By Scribner.

"Brick" Binder's bat was responsible for the locals 10 to 6 victory over Lockport Sunday. In the sixth he lifted the pill to East Grove for a home run allowing Nash and Mochel to score ahead of him. This made the count six all. In the seventh he singled to right scoring Mochel and Mrvicka. Brick has been hitting the pill consistently this year, batting over the five hundred mark.

The seventh frame was a merry affair on Lockport's part. Six hits and two errors were responsible for four runs. Skidmore opened with a screetching drive to extreme left for two holes. Hawkins rolled to the shortstop and was thrown out. Skidmore was forced to hug the keystone bag. Bruns scored Skidmore on an infield hit. Mochel and Mrvicka followed with doubles. Bruns scoring on the latter's. Binder and Klein singled driving in Mochel and Mrvicka after the left fielder had robbed Nash of a clean hit. Johnson flied out closing a disastrous frame.

The locals started out poor. With the aid of three errors and a single Lockport succeeded in pushing across a tally in the initial frame. Bruns was on the mound for Downers Grove and pitched excellent ball. He was hit considerable but despite this fact he showed old time form. He had pitched a nine inning game the day before but didn't seem to notice it as he burned them across like the "Colosimo" of old. He was given good support in all but the first inning.

The local players are coming along in great shape as to their hitting part of the game. Their slugging has been responsible for a number of victories. They pounded the ball all over the lot, altho Murray was shooting any place but in the groove. They collected four doubles, a triple and a home run. Elsewhere in this issue you will find the batting averages of the players to date.

Next Sunday the locals will hook up with one of the fastest teams around Chicago. The West Ends will be at the North Side field on Sunday. They have as their victims a number of the better semi-pro teams of Chicago. It should prove a game worth while seeing.

STEVENSON-COX

A pretty home wedding was celebrated on Wednesday evening, July 28th, when Ruth Irene Stevenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Stevenson of North Main street, became the bride of Mr. Lawrence A. Cox, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cox, of West Curtiss street.

About sixty relatives and friends of the contracting parties attended the wedding which was performed at the bride's home.

The bride was gowned in embroidered net over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. She was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Dwight Cox, as Matron of Honor, who wore pale green organdie and carried pink roses. An old friend, Miss Marjory Anderson, of Aurora was bridesmaid. She wore pale yellow organdie and carried pink roses.

Dwight Cox, brother of the groom acted as best man, filling the place his brother had filled for him just a few weeks before.

Lohengrin's wedding march was played by Miss Alice Olson at the piano, Mr. George Bunge, saxophone and Miss Beatrice Anthony, violin. Miss Gwendolyn Griffiths sang, Oh Promise Me and At Dawning.

Leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away, the bride came down the stairway with her attendants to a bower of ferns and flowers where the groom waited to claim her. Here were said the beautiful phrases which made them man and wife. The Rev. Norman Andersen, a Downers Grove boy, who is filling the pulpit of Rev. Jenness, at Hinckley, Ill., this summer, reading the solemn words of the single ring ceremony.

Many and beautiful were the gifts received.

The out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Cochran, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. N. Sperry of Galesburg, Miss Edna Jamison of Higgsville, Ill., and relatives from Yorkville and Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Cox left after the ceremony on a week's automobile trip in parts unknown. On their return they will make their home for the present with the groom's parents on West Curtiss street.

BAPTIST YOUNG FOLKS REPEATED "IN HIS STEPS"

The young people of the Baptist Church in accordance with the announcement made last week repeated by request, the dramatic adaptation of Dr. Charles M. Sheldon's book, "In His Steps," last Friday evening with practically the same cast of characters as the week before.

While the audience was not quite so large as the previous week due in a measure to the excessively warm evening, it was large enough to show considerable interest and appreciation of the production.

The West Ends of Chicago, will be the opponents of the Legion on the local diamond next Sunday.
