Mrs. J. W. Woods writes that the family like their new Iowa home very much.

Mr. Chas. Fox of Kewanee, visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Rigsbee and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. May have returned from Kankakee where they visited with Mr. May's cousin.

Great excitement was manifested at Mertz & Mochel's store yesterday morning when Gene Pfaff walked in without the mustache which has been his constant companion for so many years. One of his fellow employees saw what he thought was a stranger monkeying with the cash register and only close examination revealed the fact that it was Mr. Pfaff.

Douglas Fairbanks in "The Molly-coddle" will soon be at the Dicke Theatre, watch for the ad. Doug. hasn't been here for some time and we will all be glad to see him again.

Word has been received that Ted Curtiss and John Mochel, who have been touring Japan with the Chicago University baseball team, have landed at Vancouver, British Columbia, and are expected to arrive home today. Local baseball fans have eagerly been waiting their appearance in uniform with the American Legion team.

E. E. Bain and family of Lisle luckily escaped from injury when an automobile filled with intoxicated men ran into them just outside of Downers Grove. The Bain car pulled off to the side of the road because the approaching car did not have its lights dimmed, but in spite of this fact it was struck and knocked into the ditch. No one was injured, luckily.

Founded on J. M. Barrje's famous play, "The Admirable Crichton," this play, "Male and Female," which will be at the Curtiss Theatre Friday and Saturday, June 25th and 26th is a big play well worth seeing. It is a picture that seizes the creatures of a misfit "civilization" and flings them down in a land where nature rules. Come and see what happens.

Has anyone been visited by a swarm of bees that does not belong to them? If so, kindly notify Mrs. C. W. Brookins, phone 213-W-1. The bees swarmed on Monday, June 21, and because of the heavy showers it was impossible to keep track of them and find out where they finally located. Any information will be gratefully received.

Homer S. Dum left Monday evening for Salt Lake City, Utah, where he will attend the sessions of the National Educational Association. En route he will visit with relatives and friends in Kansas City, Mo., Topeka, Kansas and Denver, Colorado. At the educational convention Mr. Dum will demonstrate a moving picture machine, in which he is interested, which has been designed especially for use in the school room.

Sec., Stanley J. Brown

Pres. L. B. Wells.

County of Du Page, ss.

State of Illinois.
Personally appeared before me this 7th day of June 1920, L. B. Wells, President and Stanley J. Brown, Secretary of the Downers Grove Free Public Library, and acknowledged that the above report was a true statement of the affairs of the Downers Grove Public Library.

William H. Blodgett, Notary Public.
After listening to a report from Mr. W. S. Shields and Mr. J. S. Lozier, Engineers, relative to the condition of the Village Sewage Disposal Plant and an estimate of the cost of making repairs to the plant, Commissioner Heartt moved to adjourn to the next regular meeting date, June 28th, 1920. On roll call Commissioners Heartt, Bender, Bryce, Haller and Mayor Barber voted Aye. Nays none. Motion carried.

Chas. M. Hitch, Village Clerk.

pleasure in the many congratulations showered upon his son.

Special Music.
During the church service and the dinner and speeches which followed, members of the choir sang beautifully. In solo and chorus work they are wonderful. The music for the Solemn High Mass showed great preparation and a keen understanding of religious music.

High-Sounding Titles.
Chinese emperors are never mentioned by name from the moment of their accession, and are generally alluded to by some such title as "Lord of a Myriad Years," or "The Son of Heaven."
