IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

We want to increase the number of caddies for regular work and have decided to advance the pay 10 cents per hour. Afternoons during the week and all day Saturday and Sunday the demand for caddies is far greater than the supply, so if you want to make some real money this summer this is your chance. Beginning July 3rd Class A caddies will draw 40 cents per hour and Class B 30 cents per hour. Class B caddies will be promoted to Class A just as soon as they show sufficient improvement to justify the advancement.

Tell all your chums about it and come up and join the basket ball, volley ball and baseball teams, also the caddie golf tournament. Fine prizes will be given to the winners of different events.

Don't forget the blow-out Monday, July 11th, at five o'clock in the main dining room. Good eats, including ice cream and cake, also lots of "pop." Everything free. Only caddies who register regularly will be allowed to attend the party.

Caddie work is a healthful occupation and from now on offers an opportunity of making big money.

OPERA SINGERS OPEN CHAUTAUQUA TOMORROW

written with a real feeling for that particular type of humor that has been recognized as purely American since the days of Ben Franklin.

It is so well balanced in basic human values that it cheers the heart and diverts the mind at the same operation.

"It Pays to Advertise" is absolutely clean and wholesome and this fact combined with the rich Americanism of its humor, the rapid-fire idioms contained in the dialogue and the many clever situations effected marked its New York production as the most successful comedy drama in recent years.

The laughs? "It Pays to Advertise" runs over with laughs.

Before the company has been before you two minutes the play will reach out after you and rap you genially on the back, and you will be aware of a warm, comfortable feeling that will cause you to settle back contentedly, with complete trust that it is going to keep you jovial and interested the whole evening.

Sixth Day

The children's hour work is an important part of the Redpath Chautauqua community service. The work is in charge of a young woman especially chosen because of her training and experience in this particular field. She meets the children daily in the Chautauqua tent and entertains them delightfully by story telling and teaching of songs and folk dances.

This year the feature of the children's hour work will be the presentation by the children of the community under the direction of the children's worker of the pageant entitled "The Good Fairy Thrift." Special costumes will be provided by the Redpath management.

The Redpath is confident that parents and children alike will find "The Good Fairy Thrift" a source of entertainment, instruction and inspiration.

Woodland Singers are a straight singing quartet, having no instrumental attachment other than a piano, which is used for accompaniment in solo work.

While each member of the company is a soloist of long proven ability, the main part of the program will be given over to ensemble work as especial care was taken in the selection of voices peculiarly adapted to close harmony and smooth blending.

For thirty-five years Edward Reno has been a magician and in that time he has traveled all over the world, including India, Syria and Egypt. Reno is constantly inventing new things in magic and illusions, also in foreign lands he picked up many things not known to many professionals.

Reno has the usual light paraphernalia, but performs his tricks while in ordinary evening dress and so adroitly as to escape detection in every case. In this respect he is a wonder. He does things that seem absolutely impossible of execution without the aid of supernatural agency.

One of his performances that never fails to amaze his audiences is known as the "dove trick." He burns a piece of common paper, and a dove rises phoenix-like from the ashes. He apparently tears the dove in two, only to find that he has two doves in his hand. He throws a glass of water into the air, and it changes into a dove and flies away.

A Great Program

Taken all in all, the program is the absolute best aggregation of talent on any circuit and Downers people will get more than their money's worth of clean entertainment.

The chautauqua tent will be pitched on the high school grounds on Maple avenue. It is not yet too late to purchase season tickets for the six days. Ask your nearest exercise man who is a member of the Legion.

Signs of Consumption.

What are the early symptoms? The patient may have neither cough nor expectoration. He feels tired in the afternoon, and wakes tired in the morning. His appetite is poor, and he begins to lose weight or to stop growing. He is easily exhausted after exercise. Anyone who notices these symptoms in himself should consult a doctor. In any family, rich or poor, in which one member is known to have consumption, all the others should be examined by specialists.

Orchid Crossbreeding.

While orchids from the wilds have remarkable and interesting characteristics, they are being rivaled and surpassed by new forms produced by hybridization in the greenhouses of experts. Now, the hybrids are many in number and are supplanting the older varieties in part because of their exquisite beauty of color and form, their increased fragrance and their greater ease of cultivation. It is slow work, the crossbreeding of orchids, but it is marvelously fascinating.
