AGNES ROTH VISITS HOME—A MAY BRIDE

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Carmody, of Valier, Mont., are visiting this week with Mrs. Carmody's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Roth, of Oakwood avenue. The following clipping from the Valier, Mont. Valerian, explains the circumstances.

At the parish, Thursday morning at seven o'clock, Miss Agnes M. Roth and Mr. Edward Carmody were united in marriage by Father VandeGev-el.

A most impressive ring ceremony was used. The only witnesses were Mrs. A. C. Wood, Mr. H. I. Oleson and Tom Mick. Immediately following the ceremony the party went to Hotel Valier where a wedding breakfast was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Carmody departed for Downers Grove, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo., where they will visit relatives for a month when they will return to Montana and continue to make their home in Valier.

The bride has been, for the past year, stenographer for the Valier Larr & Water Co., and has been a most competent employe, popular with her business associates and a host of friends.

The groom has been a citizen of Valier for several years, being employed by the same company. He is also popular among a large circle of friends who join the Valerian in wishing them much happiness and success.
