"ADLESS" FRONT PAGE RECEIVED MUCH PRAISE

"Schlitz."
 Newspaper Man's Comments.
 D. F. Merrill of the Hinsdale Downs, was very enthusiastic over the improved appearance of The Reporter in its "adless" front page form. He said he hardly realized himself, and he has been in the business for many years, just what a difference it made between ads on the front page and without. He congratulated us heartily and predicted that our subscribers would be more than pleased with the result.

It was only after several months of thought on the subject that we decided to take the ads off the front page. It meant a drop in the revenue, as of course front page advertising is higher in price, but we are out to make The Reporter the best possible for our readers and think that in its present form it is the best paper in DuPage County. We are not alone in this belief. One of the representative citizens of Downers Grove, who subscribed for every paper in the County told us, not once but several times, that The Reporter, considered from a news and advertising standpoint, is DuPage County's best.

Mr. Rummel of the International Harvester Company who spoke to the Community Club last Friday evening on "Seed Corn," is a wonderfully good speaker and his talk was very helpful and interesting and the club was sorry to see him leave so early in order to catch a train, but we hope to have him again at some future date. The musical reading by Miss Henrietta and Lucy Riedy and piano duet by Mr. and Miss Duell and the drawing by Mr. Henry Duell were all enjoyed. The election of officers was held and the Social committee served refreshments. A very pleasant evening was spent. At the next meeting, April 9th, Dr. Goodwin of Downers Grove, will be the speaker. Resourceful Bridegroom.

Just as a Portland (Me.) lawyer was about to begin a wedding ceremony the lights in his office went out. The bridegroom asked to be excused a few minutes, and ran down into the street, where he saw a lantern which was used to warn vehicles of a hole in the ground. He borrowed it long enough to become a benedict, and neither he nor his bride regarded the red light as an evil omen.

Let's Get Acquainted

"Get better acquainted with your neighbor—you might like him!" That's a pretty good motto for a community like ours, isn't it? Town folks should get better acquainted with country folks; the merchants and the bankers should get to know the farmers—and how they are farming. Speaking for this bank, we'd like to get acquainted personally with every farmer hereabouts—he might like us enough to deposit money with us; we might like him enough to lend him some. Anyway, we could swap ideas—and perhaps add his name to the rapidly growing list of subscribers for

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

Sometimes banks get acquainted with farmers by giving good advice, or urging good roads, or organizing calf clubs among the boys. That last was the way of our country is told in THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN dated March 6. And we'd like to get acquainted with you through this Great National Farm Weekly itself. We know that THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN helps farmers all over the United States to make more and more money. It would please us to see you making more money too, so we stand ready to send in your subscription if you just say the word. One dollar buys it for a whole year—52 big, friendly, helpful, weekly issues. Get acquainted with THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN—you're sure to like it.
