Julian ELTINGE

in
"An Adventuress"

Julian Eltinge is a two-fisted, red-blooded man—yet he is known as "the most beautiful woman on the American stage." With this dual personality he has fascinated millions.

In "An Adventuress," Mr. Eltinge appears as Jack Perry of Harvard and Mam-selle Fedora. The setting is the comic opera country of Albania, and the story is full of laughs and thrills.

MARY MILES MINTER
"EYES OF THE HEART"

ADAPTED FROM "BLINDNESS"
DANA BURNET
DIRECTED BY PAUL DOWELL
SCENARIO BY CLARA KENNEDY.

The thief who had broken into the office was just about to make his get-away. And then something seemed to snap in the girl's mind. She had been in a dream when her delicate fingers had found the combination to the safe. Now she was awake. With a wild cry she threw herself upon the man—This is only one of the tense scenes in "EYES OF THE HEART," the superb drama in which MARY MILES MINTER is now starring.

REALART PICTURES
Presents
"THE SOUL OF YOUTH"
A WILLIAM D. TAYLOR PRODUCTION

Children, we will admit, can stir up more excitement and cause more anxiety in a minute than all the adults you know of (including your in-laws) could manage in a week. "The Soul of Youth" is the greatest "Kid" picture ever made. Lewis Sargent, the boy who was "Huck Finn," snub-nosed Earnest Butterworth, little Elizabeth Jones, William Collier, Jr., Miss Lila Lee and the cutest little black boy that was ever "bawn" are all in this picture.
