Odd Fellows! Keep in mind the night of April 26th. Downers Grove Lodge, I. O. O. F. is celebrating the 101st anniversary and also entertaining the District No. 12 Organization. A good program has been arranged by the Booster Club. Be there. We just naturally are bound to take off our hats to the Dicke Theatre in acknowledgement of the excellent pictures they have shown during the past months. Furthermore, we understand that those to come are just as good, if not better. Congratulations. adv. The pupils of Miss Marion Lower will give a piano recital at Library Hall on Friday evening, April 23d, at eight o'clock. Miss Lower will be assisted by Miss Kathryn Olson, reader, and the evening promises to be an enjoyable one. The tickets are 25 cents. Mary Miles Minter will appear in another Reart picture, "Judy of Rogues Harbor," at the Dicke Theatre, Saturday, April 17th. Like all the Reart pictures, this one will prove highly entertaining. Mrs. Piltz, before her marriage was Anna Boldebeck and both are well known to the older residents of the village. He is survived by his widow and five children. The Philathea Banquet given at the Methodist church was a great success. Mrs. F. J. Milnes, retiring president, with a few well chosen words, introduced the speaker of the evening, Rev. Clyde Hay of Chicago, who gave quite a remarkable address on "Sunday School Evangelism." Mrs. Frank E. Lower is teacher of the class which is in a very prosperous condition. The Booster Club of the Odd Fellows was entertained at the home of Wm. H. Smith on North Forest ave., on Wednesday evening. Miss Mary Smith won the hearts of all the men, according to the old saying, thru their appetites, by making some of her delicious cookies. A motion is before the Club to hold all of their meetings at the Smith home. Carried. Remember the tornado came thru here a few Sundays ago? The destruction it wrought in Melrose Park was visited on the homes of those that could least afford to bear the brunt of the damage. They have asked for money with which to rebuild. Are we to stand aside and give them nothing? Subscription lists are at both banks. Make your contribution at once. Additional locals on page 8.
