

NEWSY NOTES FROM LISLE AND BELMONT

Members of the Advance Bible Class very pleasantly surprised Rev. Anderson Thursday evening at his home, the occasion being his birthday. The evening was spent playing games which had been very well planned by the game committee. Very tasty refreshments were served at a late hour at which time the general discussion centered around the question "Who'll be President." The host was the recipient of a beautiful bouquet of big yellow chrysanthemums on which was tied a little box containing a gold coin.

Mr. Norman B. Willard, a former resident, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hatch.

Mrs. George DuMoulin, who was called home to Belvidere, Ill., one day last week on account of the illness of her father, has returned. Her father is somewhat improved.

Mr. Chas. Lacey spent a few days this week with relatives in Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. A. H. Anderson called on Mr. and Mrs. Steele of Lockport Sunday afternoon.

Ross Rogers came home from Wisconsin University to spend the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rogers.

Word was received on Monday that Mr. F. Nelson, a former resident, was instantly killed while crossing the railroad tracks at Plato Center. He was the father of Jim Nelson, Mrs. Patrick Venard, and Mrs. Charles Plumb, of Downers Grove.

The Advance Bible Class will have their regular meeting and social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Barnacle Friday evening. All members invited.

Madeline Laing has been on the sick list for several days.

SOUTH-OF-LISLENOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Friedell Richey are now settled in their country home "Lyndell."

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Staffeldt and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller motored to Aurora Sunday and called on a niece of Mrs. Fred Staffeldt.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Greene attended the Home Coming at Champaign Saturday.

Mr. Orvy Peterson and Mr. Arnold Faulhaber called on Alfred Peterson at the Presbyterian hospital Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kampmeyer and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Strauley of Downers Grove.

Mrs. Clara Yackley and sister Miss Mabel Pelling entertained thirty-six guests at a Topsy Turvy Witch party Saturday evening. The house was beautifully decorated in autumn leaves and jack o' lanterns. The lunch was served topsy turvy, doughnuts on broom handles, orange and black candies and oh! such pumpkin pie. The guests departed at a late hour, having felt they had been upset in a most delightful manner.

Mr. Henry Ory spent Friday evening in St. Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pfaff went to see Mr. Joe Pfaff at the West Suburban hospital Thursday.

Miss Meirbah McColl of Wheaton, spent the week end at Hill Crest.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vial entertained at a Hallowe'en party Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strauley and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strauley at Lemont.

Miss Miriam Sampson of Galena, is spending several weeks with her cousin, Miss Marion Greene.

Mr. Henry Faulhaber called on Mr. Joe Pfaff at the West Suburban hospital Monday.

Mr. D. D. Barnard spent the week end with his son, Algernon, at Champaign.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bain and daughter, Edna, will leave this week for their home in Chicago.

About thirty weird and spook like figures crawled through a barrel and were admitted to the Goodrich home Friday evening. The house was decorated in orange and black, flowers and jack o' lanterns. The lunch was entirely in keeping with Hallowe'en, the cider especially enjoyed. Ask Harry? One by one the spooks departed leaving only a shadow of an evening well spent.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS AGO IN THE REPORTER

From the issue of Nov. 3, 1898.
Attorney F. W. C. Hayes, counsel for the Sanitary District of Chicago, died at his summer home on Linscott avenue, at 3:30 Tuesday afternoon from cerebral typhoid fever. He served as an attorney for the City of Chicago under Mayor Washburne. Among the city cases which he conducted successfully will be remembered the Wentworth avenue sewer case which was the most important special assessment matter ever tried in this country. The total of this assessment amounted to $816,000 and five different juries, passed on the various phases of the case. In one of the trials involving over $120,000 of objections, twenty prominent attorneys were pitted against him and it was only after a trial of thirty days that the jury found for the city.

Mrs. W. Mitchell of East Grove luckily escaped when the horse she was driving turned the buggy over, breaking it into pieces with her at the bottom of the wreckage.

Miss Grace M. Haymond of Sandwich, and Mr. Chas. P. Blodgett were married at the home of the bride's parents yesterday afternoon, the Rev. Dent of the Snadwich First Baptist Church, officiating.

Miss Ella Beidelman and Mr. John Diener were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Beidelman, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Rev. Carl Friedrich officiating.

Mrs. A. M. Kennett arrives tomorrow to join her husband who has rented the Martin house at Foote and Franklin streets.

Mrs. A. M. Cornelius and daughter, Bessie, are on an extended visit to the former's old home and birthplace in Logan county with friends and relatives.

ADORABLE SAVAGE

Starring EDITH ROBERTS and JACK PERRIN

A Delightful Universal Special Attraction

An entrancing tale of romance in the South Sea Islands in "The Adorable Savage," the latest Universal vehicle for Edith Roberts. Miss Phillips, the celebrated Hawaiian beauty who takes the part of the ceremonial dancer, is a grandchild of the late King Kamehameha. She is a native Hawaiian, her family adopting the American name when the United States came into possession of the island. Her first appearance before the camera is said to be highly successful, while her performance of the "Meke" and other South Sea Island dances is one of the unique features.

MRS. SIDNEY DREW'S ADAPTATION OF

"The Gay Old Dog"

by Edna Ferber

This "Gay Old Dog" is no stranger to you. He's the fellow who works next to you at the office, or the lonely chap who runs the tailor shop down the road, or maybe he's the friend whom you stigmatized as "close" and "stingy" because you didn't know.

HARRY CAREY in "Blue Streak McCoy"

Vigorous and likable—whimsical and human—ready to laugh or to fight at the drop of a hat—that's Harry Carey in his latest big production, "Blue Streak McCoy." A stirring outdoors story rich with romance and winding up with one of the most desperate fights you ever saw on the screen. Don't miss this picture—it's the real thing.
