have a far-reaching health program.

MISS IDA KAHN URGES CHINESE WOMEN TO WORK.

conference, are to take an active part in promoting this health program for women which will be the share of the Y. W. C. A. in the big health movement in China.

The funds for establishing these health centers; for demonstrations of how to care for babies, for health lectures for the women, for babies' dispensaries and for a general educational campaign, will be raised by the American Y. W. C. A. as part of its program of world service for women and girls in 1920.

Dr. Ida Kahn, in a recent appeal to modern Chinese women said, "Let our women of education in Peking and elsewhere gather themselves together to work for the schools, Red Cross and Y. W. C. A. and everything else which bespeaks the betterment of the country, instead of staying at home to play poker and 'sparrow,' and going out to attend endless dinners, tea parties and dances."

"Let us rally our forces and help the ship of state to move safely. One person cannot accomplish much, but one or two hundred millions of women can work wonders. Let us go back to a more Spartan-like simplicity of living and let us build up social service until every city in China is sanitary, every section of the town has its proper schools, and every child, whether boy or girl, is sent to such schools. True social service brings democracy to its train, and we who are citizens of a new republic can help to make it truly great by preaching and living democracy all the time. Why not learn to do our household duties, deeming it effeminate to be waited upon by maid and slave girls all the time?"

"The status of women in China while leaving much to be desired, still is quite hopeful when we consider that she is just emerging into the atmosphere of the nations. Our men can depend upon us to bear the burdens of the day, for nowhere is there a more industrious, diligent and persevering womanhood than in China."

Dr. Kahn is lecturing in this country on the needs of her fellow country women, in the interests of the Y. W. C. A. Educational Campaign which plans to acquaint people with all phases of Y. W. C. A. work in the United States, South America, China, Japan, India and Europe. This educational campaign will be followed by an active effort to raise the $3,000,000 needed for service for women through out the world.

CHINESE WOMEN HAVE FINANCIAL ABILITY

They Carried Y. W. C. A. Campaign "Over the Top."
 Much has been said about the honesty and skill of the Chinese business man. The world has neglected to mention the financial ability of Chinese women. They proved this ability in the last financial campaign of the Y. W. C. A. in Tientsin.

Ordinarily three weeks are allowed in which to raise the budget by subscription after the finance committee has decided upon the sum necessary to carry on the work of the coming year. The Tientsin campaign was carried on entirely by Chinese women and broke all records by going over the top in ten days with a large surplus over the budget.

NEWSY NOTES FROM LISLE AND BELMONT

Mr. and Mrs. W. Plumb entertained Mr. D. Quince of Vandalia, Mrs. Richter, Albert and Ethel Raynor, Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell of Downers Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Porter and Rosella, for Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Plumb spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Plumb.

Mr. and Mrs. George Raynor spent Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Thoman and family.

The Misses Esther Tholin, Esther Penner Ruby Iehl and Rosella Porter entertained on Friday evening several Northwestern College students who could not go to their homes for Christmas. Dinner was served in the church parlors. After they had eaten of the good things provided, games were played and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. James Barnacle is on the sick list this week with a severe cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lacey entertained Mrs. A. Lacey and Romano, Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Wheaton, for Christmas dinner.

NEED NOT HAVE HESITATED

Enraptured Maiden Was Eager for Question Hovering on the Lips of Fond Lover.
 The dance was over, and now, as Ruppfield tenderly helped her on with her wraps the question that had been burning through her brain all the evening reached fever heat.

"Would his lips ask her what his handsome dark eyes had seemed to be asking lately?"
 She hoped so. She prayed so. She and Ruppfield had known each other for four months now, and never had such a splendid opportunity for the question offered itself.

He gulped. She trembled with anticipation. Why was the poor boy so shy? Did he think for a moment she could possibly refuse him? Dear, foolish boy.

"Miss Enriele—Helen—" he stammered. "I—will you—would you—"
 "Yes, Ruppfield," she encouraged with eager tenderness.

"Would you care to go somewhere for a bite to eat?" he finished breathlessly.

He had actually asked it! Helen beamed gloriously and accepted with becoming reluctance and in the brightly lighted cafe, amidst the jingles and soft music, her bite consisted of a lobster salad a turkey sandwich, four glasses of fruit punch and two sundaes of ice cream.—Indianapolis Star.

HELD PROVERBS IN HONOR

Greatest Men in the Pages of History Have Left Testimony to That Effect.
 That proverb has always been dear to the true intellectual aristocracy of a nation, there is abundant evidence to prove. Take but these three names in evidence, which are in themselves a host. Aristotle made a collection of proverbs; nor did he count that he was doing herein aught unworthy of his great reputation; however, some of his adversaries may have made this a charge against him. He is said to have been the first who did so, though many others have followed in the same path. Shakespeare loves them so well that besides often citing them, and innumerable covert allusions, rapid side glances at them, which we are in danger of missing unless we are at home in the proverbs of England, several of his plays, as "Measure for Measure," "All's Well That Ends Well," have proverbs for their titles. And Cervantes, a name only inferior to Shakespeare, has not left us in doubt in respect of the affection with which he regarded them. Every reader of "Don Quixote" will remember his squire, who sometimes cannot open his mouth but there drop from it almost as many proverbs as words. I might name others who held the proverb in honor—men who, though they may not attain to these three, are yet deservedly accounted great.—Trench.

Merely Old-Fashioned Idea.
 It is impossible to believe that being bright in school counts for much after you learn that your little boy is getting poorer grades than his cousin.—Kansas City Star.
