MORALE and CLOTHES

In the army they realize the effect clothes have on the morale of soldiers. Every man's uniform must be pressed and spotless—it must fit—it is cut along snappy lines.
 Good clothes are as important in civilian life as in the army. They give you confidence and make a favorable impression.
 Let us measure you for your new suit. It will cost no more than ordinary clothes, but when you try it on you'll soon realize what we mean by "Clothes That Make The Success Spirit."
