REVIVAL SERVICES CONTINUE AT THE 1st EVANGELICAL

Rev. John Stamm is Assisting the Local Pastor-Special Muisc Next Week.

Revival and evangelistic services Sunday-8 a. m., Mass, reading of were begun last Sunday and have Week days-Holy Communion, 7 a. will now assist throughout the series of services which will continue on Men's Sodality meets on the fifth thru next week. No word need be of his former pastorate of five years

During the present week much of inspiration has been added to the services by special messages in Gospel song sung by various members of the church. Next week, beginning with Sunday evening, consecrated Chris, tion students, in preparation for various lines of Christian life work in Evangelical Theological Seminary, will bring the special messages in ests. song. There will be male quartets mixed quartets and soloists. Special music for each evening. Each evening meeting begins with a Gospet song service, in which all participate, at 7:45 promptly. The co-operation of the people of the various churches has been appreciated. It is expected that the church will be filled to capacity on Sunday. The services will continue troughout next week.
